Ed.—No. I think any house in the city of New York, or in Westchester County, will be a profitable investment at the rates now current in the market. But, understand me, I do not believe that all will be equally profitable, as I have already pointed out, the "very big" money is in the highest price down-town business property, in that golden district near the Stock Exchange, and where the great banking interests of the world are represented. For, mark you, New York is becoming the great money centre of the world, and the time cannot be far distant, when our bankers will be leaders in all the great syndicates for developing public works of utility in every part of the globe.

Inv.—Conceding that the business centre will be the most profitable, that, of course, involves the outlay of the most money. But suppose you have only from $50,000 to $100,000 to invest?

Ed.—Then, I should say, take a look at the property north of the Harlem River, or in Westchester County, north of the railroads, which will connect in time with the elevated road system. You can buy a great deal of property for comparatively little money, but, remember, it will require time to develop values. Strangely enough, the same elevated road system, which continues a monopoly of the old business centres, is equalizing the values of available residence properties. In the era when omnibuses were the only popular city travel, lots above Twenty-third street were of not much account; they were too far from business centres. The horse car era made available all the city property below the Central Park, and gave it an exceptional value over the region north, which could not be reached without serious loss of time by people doing business below Canal street. But now comes what may be termed the era of city steam travel, which has rendered available for immediate settlement every part of New York island, within four blocks of an elevated road station. In other words, a city business man or mechanic has four to five times as much land to build on, for his home, as he had during the horse car era. Hence, for the immediate future, there can be no extravagant values for lots, as there were, for instance, for Fifth avenue Central Park property before the panic. Of course, fashion will give exceptional value to certain locations. Certain neigborhoods will command higher prices than other localities, but, as a general thing, the price of lots suitable for residences will command lower figures than they would, were there no elevated roads.

Inv.—You have said that the quick money was in buying just ahead of improvements. That involves, of course, the command of considerable sums.

Ed.—Yes; to make money in that kind of speculation you should control large sums of money. You would find it profitable also to advance loans to builders to improve your property. They are generally willing to pay the highest prices for lots if money is advanced to them.

Inv.—How about property between Fourteenth and Forty-second streets?

Ed.—It will advance on general principles. But I certainly should not choose that portion of the city, except in certain locations, with the hope of any very large advance. It is an excellent part of the city to settle in for a home, but the tendency of fashion is up town in the neighborhood of the new parks; hence the great speculation in lots east of the Central Park and west of Third avenue.

Inv.—You speak of certain localities as being better than the rest of this region. To what do you allude?

Ed.—I mean Fourteenth street, Twenty-third street, Fifth avenue, the upper portion of Sixth avenue, and perhaps some of the side streets on the West side. These will be in demand for business purposes. A marvellous change has come over Fourteenth street in the last eighteen months. I mean, of course, that portion which lies between Sixth avenue and Union square. One prominent real estate operator has had a great deal to do with it. Then the establishment of Stern's store in Twenty-third street shows the value which may be given to a location by one enterprising firm. Store property on Sixth avenue is constantly increasing in value, and will continue to do so with the development of West Side population. Then, lower Fifth avenue, below say Fortieth street, will in time be given over to a retail traffic of a very costly kind. That will be filled in time with diamond dealers, jewelers, art stores, dealers in curiosities and articles of vertu, and a whole range of fancy goods of a choice and costly kind not to be found in the large stores. The part of this district which will be least desirable is the residence portion on the cross streets. I think up-town locations in the neighborhood of our beautiful parks will be preferred to the cross streets below Forty-second street.

Inv.—You speak of general considerations. What do I understand you to mean?

Ed.—It is settled, of course, that money in this country is to be cheaper in the future than it has been in the past. Instead of easily securing from seven to ten per cent. for legitimate investments, we shall have to be satisfied with from three and a half to six per cent. But I do not look for any immediate decrease in the price of rents. Indeed, landlords this spring are advancing their rents. New York is a desirable city to live in, as well as a luxury that must be paid for. Yet, rentals in time will not average much more than five per cent. income. In my judgment, this five per cent. will represent what we may call the increased capitalization of houses. As money became cheaper it advanced the price of stocks. The same argument which sent New York Central from 120 to 154 holds true of house property in all the large cities. While growing, there'll be some appreciation of rents, but a vastly greater enhancement of the market value of house property. Houses which to-day sell for $30,000 ought to be worth $45,000 on the same rentals. You cannot miss it, therefore, in buying property between Fourteenth and Forty-second streets, but you must realize that once on board the elevated cars, people as readily go to One-hundreth street as stop at Thirtieth street. Hence, I judge there is more future money in property on each side of and beyond the Central Park than half a mile below it.

Inv.—You believe in West Side property, don't you?

Ed.—In the fullness of time, as in every other large capital of the world, the West Side will be the fashionable quarter of New York. West and northwest of the Central Park, along the Boulevard, the Riverside drives, and back of Morningside Park, will be erected the residences of the creme-de-la-creme of New York society.

Inv.—You think the brown-stone houses, then, will begin to make their appearance in the new quarters soon?

Ed.—Softly, softly! I did not say brown-stone houses. Indeed, I think that the new rich, or rather, the residences of the very rich will difference themselves from the prevailing monotony of brown-stone. In the omnibus era our finest houses were brick. In the horse-car era brown stones. The new fashionable quarters, rendered possible by steam, will, I think, show a change in our city [architecture, which may have important results. I think the millionaire of the future will want fine grounds as well as fine houses, and that he will build palaces with approaches, instead of a residence without even a garden or a grass plot upon a street. Now, brown-stone does not look so well, surrounded by foliage, as do lighter colored building materials.

Inv.—If that taste should spring up, we would soon see fancy property taken up on this Island, as well as on the river front and the Twenty-fourth Ward?

Ed.—Yes, the temporary craze for apartment houses, economizes the ground used for building purposes, but if the fine house of the future should involve from a quarter to five acres, the choice sites near the elevated railways would soon be gobbled up. If this whim should reach our rich people, you may expect to see phenomenal prices for well located, improved property, adjacent to the elevated roads.

Inv.—What effect will the World's Fair have?

Ed.—If held, it will add fuel to the speculative flame in real estate. It will bring into prominent notice the land in its immediate neighborhood, much of which is picturesque. It will give our citizens pleasure resorts in the neighborhood of Highbridge, which will outlast the exhibition. Then, it will not interfere with the legitimate improvement of the West Side, but will call attention to that most beautiful part of our city.

Inv.—General business, you think, will continue good?

Ed.—I see no prospect of any serious drawback until the next railway crash comes. We are overdoing railway building, and it will have the usual result. Panics which occured in the London stock market, brought about by over-building, will be experienced here when the time comes. But I think we are safe for two or three years yet, and unless we have a war, or some unforeseen calamity, I never expect to see any such depression in real estate as lasted from 1873 to 1878.

Inv.—THE REAL ESTATE RECORD has generally been very sound on the financial situation and the price of realty, and hence my seeking to converse with you personally.

Ed.—Well, to say the least, we have been very lucky. THE REAL ESTATE RECORD is an old institution. We foretold the panic of '73, the bulls in real estate were very angry at our frankness for telling the truth at that time. Indeed, we gained the ill-will of the speculative real estate interest, by telling the whole truth about prices during the dismal period from 1874 to the beginning of 1878. You may imagine there was somewhat of a pressure upon us from large holders, who saw with dismay a gradual shrinkage of values, and who would have liked to get some comfort from their favorite real estate organ. But we honestly tried to be entirely truthful, and are glad to know that conservative holders of real estate were pleased with our course. They wanted facts and such opinions as the facts warranted, and not pleasant lies.

Inv.—I notice you have recently paid a good deal of attention to the discussion of general financial topics, as well as mining.

Ed.—Yes. You see a better state of feeling in business circles, first shows itself on the Stock Exchange. Prices there tell how the current is setting, and any one who wants to deal intelligently in realty, must carefully watch the general tendency of the stock list prices. In January, 1878, we were able to announce that the tide had turned; that hereafter prices were to be upward. In the fall of '79, as our files will show, we pointed out that the "big" money was to be made in the low-priced Western securities. We stated this over and over again, at a time when the financial press of the country was deprecating the interest shown in the cats and dogs of the stock market. But the RECORD was right. When we first pointed out the possible profit there was in the railway stocks west of the Missouri, M. K. & T., Iron Mountain Kansas Pacific, Wabash and Texas Pacific were selling very low. See where they are now. And the most of the money was made in just that class of securities. Last fall again, week in and week out, we pointed out that the money was in high-priced securities, and it would really be a curious matter to note the quotations for Rock Island, Chicago & Burlington, Alton, Lake Shore and New York Central, in October last, when we were writing these articles, and then compare them with the December prices. Any one who has followed our advice has made money. In the issue of THE RECORD of November 27th, which is the only one we will cite, we predicted that certain stocks, then named, would sell within sixty days at prices which we then put into figures. It is worth reproducing in tabular form, a list of these stocks, with the prices they were then selling for, the price predicted, and the figures which they reached within that time:

	Nov. 27.	Price predicted.	Price reached.
Delaware & Hudson ...	91	100	107
Canada Southern.....	72	90	90
Lake Shore	122	130	138
Omaha Preferred	85	95	109
Erie.....	48	55	52
C., O., C. & I	83	95	98
Oregon Navigation.....	130	175	175

Inv.—But you don't tell anyone to buy stocks now?

Ed.—No, it is real estate that is next in order. There can be no mistake in buying that at present figures, while there is a chance to make serious blunders in buying any railway stock at present figures.

Inv.—Why did you interfere in the mining field?

Ed.—Because it was a speculation which we saw was likely to work mischief. There were so many investors who read the RECORD, that we felt we owed them a word of caution at least. You will notice that we deprecated the mining craze from the beginning. It happened that we were in a position to know all about the mining fever, and we told the truth about it. There were a couple of supplements issued by us. This was last April, and in those supplements you can read the subsequent history of the mines on this market. We gave the facts about Father De Smet, Little Pittsburgh, Chrysolite, Bassick, Horn Silver, Bull Domingo, Spring Valley, Homestake, Silver Cliff, Harshaw and scores of other, then popular properties. But the truth about mines was not what the public wanted; they wanted the lies, and so they read the Tribune, the World and the mining papers, and they very generally lost their money. We never did anything with better intentions than what we said about the mining fever. But while what we said was heeded, judged by the price of the stocks it did the RECORD no good. We could have had a great deal of advertising had we puffed the mining swindles, as the other papers did; but we did not canvass for that class of business, nor wished to profit by the craze, then under way. The mining business has come to New York, and to stay; but there will be no more mining fevers.

The annual statement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company is indeed a statement of which any corporation may be proud. That an organization, however, which had to face the storms of the past, and especially the depression in realty covering a period of at least five years, should make such a splendid showing, the very first year after the return of prosperity, speaks volumes in behalf of its management. With assets amounting to nearly $92,000,000, and a surplus fund of nearly five millions, we should like to hear of another company, that can show such an excellent standing at the beginning of the year.

THE BUILDING DEPARTMENT AND THE ANNEXED DISTRICT.

To the Editor of THE REAL ESTATE RECORD.

The Building Department will not let us build two story frame buildings filled in with bricks—front, rear and sides, and hall partitions filled in with bricks—buildings that will burn slower than a candle will burn. We have lots of people up here who would erect such buildings and could let them cheap. The force of Croton water up here, from a common fire hydrant, is such that with a hose and ⅝ inch nozzle I could throw a stream over a five story building without the aid of a fire steam engine. I have tried it in filling cisterns with water. Manhattan Island has 21 square miles; the annexed district gave it 19 more. Manhattan Island has 1,000,000 inhabitants, while we have only 50,000 or less inhabitants, and yet Esterbrook and the Building Department will not let us build two story high basement frame houses, not over 30 feet high.

Yours truly, GEO. C. GOELLER.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

The order of B'Nai Berith owns nine and a half acres of land at Yonkers, and will shortly erect a home for the aged there, at an expense of $60,000.

A suit in partition for the sale of the southwest corner of Broadway and Bleecker street, running through to Mercer, has been brought in the Supreme Court.

The block bounded by Tillary, Raymond and Sycamore streets, Brooklyn, is used as an experiment for building very small brick houses. They are to be rented at $18 a month, each.

It is suggested that the goods of the World's Fair could be landed at Sherman's Creek, with an easy grade up to the site Inwood. All this, of course, provided the ship canal be finished in time.

The plans for extending the Metropolitan road from Rector street to the South ferry are being rapidly perfected The electric lights at the uptown stations are a great convenience for night travelers.

Comptroller Campbell gives notice that real estate owners can now pay arrears of taxes for 1877, 1878 and 1879, with interest at the rate of seven per cent. until April 1st; after that date the interest will be twelve per cent.

Brooklyn capitalists talk of constructing a tunnel from the East river bridge, on Sands street, to the junction of Atlantic and Flatbush avenues, and thence by an open cut up Atlantic avenue to the Brighton Beach depot.

THE PROPOSED MADISON AVENUE EXTENSION.

To the Editor of THE REAL ESTATE RECORD:

Few public improvements have been suggested or executed in the City of New York of more importance to the business interests, or to the necessities of the population, than that which contemplates the widening of Broadway from Seventeenth to Twentieth street, and the extension of Madison avenue to the latter point.

The cul-de-sac that is formed by the narrowing of Broadway just above Union Square to the dimensions of a country lane, is becoming daily a source of greater annoyance, discomfort, and absolute injury to business. Unless this is speedily remedied, the active trade that has within the last few years centered at this point, largely increasing the value of property, will be driven away, involving a consequent reduction in the value of real estate from which it will be difficult to recover.

The time has arrived when all who have any interest in property in the locality, as well as all who desire to see the great business interests of the city promoted, should unite to accomplish this important public improvement. A want of foresight in carrying out judicious improvements has, in a number of instances, been the cause of a very great depreciation in the value of real estate in certain localities. Property owners who stand in their own light often see their mistakes when too late to remedy them.

The changes that have taken place within a recent period in business circles, due to the elevated railways and other causes, have been nowhere more manifested than between Madison and Union squares, and, as a consequence, Broadway between these two points is jammed and blocked with vehicles during the greater portion of the day—gorged with an amount of traffic for which it is totally unprepared. University place, lower Broadway and the Bowery, all converge towards this narrow passageway with all the traffic that seeks the upper section of the city. Again, the erection of the Grand Central Depot at Forty-second street, between Madison and Fourth avenues, obstructing and cutting off the latter avenue at that point, while the entire eastern, northern and western railway passenger travel has been centered there, has thrown upon Madison avenue a large increase of travel that actually necessitates for that thoroughfare an outlet, that it does not now possess, to the southward. It is the natural and only legitimate and direct avenue of approach to the Grand Central Depot from the lower portion of the city, and the extension of the avenue is the direct outcome of the construction of that depot. If the commissioners for laying out the city had conceived the possibility of the erection of this great railway terminus at that point, they would certainly not have allowed Madison avenue to terminate against a block of buildings, but would have opened it to Union square.

The cost of this improvement will be small compared with the advantages to be derived from it. The increased value of the lots facing the avenue would far exceed the present value of the twenty-four lots to be taken, buildings included, to say nothing of the great public benefit that would accrue from it.

The entire space bounded by Twenty-third street, Broadway, Seventeenth street and Fourth avenue, is rapidly being absorbed for business purposes. It has ceased to be desirable as a place of residence. The simple question which presents itself to the owners of property within this space is, "What character of business shall occupy it?" If Madison avenue is extended, it will be faced on both sides with large and elegant stores and warehouses yielding a high rental. If Madison avenue is not extended, the intervening streets will be lined with insignificant and miscellaneous shops with low rentals, yielding small incomes.

Metropolitan rentals are destined to be something fabulous, but only in those localities where the foresight of owners leads them to make their property desirable and attractive, and this quarter of the city offers an unusual opportunity, which, if suffered to pass by, will not return.

To the city authorities the question presents itself in the two-fold light of necessity for creating increased commercial facilities, and an opportunity to increase the revenue of the city by encouraging the class of improvements that will necessarily follow the extension of Madison avenue and widening of Broadway.

Dilapidated dwelling-houses will give place to elegant and costly structures, ornamental to the city, adding to its attractions, and of course increasing the taxable value of property.

Finally, this improvement, which is urgently demanded at the present moment, will, if not now accomplished, become in the near future an imperative public necessity, at a largely increased cost.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

The real estate market just now is in a condition whence all sorts of deductions may be made To some it appears full of hope for the immediate future, to others it does not appear to have reached the strength which many dealers are willing to accredit it with. The truth is that the market is on a steady upward tendency, holding itself quietly aloof from outside influences—which have been endeavoring to fasten themselves upon its outskirts—and plodding its way along to prices that are gauged only by the actual question of supply and demand. Here and there some ex-mining speculator, for the want of something better to engage his attention, may be found disposed to either bear or bull certain parcels of property, but he readily ascertains that New York realty is not controlled by the laws and regulations governing transactions on speculative exchanges Neither his fanciful ideas nor his bank account at all affect a market, which, indeed, has rules to go by, based not only upon the questions of supply and demand, but also upon the contingent expenses, fancied or real, that affect property seeking a market. Hundreds of people visited the salesroom during the past week, and the majority of them paid close attention to the various parcels offered, but in most instances they were either secured by the parties in interest or adjourned to future dates. The Kingsbridge road property, northeast corner of Hawthorne street, was sold by Lespinasse & Friedman, for $22,950, to Mr. Wm. Yoran. The plot measured 200x350, and the amount of encumbrances on same footed up $21 500 Other property in this vicinity, advertised for a later day in the week, was not put up and the sale adjourned to a future day. Improved property on Thirty-fifth and Fifty-fifth streets, West Side, was sold by Mr. Harnett, at prices which can be found in the list annexed. while the sale of vacant property on Ninety-fifth street and One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, by authority of the Loan Commissioners, resulted in the disposal of the lots at very low figures. A considerable parcel of Perry street and Hammond street (West Eleventh street) property was sold by Mr. John T. Boyd, on Tuesday, for $15,500, but there was no life in the bidding.

On Thursday Mr. Josiah Jex offered, through E. H. Ludlow & Co., his properties along Broadway and Thirty-eighth street, also some parcels on Fifth avenue, One Hundred and Twenty-fifth and One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street. The auctioneers, by instruction, gave the upset price of $200,000 for the Broadway corner, but, notwithstanding the fact that there was a large attendance, not a single voice was raised, not a single bid heard. Mr. Jex, who has been heretofore offering this property through other auctioneers, did not mount the stand this time, but kept himself snugly esconced among the crowd of listeners. To his chagrin apparently no one lisped a word, and he was permitted to retire from the salesroom if not a wiser man, then at least with the thorough knowledge that people, when bidding, don't want to be gagged. The upset prices, no doubt, were fair, but, somehow or other, people in an auction room don't take to such arrangements, as we hope Mr. Jex has ascertained by this time. The failure of this sale does not in the least affect the real estate market; the conditions and restrictions insisted upon by the seller being the only drawbacks to a sale that might otherwise have proved exceedingly successful.

Some very important sales are announced for the coming week. Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son will sell on Thursday next, by order of the referee, business property on John, Pearl, Gold, Chambers and Dutch streets; also a chapel on East Twentieth street, a fine mansion on East Twenty-third street, and subsequently, some valuble property, in partition, on Duane street.

E H. Ludlow & Co. will sell on the same day, in partition, the northwest corner of Hester and Mott streets, being a valuable five-story brick factory.

Quite a number of parcels will be disposed of Tuesday, 8th inst, by Mr. Harnett, as will be seen by our advertising columns. They comprise two lots on the northeast corner of Eleventh avenue and Sixty-fourth street, ready for improvement, the northeast corner of Gouverneur and Cherry streets, a four-story and cellar brick house; and valuable property on East Eighty-sixth street, East Twenty-sixth street, and East Fourteenth street Also the northwest corner of Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Twentieth street. Most of this property now produces a handsome revenue, and all of it should attract the attention of investors.

In Brooklyn, on Wednesday next, Mr. J Cole will sell at the Commercial Exchange, 389 Fulton street, thirty-two lots on Fulton street, sixteen lots on Decatur street, and a very large lot fronting on Tompkins avenue, Fulton and Decatur streets. All this property is first-class, suitable for investment purposes, as all the streets in the immediate vicinity are paved, sewered and lighted.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

The inclement state of the weather, as well as the bullish notions of holders of real estate, considerably interfered with the closing of numerous transactions during the past week. Nevertheless, the market retains extraordinary strength, and investment property, paying even a fair income, is readily disposed of.

Quite a number of sales have been made recently at private contract, around Beaver, Broad and Stone streets, in the immediate vicinity of the new Produce Exchange. No 10 Stone street, for instance, has been sold on private terms, we hear, to a prominent real estate operator, who intends to reconstruct it into a large office building.

Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. have sold, at private contract, the Tweed property, on the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-third street, to Mr. Richard T. Wilson, for $185,000. The property fronts 62.11 on the avenue, the house being 37.6x85x123. The vacant lot adjoining is 25.5x123. The late Mr. Tweed paid over $250,000 for this property, and recently it has been made use of as a boarding house.

Mr. J. W. Stevens has sold, for Mr. C. R. Robert, the church property on the northwest corner of Madison avenue and Twenty-eighth street, 74.5x95, to Mr. James G. Hubert, for $80,000. The purchaser, acting in behalf of a co-operative association, intends to construct there a first-class apartment house.

Mr. A. H. Cammann, in conjunction with Messrs. Mordecai & Bellamy, has sold No. 910 Broadway, 24.4 x130, and another lot in rear, for $110,000, to Mr. N. P. Bailey.

Messrs. L. J. & I. Phillips have sold, at private contract, two lots on Fifth avenue, between Eighty-seventh and Eighty-eighth streets, 50x140, to Tracy & Russell, for $70,000. The same firm has sold for and on behalf of the New York Life Insurance Company, the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Ninety-first street, four lots on the avenue and one on the street, to Mr. Anthony Mowbray, for $125,000.

Nos. 1, 3, 5 and 7 West Forty-seventh street, the latter known as Dr. Ward's residence, fronting together, 105 feet on the street, being two large and two moderate sized houses, have been sold to Mr. Theodore Weston, for $74,500 (leasehold). Mr. M. A. J. Lynch who effected this sale has also sold, at private contract, to Mr. Dexter R. Wright, six lots on the northeast corner of Riverside Park and One Hundred and Fifteenth street, four on the drive and two on the street, for $65,000. Sixteen lots, running through from Ninety-fifth to Ninety-sixth street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, have also been sold by the same broker, at private contract, to a Californian named William Phelps, for $80,000.

Mr. John J. Clancy has sold four lots—two on the north side of Seventy-second street and two on the south side of Seventy-third street—475 feet west of Eighth avenue, for $45,000. All cash.

Messrs. Scott & Myers have sold at private contract to Mr. John Donovan four lots on the south side of Eighty-fourth street, 175 feet east of Ninth avenue, for $21,900 cash.

Mr. William Noble has sold to Emile J. Sutro and Bernard Newmark the southwest corner of Second avenue and Seventy-third street, 76 8x100, also on Seventy-third street, 100 feet west of Second avenue, 150x102.2, for $32,000. These lots are to be improved without delay.

Messrs. Lespinasse & Friedman have sold two lots on the north side of Fifty-second street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, for $40,000.

Isaac Honig has sold three lots on the south side of Fifty ninth street, 170 feet east of Sixth avenue, to Mr. Christian Van Hesse, for $73,400. The Greene street property, which the same broker sold for Mr. Einstein to Mr. Vogel, for $64,000, has since been leased for a number of years at an annual rental of $6,250.

Messrs. Tobias & Co. have sold for Mr. Moran four lots on the southeast corner of Ninth avenue and Ninety first street to Hiram M. Forrester, President of the Bowery Insurance Company, for $16,000.

Mr. Moritz Bauer has purchased on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-third street, 130 feet east of Second avenue, nine lots for about $3,500 each.

The Fifth avenue lot between Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth streets sold for $71,000, as reported last week, was secured by Mr. Geo. A. Osgood. The purchaser will erect thereon a magnificent residence, to be built by Mr. Robert Irwin, who has already the plans prepared for the same, and the front of No. 697, when completed by Mr. Irwin, will indeed be an additional ornament to the avenue.

We are requested to state that the eight lots on Seventy-third street, adjoining Mr. Clark's houses, reported in last week's issue, were sold by Messrs. Mordecai & Bellamy, they acting for Mr. Hamilton, the purchaser and builder, who is to improve them with first-class private dwellings, and Messrs. Lespinasse & Friedman acted in behalf of the seller.

We call attention to the business property near Water street offered on easy terms in our advertising columns by "Investment."

Mr. V. K. Stevenson, Jr., has sold, at private contract, six lots on the north side of One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, running through to One Hundred and Thirtieth street, 275 feet east of Eighth avenue, three on each street, for $24,500, to Mr. R. J McCoy, of Cohoes, N. Y.

We are informed that five lots on Ninth avenue, and four on One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, nine lots in all, have been sold for $45,000, to be improved without delay. This block, being in the immediate vicinity of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Station, near the St. Nicholas avenue and the macadamized portion of Ninth avenue, is attracting buyers, as it is far enough away from the noise of the steam road, and yet near enough to be within easy distance of a station.

Seven lots on One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, and three on One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, have been sold to Mr. Weil, of Brooklyn, for $4,000 each. Eight more lots, four each on One Hundred and Twenty-seventh and One Hundred and Twenty-eighth streets, between the same avenues, have been sold for $33,000

Jere Johnson has sold for Mr. John A. Monsell, two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Thirtieth street, 115 feet east of Fourth avenue, for $4,000.

Two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and one on the north side of One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, about 150 feet west of Sixth avenue, have been sold at $7,000 per lot with a builder's loan.

Two lots on the north side of One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, 285 feet west of Fifth avenue (50x 99.11), have been sold by Mr. Isaac Lichtenstein, as broker for A. C. Munson, to Nathan Rice, at $3,500 each.

We understand that five houses, on the south side of Eighty first street, near Madison avenue, have been sold for $15,000 each. They have 16 feet frontage.

Mr. John Boyd has purchased a house on the south side of Forty second street, between Broadway and Sixth avenue, having a frontage of 24.6 feet, for $29,200.

Mr. Frederick Zittel has sold No. 435 East Fifty-eighth street, a three-story brown stone house, for $9,400; also No. 111 East Fifty-seventh street, a four-story brown stone house, for $30,000; also No. 108 East Seventy-eighth street, a three story house, for $17,500, and a house on Park avenue, 80 feet north of Fifty-seventh street, for $17,000.

Mr. John Gorman, of Third avenue, has sold private contract, a two-story and basement frame house, 25x50x102.2 feet, Eighty-third street, between Lexington and Fourth avenues, to Chas. Gulden, for $9,500; three-story and basement brown stone house, No. 953 Second avenue, between Fiftieth and Fifty-first streets, 20x50x80 feet, to F. R. Walker, for $12,000; also a four-story English basement brick house, No. 242 East Eighty-second street, 19x42x102.2 feet, to F. R. Walker, for $7,000.

It will be seen by our list of recorded leases, that the University Club has recorded its lease of the premises at the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-fifth street, at a rental ranging from $7,000 to $11,000 during the five years' lease. The proprietors of the Brunswick have taken a twenty years' lease of the property on the north side of Twenty-sixth street, 30 feet east of Fifth avenue, at an annual rental of $17,000.

The Coney Island Land Improvement Company, having a capital from $100,000 to $200,000, has secured by lease several plots on Coney Island, to erect villas and construct docks and piers.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—The wholesale market is to all intents and purposes suspended, and must remain so until ruling adverse circumstances are overcome. To a certain extent, the prevailing influences neutralize the severe weather which has placed an ice embargo upon all the principal and regular sources of supply, also checking consumption, out-door work progressing only in a slow and irregular manner and against which there is stock enough in the majority of cases for immediate wants Dealers, however, are by no means abundantly supplied, and when a cargo does work through, it is pretty sure to find customers ready to negotiate. As for some time past Long Island bricks are all that can be expected just now, and with the great advantages in hand, holders of these very naturally look for high and almost fancy rates. The figure last mentioned is $10.50, though it is doubtful if even this would be accepted on a fresh offering. For all other kinds of stock there is of course no rate at all, though on the above basis an idea may be formed of what could be obtained for Haverstraws, etc. Present indications point to a liberal consumption during the coming season, and the expectations are that business will open lively as soon as manufacturers can get their stock upon the market.

HARDWARE.—Orders are increasing somewhat from various sections in the interior, but are not full, and bear every appearance of close and careful calculation. Business, however, seems to tend toward improvement, and the general tone of the market is cheerful as regards the future. Assortments are filling up, and stocks are now in shape to permit of any reasonable selection. There is still a failure to agree upon a regular list for Strap and T Hinges, and the nominal figure is 60 and 10 per cent. discount from frame list.

At a recent meeting of the manufacturers of Wrought Butts, the following discounts were decided upon: Loose Pin and Loose Joint 55 and 10; Narrow, Light Narrow, Light Blind, Table, Back Flaps, Inside Blind, Broad F. J, and Chest Hinges, 5 and 10.

The Medina Manufacturing Co.'s U S. Wood Track Barn Door Hangings are offered to the trade at $12 per doz. pair for 4-in. wheel, and $15 per doz. for 5-in. wheel, subject to discount of 60 per cent.

LATH.—There has not been much change on the general market since our last. As the immediate consumption runs rather light, buyers were not over anxious to negotiate, but supplies offering were in the meantime moderate and under control, with full value in all cases quite positively insisted upon. About $2 may be named as an inside figure. Receivers are again predicting light receipts and a good consumption as soon as circumstances will admit and generally appear quite confident.

LIME.—Values do not change, but are very firm and maintained without difficulty. The fresh arrivals are small, and the occasional cargoes coming to hand find ready sale, with buyers asking for more.

LUMBER.—Very much the same reports are to be heard on the market for various kinds of stock as given for some time past. Supplies are naturally small and the offering irregular, with no open demand prevailing, though attractive grades find customers without much of a search, and command about former rates. Dealings in contracts are on the increase, and agents close quite a number weekly, both for shipments to foreign ports direct from primary points and to be moved coastwise, but are inclined to be reticent over the terms. It is not likely that any recent advance has been secured, nor can it be asserted that a shading has been made, and the indications are that for distant delivery and no over difficult cuts, buyers have been shown a few favors. Supplies at this point are gradually working downward, and the assortments in some cases quite broken up both in grades suited to home wants and also for shipment.

Spruce remains in a somewhat nominal position, and without many features of positive interest. Randoms are valued irregularly from $16 to $18 according to the attractions of the bill, but the supply is uncertain and the buyers wait to be sent for when the receivers have anything to offer. Specifications continue to be tendered for cargoes "as soon as deliveries can be made," but agents accept with caution, and cancel particulars whenever they enter upon a contract. About $18@20 per M. are average quotations on specials, but extra lengths and prompt delivery cost $1@2 per M more.

White Pine retains a good healthy market, and holders appear satisfied with the outlook for the nearby future. Export orders continue to work down the accumulation made for this business, and at full notes, while the general home demand is good and promises further expansion. Quite a call has prevailed for box boards from local sources, including orders from some of the large consumers, who appear to have materially reduced their stocks. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $23@25 for South America do; $15.50@16.50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow Pine is in pretty much all cases reported as retaining a good strong position, and sellers express themselves well satisfied with the outlook. All the principal mills have in hand orders enough to keep them busy for weeks, even with a steady full supply of logs, and manufacturers are very indifferent operators in view of the probabilities that the anxiety of buyers may lead to gradually increased bids. From supplies here there is occasionally a sale, and at pretty full rates. We quote random cargoes at about $23.50@25 per M.; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do.; and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M. for rough, and $19@20 for dressed.

Hardwoods are firm all around. Walnut, oak an ash are much wanted, and very scarce, with dealers buying from each other such little lots as can be spared in order to meet ordinary trade orders The interior accounts are strong. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M; ash, $34@36 do; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do; cedar, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch, $33@35 do.; hickory, $35@45 do., for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

The yard trade shows no really new features, the movement in a general way proving fair, but some irregularities shown on account of seasonable influences. On pretty much all stock prices are well maintained.

From among the lumber charters and engagements recently reported we select the following:

A Br barque, 565 tons, from St John, N B, to Glasgow, deals, 61c; a schr, 245 tons, from Bucksville, S C, to Port Spain, lumber, $9; a Sp barque, 399 tons, from Pensacola to Genoa, lumber, £5 15s; a schr, 150 M lumber, from Wilmington, N C, to a Mexican Gulf port, $9; an Am barque, 529 tons, hence to Havana, white pine lumber, $4 75; an Am barque, 615 tons, from Portland to Cardenas, empty hogsheads, 75c; a Br brig, 249 tons, from Annapolis, N S, to Demerara for orders to discharge there or at Barbados, lumber, $6 50; a Br schr, 276 tons, from St. Mary's River to Barbados for orders, lumber, if discharged at Barbados, $7 50, or at a second port, $8; a vessel, about 200 tons, from the Mexican Gulf Coast to New York, mahogany, $10 50; a schr, 151 tons, hence to Jacksonville, general cargo, and back with lumber, $10 for the round; a schr, 200 M lumber, from Wilmington, N C, to Philadelphia, $5 50; a schr, 489 tons, 400 M lumber, from Pensacola to New York, $8; a schr, 330 M lumber, from Brunswick to Providence, $6 50; a schr, 300 M lumber, from Pensacola to Philadelphia, $8; a schr, 190 M lumber, from Savannah to Philadelphia, $6; a schr, 200 M lumber and timber, from Savannah to New York, $6; a schr, 156 tons, from Portland to New York, lumber, $2; a schr, 290 M lumber, from Pascagoula to Philadelphia, $8; a schr, 290 M dry boards, from Pensacola to Providence $8 50; a schr, 225 M lumber, from Pensacola to New York or Providence, $8 50; a schr, 259 M lumber and timber, from Savannah, to St. John, N B, $9.

ONCE AGAIN ON THE RAMPAGE.

This has been a remarkable season for heavy storms, cold waves, blizzards, epidemics and "other inflictions," and among the latter comes the following terror:

"WHERE THE FORESTS ARE GOING.—To make shoepegs enough for American use consumes annually 100,000 cords of timber, and to make our lucifer matches, 300,000 cubic feet of the best pine are required every year Lasts and boot-trees take 500,000 cords of birch, beech and maple, and the handles of tools 500,000 more. The baking of our bricks consumes 2,000,000 cords of wood, or what would cover with forest about 50,000 acres of land. Telegraph poles already up represent 800,000 trees, and their annual repair consumes about 300,000 more. The ties of our railroads consume annually thirty years' growth of 75,000 acres, and to fence all our railroads would cost $45,000,000, with a yearly expenditure of $15,000,000 for repairs. These are some of the ways in which American forests are going There are others; our packing boxes, for instance, cost, in 1875, $12,000,000, while the timber used each year in making wagons and agricultural instruments is valued at more than $100,000,000."

The above item, originally placed before an unsuspecting public some two or three years ago, secured one of the most wonderful runs on record, pretty nearly every paper printed in the English language giving it a place, until finally having circumnavigated the globe, and reached several re-publications in this country, it appeared to die a natural death about this time last winter. Alas, how deceptive were appearances! It comes to the front again, vigorous and hearty, an alleged "interesting item of news," and has already been successful in securing the attention of many a "scissors fiend" in the United States, Canada and Europe. Does any one know who invented it, and why he did not secure a patent to control it?

THE WEST.

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER,
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.

The selling of lumber in midwinter and in the storms which the Canadian weather fiend has invented and distributed over the Continent is no easy task. Chicago has run down in the shipments to less than a million feet per day. St Louis with some degree of latitude in her favor has to be satisfied with a business of three hundred thousand, and the northern Minneapolis has only a trade of some ten or a dezen cars a day. But as every man in the business would rather see a friend than a customer, there is a serenity about the whole situation which is truly beautiful. All feel that the past and present points to still more glorious things in the future—thus Chicago reasons that if she can reduce her stock 63,000,000 feet in the month of December, (which she did) there is no fears to be entertained about the spring trade, even if she does not sell over 250,000,000 feet in January The news from the pine woods is of the most cheering character for all those who wish to see logs plenty and cheap next summer. In Michigan the chopping is nearly all done and the hauling in progress with 50 per cent. of the crop on the bank. In Wisconsin and Minnesota where they haul from the stump there is from 15 to 20 per cent. more logs on the landing than there was one year ago, and all things seeming to favor a large cut There are no transactions in logs at this season of the year, and will not be until winter breaks, as there is always too much margin between the views of log men and mill men to permit any bargains to be consumated. The January statement of stock on hand, so far as received indicate a short stock for the prospective trade of spring All markets are short of many leading kinds of lumber and prices are very firm for all standard grades. Even at the country steam mills which can run during winter, there is no disposition to make more than competetive prices on anything, and a feeling that long heavy stuff should bring better prices.

The buoyant tone of the Chicago market is so fully set forth in the extended report of the trade meeting held on the 24th inst. which appears in another column, that it is superfluous to advert to it in this connection That trade is good and orders plentiful, for this season of the year, will at once be seen from the figures of receipts and shipments, the former of which, during the past week, have, in lumber, exceeded those of the same week in 1880 by 3,363,000 feet, and for the first twenty five days of the year are 5,608,000 feet in excess. The shipments for the week do not show so large an excess, while for the twenty-five days they exceed those of 1880 by 4,540,000 feet. The receipts and shipments of shingles, both for the week and in the aggregate, show a movement below that of 1880, which, by the law governing the lumber trade, is a healthful indication, as it may always be observed that the shingle trade is best when lumber is in least demand, and with a revival of the demand for lumber shingles are more neglected. We will not undertake an explanation of the phenomenon, but it is one well established in the experience of lumbermen

At the meeting of the trade referred to, it was developed that one of the larger firms of this city had made a recent purchase from a brother dealer of 200,000 feet of six inch fencing at $14, which is fifty cents above the list. On being questioned as to his motives in doing so, the purchaser freely stated that it was because he thought that class of stock worth all he paid for it; for while in quality his purchase was not extraordinarily above the average, he yet firmly believed that it would soon go to higher quotations; and, at the price paid by him, he esteemed it good property to hold. The fact that a large log and lumber stock may be looked for during the coming season has no unfavorable influence upon the market here. Dealers have apparently made up their minds that larger stocks must in future be carried. The fact that, with so much larger stock in the yards at the beginning of the year, the supply is more inadequate to the present and prospective demands of the Western consumer than in previous years, and that thus early in the season the interchanges between dealers have become very extended, goes far to convince them that no fear is to be apprehended of an inability to care for all the lumber that the mills can manufacture from the logs the booms will be able to supply. Rumors continue to reach us of cut rates being offered in some cases, but we find, on inquiry, that it comes from outside the regular trade, and from irresponsible parties, and in at least one case, may honestly be set down as buncombe on the part of one who could, by no possibility, have filled the order at any rates below the list, and it is doubtful if he could have obtained the sizes desired at any price.

HARDWOODS.—Trade for the month has gone by spurts, the request being good when the weather was moderate, and poor when it became intensely cold. The volume of business will compare favorably with that of the same month of previous years, but had there been plenty of stock and unbroken assortments the dimensions it would have assumed would be of another magaitude. It is safe to say there is not a yard in the city, keeping a general stock of hardwoods, that can fill one out of five orders it receives. An order for a few hundred feet often necessitates making two or three purchases from other yards in order to complete it.

The scarcity of cars is still a bother, and the little stock coming in would be somewhat larger could this hindrance be overcome For the week we have heard of no heavy receipts.

One inch, clear, dry walnut is hard to be found, and firsts and seconds are very scarce. In ash we quote step plank $5 higher, and flooring $2. In oak, timber has advanced somewhat, and quartered is worth $55 in place of $50 a week ago and the elasticity is extracted from the price of bolsters and reaches Walnut 1 inch culls are $3 higher, and sales at higher figures than the new ones are not uncommon. No great amount of maple flooring can be found outside of two yards. The demand is a continuous one, and would absorb heavy supplies In some of the maple districts of Michigan little or no maple will be put in during the winter. One operator, who last season turned out 5,000,000 feet, assures us that his profit did not exceed $1 per thousand, and rather than dispose of his timber on such terms he chooses to let it stand

While some of the dealers are making big efforts to secure their stocks for the coming season's trade, others, although they are in the minority, believe that in the spring their yards can be stocked for less money than at present, and are neither on the road, nor buying at home, except when lots are offered at figures to suit them. That the cut this winter will be a big one, is assured, but that prices will decline before the demand will swallow up the cut, when seasoned, does not appear so clear to us.

We extract the following from the Lumberman's Gazettte:

A correspondent desires to know how the proportion of uppers in the logs now cut on the Saginaw river compares to what it used to be. Well, it doesn't compare at all. Twenty years ago a lumberman would not go a great ways to look at timber that would not run 25 per cent. to uppers; 40 per cent. was the rule, and as high as 75 per cent. uppers was sometimes obtained. Not only was the standing timber better, but the lumberman was more fastidious in his tasks He cut his logs from the trunk of the tree below the tops and left the rest to the worms, and only set his axe men upon the stalwart trees. Now he lumbers land that has been cut over once, twice, thrice, before, and is rejoiced if his logs run 10 per cent to uppers—15 per cent is the height of his ambition The general run of logs is below 10 per cent uppers. This tells the story of depletion of the pine in more impressive language than any other statement of facts or array of figures can do it

If there have been any complaints of a lack of snow in the lumber woods this winter, they have ceased and given place to murmurs of discontent with the quantity which now covers the ground. During the past week Vennor's predicted deluge of snow has come, and the unfortunate workers in the woods are wallowing in it to the depth of two feet or more. Nor is the supply exhausted. The feathery flakes are still falling, with no promise of an immediate cessation. The result is, that lumbering is more laborious than before, and the daily log scale will be much less while the woods are cumbered with such heaps of snow. But the hardy men who perform the labor will keep at it with their utmost strength, for nothing but a thaw discourages a lumberman these days. Although the snow is not thought much of for hauling logs upon, it will be found useful for raising the streams to a good driving stage when the spring break-up comes, providing the thaw does not come too soon and the water run off before the logs are ready to start.

THE EAST.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin as follows:

The market for Western lumber remains quiet and steady. We learn that a strong feeling prevails in the West. The stock of good lumber there is exceedingly limited and the holders are not disposed to let them go. The continued cold weather also restricts trade in Eastern lumber. The dealers seem to be well supplied and will not take hold in the present unsettled state of the market. Prices have a drooping tendency, spruce being noticeably weaker.

FOREIGN.

The London Lumber Trades Journal of Janunry 15 says of the Liverpool market:

The past week has again been a quiet one, and, with the exception of some fair orders for oak timber, there has not been any movement in the market beyond the customary retail consumption. As will be seen on another page, the importations during the past week have been of an unimportant nature, and consist chiefly of woods from the United States, such as blackwalnut wood, oak, wagon scantling, &c.

Several small parcels of the former wood have recently arrived, and have been placed at fair rates when of good quality; but really prime wood, i. e., straight, well-grown, and sound logs of large sizes, have brought extreme prices, averaging from 5s 9d to 6s 6d per foot, whereas small and defective wood has been difficult to sell even at comparatively low prices. The quantities of oak scantling cut to sizes suitable for wagon work have been too freely brought forward, and the natural result is that, as neither the quality of the wood nor the accuracy of the sawing is up to the strict requirements of the consumers of these goods, they are being forced off at prices far below those of good to prime Michigan logs.

There is not much doing in spruce deals, save the usual trade consumption, and prices remain steady at about the last rates quoted. Neither is there much probability of an immediate rise in the value of these goods, as the building of common household property appears at present to be very dull in most of the manufacturing districts of Lancashire.

The only auction sales held since the commencement of the new year have been those of Messrs. Duncan, Ewing & Co., Messrs. Farnworth & Jardine, and Messrs. Edward Chaloner & Co., who offered on Thursday and Friday last several parcels of St. Domingo and Jamaica lignum-vitæ, partridgewood, satinwood, &c.

The attendance of buyers was large for a sale of goods of such small variety, and, owing to the scarcity of lignum-vitæ the competition for this wood was brisk and the prices realized were more than fair.

The cargo per Adone, from City St. Domingo, was of good quality, round, and thin-sapped, and sold readily, all the 7 to 10 inch being bought for the continent; the wood 14 in and upwards diameter £10 to £10 10s per ton; 12 in and under 14, £8 to £9; 10 in. and under 12 £9 10s; 7 in and under 10, £10; 5 in. and under 7, £10; under 5 in., £7

A parcel of St. Domingo (Porto Plata), 88 tons, sound but thick-sapped, sold at: 7 in and under 10 diameter, £8 15s to £9; 5 in. and under 7, £8 10s to £9; Jamaica, all sizes together, £6 10s to £7 10s. A parcel of partridgewood, 45 tons, at £3 15s per ton

GLASGOW.

The opening public sales of American timber and deals took place this week. Prices obtained are noted below The sale on Tuesday, the 11th inst., at Greenock, was well attended, but the company being, apparently, not disposed to meet the brokers' views as to prices, a very limited business was done.

On the 12th inst., at Glasgow, there was also a very good turn-out of the trade, including shipbuilders, dealers and consumers, and a fair proportion of the catalogue was sold, the first quality broad Quebec pine deals being specially in request.

AUCTION SALES.

On 11th inst., at Greenock, Messrs. This weeks' mail advices from Rio Janeiro report as follows:

Pitch pine deals.—The only arrival has been the Isaac Hall, from Mobile, with 414,554 feet, badly assorted, which have been sold at 39$000 per dozen. The market continues firm at 40$000@41$000 per dozen Total receipts in 1880, 7,544,991 feet.

White pine lumber.—The 338,787 feet per H. H. Wing, noticed in our last, were sold at 120 reis per foot. Since then the arrivals have been 40,010 feet per Marena, sold at 120 reis, and 137,792 feet per Isaac Jackson, sold at 110 reis per foot. The market is now well supplied, and we cannot quote over 110 to 120 reis per foot. Total receipts in 1880, 3,050,227 feet.

Spruce pine deals.—There have been no arrivals during the month. We quote nominally 32$000@34$000 per dozen. Total receipts in 1880, 1,644,391 feet.

METALS—COPPER.—Ingot has undergone some slight fluctuations, but the general tendency was in sellers' favor, and with supplies under close positive control, holders generally are firm and confident. We quote at 19½@19¾ for lake. Manufactured Copper has met with a full and rather increasing demand, and prices were well maintained on all descriptions We quote as follows: Brazier's Copper ordinary size over 16 oz per square foot, 28c. per lb; do do do. 16 oz and over 12 oz per square foot, 30c per lb; do do. 10 and 12 oz, per sq foot, 32c per lb; do do, lighter than 10 oz per sq foot, 34c per lb; circles less than 84 inches in diameter, 31c per lb; do 84 inches in diameter and over, 34c per lb; segment and pattern sheets, 31c per lb; locomotive fire box sheets, 28c per lb; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz per sq foot, 26c per lb and Bolt Copper, 28c per lb. IRON —Scotch Pig found a very fair demand from regular sources, and was at times quite active for this season of the year. Full prices were obtained, and in some cases a small advance, but no positive buoyancy shown. We quote at $22@24.50 per ton, according to brands, delivery and quality. American Pig has had a somewhat irregular sale, but in the aggregate a considerable amount of stock changed ownership, and full prices were obtained with little or no difficulty. Offerings are fair and production is likely to continue without abatement. We quote at $25@26 per ton for No. 1; $22@23 do do. for No. 2; and $21@22 for forge. Rails are still in good demand, and the contracts for both domestic and foreign made cover liberal quantities. Values naturally rule firm all around. Old rails and scrap iron in good demand, and tending upward with the offering of stock reduced. We quote rails at $16@48 for iron and $60@62 for steel, according to delivery. Old rails $29@30 per ton; scrap, $28 @30. Manufactured Iron selling very fairly from store, and ruling quite steady in price, but supplies ample, and there is no indication of more than a small fractional advance. We quote Common Merchant Bar, ordinary sizes at 2 3@2.5c. from store, and Refined at 2 5@3 5c; wrought beams at 3c. Fish plates quoted at 2⅝@2¼c.; track bolt and nuts, 3½@3⅝c.; railway spikes, 3c.; tank, 3@3.1c.; angle, 3c.; best flange, 6c.; and domestic sheet on the basis of 3½c. for common Nos. 10@16. Other descriptions at corresponding prices, with 1-10c. less on large lots from cars. LEAD—Domestic Pig not quite so active of late, but the concentration of stock gives holders good control of the position, and the line of valuations is supported without much difficulty. The accounts from primary sources are in nearly all cases of an encouraging character. We quote 5@5¼c. The manufacturers of lead are steady and quoted; Bar, 6c; Pipe 6½c., and sheet, 7c., less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin lined pipe 15c. Block Tin pipe, 40, on same terms. TIN—Pig was for some time quite dull, and tending downward, but a better demand, in part speculative, subsequently swept up and concentrated the supply and a very firm position was formed on which full prices are now well supported. We quote 20¼@20⅝c for Australian, 20¼@20½c. for Straits, 20¼@20⅜c. for English Refined, 20@20⅛c. for do. Common Tin Plates not very active, but still found a fair average trade movement, and maintained a pretty steady position on the general market. We quote I. C. Charcoal, third cross assortment, $5.75@5.87½ for Allaway grade, and $6 12½@6 37½ for Melyn grade; I. C. Coke $4.87½@5 00 for B. V. grade; $5.12½@5.25 for Yspitty grade; Charcoal terne $5 12½@5.25 for Allaway grade, 14x20; $11@11.12½ for do., 2ux28; Coke terne, $4.90@5 00 for Glais grade, 14x20, and $10@10.12½ for do., 20x28—all in round lots. Spelter has found quite a steady movement toward consumption, and prices ruled firmly throughout. Quoted at $5⅝@5⅝ for domestic. Sheet Zinc is in good steady demand, and firm at 7¼@7½c. according to quality and quantity.

NAILS.—Business has been somewhat irregular, and confined in the main to positive orders, but on all outlets the aggregate movement foots up well. The supplies are said to be falling away, and there has certainly been a less general offering. Prices firm all around, and "list" rates about the best terms offered.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $2 90@3; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg, $3 25@3 35; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg, $4.50@ 2 60; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3.75@3 85; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4 50@4.60; 3d, fine, per keg, $5.25@5.35; 2d, per keg, $5.25@5.35.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3.25@3 35. Floor, Casing and Box, $3.75@4.25. Finishing, $4@4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

1½ inch, $5.50@5.60; 1¾ inch, $5.25@5.35; 2 inch, $5 @5.10; 2½@2¾ inch, $4.75@4.85; 3 inch and longer, $4.50@4.65.

PAINTS AND OILS.—On the general run of paints, etc., the market is only showing moderate movement and no new features of a very decided character. The stock appears to be quite equal to all wants but not excessive, and well enough under control to admit of a steady holding. Advices from the interior indicate that considerable quantities of stock will be wanted for the spring trade, and are likely to be called for as soon as transportation facilities improve. Linseed oil has met with a fair average demand, and, on the whole, the tone of the market is a shade firmer, with a more careful offering of the really desirable parcels of stock. We quote at about 56@57c for City and 60@61c for Calcutta, from first hands.

PITCH.—Business does not alter much in form and preserves a fair volume, with about the old line of values rnling. Offerings of stock very fair. We quote at $2.00@2.15 per bbl for City, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE. — Demand, in jobbing way, has been fair, bnt for wholesale parcels the outlet proved somewhat small and uncertain, and the tone slightly in buyers' favor. Holders do not openly name concessions, but intimate that slightly reduced bids would receive attention. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 47@48½c per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Business has been fairly active on the usual run of trade orders, with a stock quite equal to the outlet and former rates asked. Holders, however, are not inclined to allow buyers to go away empty handed if a fair concession will secure their orders. We quote $2.25@2 37 for Newberne and Washington, and $2.25@2 50 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

SIX GIGANTIC ENTERPRISES.

How few Americans realize the magnitude of the enterprises now under way on the North American continent. Six different trans-continental lines, having in view the uniting of the Atlantic with the Pacific Ocean, are now either being perfected or are under way. The construction of any one of these great lines will be a feat of which any nation might be proud; but six of them at one time, is literally unexampled in the history of the world. The greatest memorials of the Roman Empire which have come down to us, are the magnificent roads, many of which have survived to this day the fall of the great Empire. But how poor a piece of work after all was a Roman road, compared with a double track railway line with its steel rails, bridges, culverts aud costly palace cars and innumerable freight cars. Yet it is more than probable that dating back from the twentieth century fifty years, the United States alone will show more steam roads than were constructed of Roman roads throughout the world during all the centuries when that power was supreme.

Look at the list.

First, there is the Canada Pacific, which is intended to traverse the ice bound region to the north of us, so as to connect the Dominion with the British possession on the Pacific coast.

Next, there is the Northern Pacific, which is being pushed with great energy and which will be completed before the close of 1882.

Then comes the Union Pacific, the pioneer of them all, which is perfecting its system of roads, reaching north and south to mineral regions, coal lands and agricultural and grazing districts. The Union Pacific will soon have 3,000 miles of roads tributary to it. The Central Pacific is destined to become a part of a road under one management, extending from New York to San Francisco.

Then, fourthly, there is the Southern Pacific, the news of the completion of which we will soon hear. This road will have its eastern terminus at Newport News and Norfolk, and will be connected in time with several ports on the Pacific besides San Francisco. Numberless connecting roads will soon be under way to add to the volume of the business of the Southern Pacific.

Then comes the extension of the Southwestern system of roads to the City of Mexico, which will be followed almost immediately by the construction of a line to some point on the Gulf of California or the Pacific Ocean, probably Guayumas.

And lastly there is the Panama Canal, the capital for which has been subscribed.

It is safe to say that something like $1,000,000,000 will be spent before these roads and their branches will have been completed, and when we recall the fact that they are all now under way, with abundance of money back of each scheme, we may realize first, the immense impetus this is giving to all kinds of business, and, second, the peril which we run in using up money so rapidly for fixed improvements.

Great Britain comprises but a small portion of the earth's surface, and that densley populated. North America is no inconsiderable part of the whole surface of the globe, thinly populated. The rapid building of railroads in wealthy and overpopulated Great Britain, brought about at least five commercial crisises. We have had two commercial panics, one in '57, the other in '73, due in great part to the overbuilding of railroads. Who dare say that we will not pass through several revulsions before we have completed the gigantic works we have undertaken.

Let us make money while we may. This immense expenditure for railroad building will keep our people employed at remunerative wages for several years to come. But about the time that payday arrives, woe to those who are in debt or who have ready money in institutions that are in any way weak financially.

WHAT WE MAY EXPECT.

All the private advices from Washington agree in saying that a funding bill will certainly he passed before the 4th of March. Our informants have seen letters from prominent leaders of the Senate and House, of both parties, and they all agree in predicting the passage of a satisfactory bill.

If this is so, we may look out for another very active market and rising quotations in securities. This will be more especially the case if the provision in the funding bill is retained, of issuing Treasury notes bearing 3 per cent. interest and of small denominations. These are proposed to give the poor a chance to invest in those parts of the country where there are no savings banks. But its real effect will be to set free the hoards of gold, silver and legal tender paper which are now put away in old stockings by poor and ignorant people all over the country.

The state of the exchanges shows that no gold can be shipped hitherward for the present; but the exports are very heavy, greater than they were this time last year, while the imports are much less. This, if continued, must lead to the renewal of the importation of gold. But to create a "boom" this will not be necessary if the funding bill passes, and $600,000,000 of investments will be set free to seek more lucrative employment than in the purchasing of Government 3½ per cent. bonds. We may see prices that will make one dizzy, if a speculative funding bill should pass. But we do not advise any one to buy, except indeed real estate, which is a purchase whether stocks go up or stocks go down.

POSITION OF THE WESTERN UNION.

People who are familiar with the telegraph system of the country, say there will be no difficulty in Western Union earning 8 per cent. on its capital stock of $80,000,000. This can be done without increasing the tolls, while extra facilities can be given the press and the various Exchanges. It is clearly the policy of Western Union not to antagonize the public. The latter is just now in an angry mood, but this feeling will in time die out. It is understood that General Eckert is about to offer the use of his idle wires, of which he has an abundance, at very reasonable terms, to the members of the Cotton Provision, Grain and Stock Exchanges. This in the hope that it will put an end to schemes for starting new companies.

In any event it will be impossible to organize an opposition to the Western Union that will be efficient, in less than two years. Congress cannot act until the year 1882 and in the meantime the Western Union people will have the entire field to themselves. A new telegraph company starts in under great difficulties. Telegraphing is a kind of retail business, the plant of which does not cost so much as the machinery for carrying it on. It is easy enough to put up poles and wires, but to open offices and train operators is a far more difficult task. Then, a new company will be cut off from the markets of the world. The Western Union will not only have a monopoly of the existing cables, but Jay Gould has announced to the world, through an interviewer, that he expects to have cable communication with South America, the Continent, with the West India Islands and even with Russia by way of Alaska and Kamtschatka. A telegraph company confined to internal communication, cut off from cables, would not amount to much.

There is a great deal of folly and nonsense in the newspapers as to what the new companies can do. The fate of the twenty odd organizations swallowed up by Western Union, tells the story of what we may expect should a new company be organized. There is no such thing as competing in telegraphing or railroading. The competing companies are always bought up and the unfortunate public pockets the loss of capital. There is but one solution of the problem and that is, the purchase of the lines by the Government. Then, and not until then, will we have telegraphy as cheap and as efficient as it is in Europe.

THE RENT MARKET.

REVIEW OF THE AGREEMENTS ENTERED INTO DURING THE FIRST WEEK OF FEBRUARY.

In addition to the constant and steady increase of our population, there are two special causes combining just now to make the rent market for offices as well as for the more moderate priced houses up-town exceedingly active. The reconstruction of several old buildings in the lower part of the city compels tenants to vacate premises where they have done business for years, and the exceedingly severe weather of the past two months causing detentions on the ferries, has induced a large number of Brooklyn and Jersey people to begin house hunting during the very first week in February.

DOWN-TOWN RENTS.

In a conversation with the gentleman having charge of the renting department of Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co.'s offices, he stated that rents for desirable brokers' offices along Broadway, between Wall street and Exchange place, had virtually been doubled; in Wall street proper and Broad street, the average advance was about 50 per cent. The rents in the Boreel Building have been advanced 10 per cent. It was thought at first that the collapse of the mining business would cause a good many offices to be vacated in several buildings along Broadway, but the few companies that have caved in do not appear to affect the rent market, quite a large number of them are yet in the field doing an excellent business and paying good rents. The Post Building will be the only one of the many new ones ready for occupancy on the first of May, the severe weather having materially delayed work on the other new office buildings. Already quite a number of offices have been taken in the Post Building, and the investment will pay as well as Wall street property. The demand for offices has been constantly on the increase at Mr. Ludlow's establishment, caused especially by a number of tenants who have been notified to quit. As to residence property there are already many people in the market anxious to secure good houses, but the supply is not equal to the demand. There is a marked advance in rents for choice houses between Lexington and Sixth avenues, Thirty-fourth street and Lenox Hill, and even there houses to rent are very scarce. Medium priced houses are higher than ever before, owing to the exodus from Brooklyn and Jersey City to Harlem and other upper districts. Flats are in very good demand, and notwithstanding the very large number of apartment houses built during the past ten years, the various floors and suites remain full constantly, with hardly any vacancies.

It became known throughout Pine street, yesterday afternoon, that the offices in the United Bank Building, on the corner of Wall street and Broadway, have all been disposed of at rates which leave a handsome return for the investment. The income thus far secured and calculated amounts to $170,000 per annum, which includes the amount of rent heretofore paid by the two banks. The cost of the ground and the building is about $2,000,000.

DEMAND FOR LONGER LEASES.

Messrs. D. Birdsall & Co. state that, in the dry goods district, everything is pretty well rented for the coming year at an average increase of twenty per cent. This relates to the side streets as well as to Broadway. Not many new firms have been added to the number of tenants, but the majority of concerns do a larger business and require more room. There has thus far been very little growling at the increased demands for rents in this district. The fight on the part of tenants this year has been more for time than for prices, any number of firms insisting upon longer leases, which have been granted only in very few instances. Tenants now see that one-quarter of the income from business property goes toward the payment of municipal taxes; the owner, therefore, must either have more rent or lower taxes must be levied. In the section of Broadway above Canal street everything also is being closely rented up, here being, with the exception of the old Brewster stores, not a half-dozen buildings to let as far as Fourteenth street.

SOME BROADWAY RENTS.

After leaving the offices of the above firm our representative sauntered along Broadway and fell in with a party who keeps thoroughly posted as to Broadway business property. It was then learned that the firm of Bates, Reed & Cooley pay about $42,000 rent per annum for their establishment at the southwest corner of Leonard street. In fact, after Mr. Hale had made the necessary improvements, he insisted upon receiving ten per cent. on his investment. This same Mr. Hale recently, it will be remembered, purchased the northwest corner of Duane street, which he will shortly improve with a magnificent fire proof building. The tenants are already vacating the rookeries on this site. Rothschild, the Fourteenth street ribbon merchant, who purchased some time ago the Olympic Theatre and erected in its stead a magnificent warehouse has, it is said, already secured a rental of $30,500 for the same. The Snug Harbor property at the corner of Eighth street is now thoroughly occupied and for the first time all rented. It is rumored that Mr. Orlando B. Potter will shortly put up a new building at the corner of Astor place.

SIXTH AVENUE FLATS AND STORES.

Mr. J. Romaine Brown, from his point of observation at Thirty-fourth street, Sixth avenue, and Broadway, maintains that there is not such an advance in Sixth avenue store property as elsewhere. Owing to the elevated road, the avenue is losing gradually its carriage trade, which, in the past, was constantly growing. Many parties are unwilling to trust their horses on the avenue, notwithstanding the fact that the animals are getting gradually accustomed to the noise. Most of the houses in the cross streets south of the park are being rented at an advance of ten to fifteen per cent. The Broadway houses, as well as the apartment houses in this section, are all full, in fact, it is a surprise to many where all the people come from.

Mr. S. B. Goodale, in referring to Sixth avenue flats, says that, on the contrary, they are being quickly rented, especially those near the elevated stations, and that, too, at an advance. Twenty-Third street, just now, is in a transitory state, and not much renting has been done there as yet. Lower Fifth avenue, between Twenty-third and Fourteenth streets, is also somewhat off and there is no increase in rents the section being mostly occupied by piano warehouses and picture galleries. He finds, however, that there is a ready market for almost anything in the line of improved property, paying even a moderate return. The tenants of houses rented by him have in every instance agreed to an increase of ten to fifteen per cent.

Messrs. Jayne & Co., of Twenty-third street, have charge of various estates, and state that some exceptional Sixth avenue property, especially in the neighborhood of Macy's, has been rented since the first instant at an advance in some cases of thirty per cent. Most of the stores have been taken for furnishing and fancy goods, boots and shoes, etc. All other Sixth avenue property, including old buildings, is rented six per cent. higher. Store property, west of Seventh avenue, and along the Eighth avenue from Thirteenth to Fortieth is being closely rented up, at an advance of seven per cent. The same advance holds good for houses on the west side cross streets, below Thirty-fourth.

EIGHTH AVENUE.

Mr. Jacob Appell, who rents a number of stores along Eighth avenue, has renewed many leases at an advance of ten per cent. on previous rents. The same rate has been secured by him for dwellings in this section. He notes particularly the absence of growling this year on the part of tenants. Landlords who in the past could not get along with unreasonable tenants now find matters considerably easier, and negotiations are more readily consummated between landlords and tenants, the latter being disposed to be more liberal.

Mr. C. W. Luyster, the builder who owns apartment houses and stores at Eighth avenue and Fifty-fourth street, has raised the rents of all his tenants ten per cent. All of them have renewed their leases at the advance, and he states "they were glad enough to remain at the price."

TWENTY-THIRD STREET NOTES.

While in Twenty-third street, the writer ascertained, that the seven lots elsewhere alluded to as having been purchased by Mr. Hyatt, will shortly be improved, plans being now prepared for an apartment house. Judge Hilton's new store, fronting forty feet on the north side of the street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, and which has remained vacant for a considerable time, is about being rented to Mr. Chatain, furniture, for about $14,000; the original rent demanded by the Judge was $18,000.

IN HARLEM.

In the Harlem district, between Fourth and Eighth avenues, One Hundred and Twenty-third and One Hundred and Thirty-fifth streets, tenants are glad to remain at an advance of twenty per cent. Some four-story brown stone houses in this district, which have rented heretofore for $1,300, have been disposed of during the week for $1,600.

In the annexed district there has already set in a rush for houses, especially on the part of Brooklyn and Jersey people. Mr. Wm. O'Gorman, who has made extensive improvements along Willis avenue, One Hundred and Thirty-eighth, One Hundred and Thirty-ninth and One Hunded and Forty-first streets, has rented several three-story houses for $700 per annum, and two-story houses for $500. At least twenty dwellings have been thus disposed of by him and twenty others nearly completed. At no distant day, Mr. O'Gorman, who is the pioneer in that district, will make still further improvements in this district, which is indebted to him mainly for this accession to its population.

CONDITION OF THE "STREET."

(SCENE—Broker's office in New street. Bull and Bear studying the tapes.)

Bear—I tell you, the whole market is a sale. Keene and his California crowd are out of stocks and are shorting. These people believe that stocks are too high and that all the indications point to a lower range of figures.

Bull—O, nonsense. There is not a cloud at the sky. There is nothing likely to happen to depress prices. Can you give one reason why stocks should go down?

Bear—Exchange has gone up, so that there is no longer a profit in importing gold. Stocks went up in the fall of 1879, while gold was pouring into the country, while stocks went down last spring and touched very low figures, because of the stoppage of gold importations. Upon the resumption of those importations in the summer and fall, stocks went up again, which shows that, for a continued bull movement, we must have constant additions to the currency. Hence, operators, like Keene, who were badly hurt last spring, are not going to be caught tripping this spring.

Bull—Is it settled that gold importations have ceased? The trade returns show that our exports largely exceed those of last year, while we are importing far less goods. There certainly is no stoppage of the drain of European money in our securities and especially to the new construction companies. So long as these investments are going on there is no assurance that the drain of gold has permanently ceased. Even if there was no new gold and silver imported, our home production is nearly $80,000,000 per annum, and that we will certainly retain. This will be a constant stimulus to business, for all additions to the currency, whether gold, silver or paper, advance the price of commodities.

Bear—But see what the banks can do. Over 600 million dollars of United States bonds become due this year, and it is in the power of the banks, if the funding bill does not suit them, to sell their bonds, withdraw the currency and then make a violent contraction—a contraction that would ruin half the active speculators in the Street.

Bull—O, the banks will not dare to do anything so violent and revolutionary. They are not popular now, but were they to do anything so sweeping they would be sternly dealt with by the public opinion and by Congress. No, the banks have too much at stake to risk the effects of a sharp contraction in the currency. Have you nothing else to offer, showing a bearish condition of affairs?

Bear—Is not Jay Gould's position dangerous to the markets? That great operator is naturally a bear. His greatest successes in the Street were in destroying values. He was a bear, last fall, in face of a bull market. But now circumstances have put him in the false position of being a bull. He is loaded up with Western Union and Southwestern stocks and he is forced to stand by the market in order to effect a profitable sale of these securities. Gould has made money by the working out of magnificent schemes, but he makes many mistakes as to the course of the stock market. If he was mistaken as a bear, last fall, may he not be equally at fault as a bull this coming spring?

Bull—Is that not all the more reason for believing the market will keep up and advance now that the greatest natural bear is forced to be a bull? But now let us look at the other side of the picture. To begin with, the country is prosperous, exceptionally so. This ought to help prices. Then, immigrants are coming here at the rate of 600,000 per annum. How can we help doing a greater business with this great mass of adults poured in upon us, who patronize our railway lines, open up new farms and businesses, and add in every way to the wealth of the community. Then look at the effect that the back pay business will have. Nearly $500,000,000 is shortly to be distributed among old soldiers and claim agents. This money, as soon as received, will be poured in the channels of trade, and generally for luxuries. See what railroad travelling and trading this will bring about. But the most potent factors of all is in the Funding Bill, about to be passed by Congress?

Bear—I don't believe that any Funding Bill will pass. If one does, the banks will do all they can to make it a failure.

Bull—But my advices are that it will pass, and one provision of it is destined to increase stock values enormously.

Bear—To what do you refer?

Bull—The provision for issuing $250,000,000 of 3 per cent. Treasury notes in denominations of $10 and upwards. That means a furious inflation.

Bear—How do you make that out?

Bull—Because it is settled beyond all peradventure that hundreds of millions of dollars are now hoarded in old stockings and out of the way places throughout the West and South. In the Middle and Eastern States, the savings banks show an increase in deposits of nearly $90,000,000. In the South and West the hoarding has been carried on without reference to banks. Of all the vast sums which have come from abroad, scarcely any have stayed in New York. It has been absorbed throughout the country, specially the West. Now the $250,000,000 of $10 and upward interest bearing Treasury notes will take the place of these gold, silver and greenback dollars which are now hoarded, and we will once more see the tides of currency flowing to New York from all parts of the country. The moment the Funding Bill is passed (and I predict that it will be in a 3½ per cent. bond which will be authorized), be prepared for an immediate advance in prices, and the most active bull speculation Wall street has ever seen. It may be followed by a crash, but for the time being there will be a revel on all the exchanges of the country.

Bear—But are we sure of this summer's crops?

Bull—It is too soon to talk of that yet. Towards the middle of April would be time enough to get alarmed about the crops.

A FEW POINTS.

While the temper of the small operators on the Street is bearish, still there is a disposition to take small flyers on certain points which are being circulated from one broker's office to another. We give some of the latest, but do not advise anybody to buy anything.

Pacific Mail is said to be on the cards for a rise. It is the old story, that the Panama canal will want a great many supplies and it may need the steamers and the franchise of the Pacific Mail steamship company. There is reason to believe that all the business of the Pacific Mail is now profitable, with the exception of the steamship line which runs from San Francisco up the north coast.

It is said that Cincinnati, Sandusky & Central is on the cards for a big rise. This stock has been dealt in at Boston very extensively and has been but recently quoted upon our Stock Exchange. It is selling on this market at about 46 and there are people who predict 90 for it, at no distant day.

Wisconsin Central, now on the Boston market, is soon to be brought to New York. The point is given to buy, for a good rise.

Central Arizona is said to be a purchase, but it requires a great deal of courage to deal in this stock, in view of its close manipulation by Seymour & Co. The mine is a good one, however, and the great stamp mill is at work.

Strong parties have taken hold of the Standard Gold mine of Bodie. It has recently advanced from 22 to 26, and the mine, it is said, never looked so well. The annual report will soon be published and will contain an elaborate description of the mine. Parties will do as well to see this, before buying.

MINING NOTES.

The business of the New York Mining Exchange is steadily increasing in amount, and it is expected that this spring and summer will see a very active market. It must be confessed that the great bulk of the so-called mines dealt in are mere prospects. For one share of a dividend paying mine sold, there are 5,000 of properties which never have made any returns and probably never will. Still there are a great many of very good properties dealt in, good in the sense of having merit, and a prospect of becoming valuable. The business of the Mining Exchange, therefore, is useful in so far as it furnishes money to carry on the work of developing mines. But investors should give all mining shares a wide berth.

The strike in Little Pittsburgh is again bringing the Leadville properties into favor. Some eight months ago the disappointment was so great, due to the scoundrel management by the California and Colorado manipulators, that prudent people would not touch mining shares of companies located at Leadville. But it seems Little Pittsburgh has really made an important new development, while all the accounts from Chrysolite and some of the other mines are very satisfactory. It is expected that the California manipulators of Iron Silver will be "bounced" next month, and then it is expected that that magnificent property will be properly developed.

The news from the Standard mine of Bodie continues good, and not only is the production, but the ore in sight, larger and more valuable than ever. The annual report, soon due, will, it is believed, be very satisfactory. This mine has paid regular dividends for over four years, and, it is claimed, has at least three years dividends in sight. It is probably to-day the greatest known gold mine in the north.

There is every likelihood of a decided movement in other Bodie stocks before midsummer. Among the mines which may show much higher figures are Bodie, Bulwer, Mono, Tioga, Bechtel, Oro, Addenda and the Noondays. We cannot recommend either Consolidated Pacific or Boston Consolidated on account of the people who have manipulated them in the past. Goodshaw also is in dangerous hands.

The story of the Lenox estate is curious as showing the difference between values at different periods. James Lenox, in 1849, bought forty acres of land, east of what is now the Central Park, for $40,000. The estimated value of that tract at the present date is about $14,000,000. But, of course, this is an exceptional region, and there are but few localities where the same increase in value can be expected. Lenox was so convinced of the future value of the property, that he would not permit, in his will, his son to sell it during his lifetime, for the reason that he expected "a village to grow up near the property." There are just such chances to-day, and 30 and 40 years from now people will be amazed at the difference in values, when the prices of 1881 will be compared with those of 1921.

THE MINING TRUST COMPANY.

We have repeatedly pointed out the non-utility of the American Mining Exchange. This paper was the only one which told the history of the charter under which it was organized. This we did nearly a year ago, and now the facts come out in a debate in the State Assembly. The charter was passed during the ring times, and would be a valuable one if in the hands of an efficient organization. It was intended to force the Stock Exchage to purchase it at a high figure. But the stockbrokers would none of it. It was bought in 1878 for $34,000, and put into a syndicate known as the Mining Trust Company. Under this organization the American Stock Exchange was started; 171 persons joined it, each of whom paid in $1,000. The stock of the Mining Trust Company was held by a very few men; the actual cash paid in $50,000; nominal capital, $5,000,000. This Mining Trust Company held the funds of the American Exchange, receiving in all $210,-600. This money has disappeared, all save $140,-000. Ex-Governor Latham, of California, was president. He received $15,000 per annum. Other officers received high salaries. The debate on the character of this Trust Company was of so damaging a character, that there cannot be much vitality left in this institution. The American Board, we judge, cannot last much longer. It furnishes another evidence of what a dangerous set of operators the mining excitement brought from the Pacific coast to this city. In the mean time the business of the New York Mining Board is steadily increasing, and undoubtedly a very large business in mining shares will be transacted the remainder of this year.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

Brooklyn's taxable real estate is $257,114,034; of this aggregate over 13 per cent., or $33,493,837 worth of property, pays no taxes whatever. Church property in Brooklyn is worth $9,276,-500.

The Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company has began an action to foreclose mortgages on 100 lots along McDonough, Decatur and Macon streets, and Yates avenue, held as security for loans amounting to $77,000.

The subject discussed by the West Side Association at its meeting held on last Saturday evening, how to establish direct communication between the west and east side of the park, will probably shortly be practically solved by the establishment of a new cross town route, along Eighty-sixth street, for which application is to be made to the legislature.

The subject of a new ferry between the foot of Broadway, Brooklyn, and Fourteenth or Twenty-third streets, New York, excites a great deal of interest in the minds of residents in the new Brooklyn wards. Such a ferry would tend to make that section of Brooklyn, now rapidly improving, still more looked after by investors.

The outcry about the condition of the streets, in certain of the daily papers, is very absurd. If the taxation of this city were doubled, the streets could not be kept in a proper condition during such a winter as we are now passing through. It is estimated that a really great snow storm would cost $700,000 to remove. Where the authorities are derelict, is in not compelling householders to keep the gutters clear and the culverts open. A great snow storm is necessarily an annoyance and a nuisance in a large city, and it is unfair to blame the street cleaning bureau for what is beyond human power to prevent.

The specialization of certain localities is constantly going on. Maiden lane, between Broadway and Nassau street, has become the headquarters for the sale of diamonds and watches. A first-class house must be in that locality. This fact has begun to tell on rents. An office with two rooms, which has rented for $1,500 a year, now commands $3,500 per annum, at least that is now asked. For a large office which rented at $1,200, $2,600 is now asked. A large building on this block, full of offices reached by elevators, would return an increditable percentage to the owner. There has been some advanee, though not so much as in this one particular block, in John street, between Broadway and Pearl street.

The changes in prices of New York realty will shortly be shown in a partition sale of the property in Bleecker street, south side, extending from Broadway to Mercer street. In 1797 several acres of ground, of which this property was a part, sold for £300 ($1,500). In 1813 the present property hat is 25 feet on Broadway, 200 on Bleecker street and 25 on Mercer street, sold for $3,500. In 1820 two persons bought the ground for a trifle over $5,000. They both died intestate, and since then the property has not changed hands. Now there are some 218 heirs, drawing an income from the estate. It is, however, to be sold some time in April at public auction, and it will be curious to notice the difference between the prices of 1813, 1820 and 1881.

DOYING'S MADISON AVENUE BLOCK.

The block of ten elegant houses on the west side of Madison avenue, between Sixty-second and Sixty-third streets, built by Mr. J. E. Doying, is now completed, and the houses are in the market for purchase by investors. The block contains all twenty-foot houses, four stories high, the corner houses being 20.5. The brown stone is exquisitely finished, and the elaborate portico, stoop and brown stone rails unite in giving all of them a decidedly solid appearance. Double floors are provided in the various stories, and, while seven houses are finished in walnut, three of them are trimmed in mahogany. The main halls and vestibules are all laid with encaustic tiles, giving the entrance to the front parlors a peculiarly cheerful aspect. The dining rooms are all finished in oak and burl maple, the floors are elegantly inlaid, and great pains have been taken with the finishing of the wainscoting. The mantels and mirrors are all of artistic design, the carving in the front, as well as back, parlors being of a superior order. The butler's pantry, on this floor, has been constructed and finished with due regard to a family's comfort, and here, as well as on the upper floors, ample closet room is provided. The second, third and fourth floors contain front and back bedrooms connected in the modern saloon style, while the lighter colors here met with afford a contrast pleasing to the eye of the visitor. It should be borne in mind that the plumbing in all of these houses has been done by day's work, under the direct supervision of Mr. Doying, and that the material used in this connection is the very best that can be found in the city. The cellars in these houses are all excellently finished in Portland cement, refrigerators are built in the various walls; dumbwaiters and electric bells abound in all of them. The very best of ranges have been secured, and the most approved heating apparatus can be found in each of the ten houses. Mr. Doying offers the inside houses at $15,000 each, and the corner houses at $55,000, prices which in the present state of the market must be called exceedingly moderate.

IMPORTANT DECISION IN ELECTRIC LIGHTING —EDISON BEATEN.

The Patent Office has just decided against Edison, in an important interference case which has been on trial for some time past.

Soon after Mr. Edison turned his attention to the electric light, it was announced that he had "solved the whole problem," and had invented a perfect lamp, which would very soon be used in the place of gas, for purposes of illumination. This lamp was soon after patented, and its novel features consisted of what is known as the thermostatic regulator.

It was claimed on behalf of the United States Electric Lighting Company that Mr. Maxim had invented the same lamp before Mr. Edison, and an application was filed which was put into interference with Edison's patent.

The case was very strenuously contested, and was argued in December last. The Examiner of Interferences has decided that Edison was not the first inventor, and that the patent must be issued to the United States Electric Lighting Company.

This is the famous platinum lamp, which created such a panic in gas stocks about two years ago, and sent the stock of the Edison Company up to an almost fabulous figure. It is claimed by the United States Company that other important contests relating to incandescent lighting will now be decided in its favor as it was the first in the field in this country.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

A great deal of property, most of it improved, was sold at auction during the past week, and the Exchange Sales-room showed a still further increased attendance. For the purposes of perfecting title, Mr Peter F. Meyer sold a tract of land along 206, 207 and 208 Academy, Sherman and Hawthorn streets, and the property all went to one purchaser, without establishing values in that locality. Among the speculative property sold by Mr. Harnett, on Tuesday last, was a lot on the northwest corner of Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Twentieth street, which Mr. John Donovan secured, for $5,000. The investment parcels, however, were the great attraction throughout the week, and eliciting lively bidding, showing that even in parts of the city where the great lines of trade have not yet established themselves, property returning a reasonable income is readily disposed of. In this manner, Hugh N. Camp sold No. 150 Wooster street, for $16,975, and No. 16 Bond street, for $23,100. The stores and lots sold by Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son, on Thursday, most belonging to the Colgate estate, were disposed of very successfully. It was a partition sale which attracted, notwithstanding the storm of that day, a very large attendance, and the prices obtained were exceedingly satisfactory. No. 41 John street was sold at $43,100, and No. 43 John street, for $32,000; No. 211 Pearl street, running through to Gold street, for $37,250, and No. 128 Chambers street, for $44,000 No. 25 East Twenty-third street, 25.8x98 9, was sold for $45,250. The residence once occupied by Mrs Benjamin Nathan, No. 683 Fifth avenue, 30x125, was sold by Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co., to Dr. E. P. Huylar, for $108,500. Since the sale an offer of $120,0 0 has been made to the purchaser, but has been declined.

The sale of Fulton and Decatur streets lots, held by Mr. Cole, in Brooklyn, on Wednesday, was attended by a large number of New York investors, and, amid spirited bidding, the property was disposed of, as will be seen by the list at foot, at very fair prices.

The block bounded by Tompkins avenue, Decatur street and Fulton street, sold in August last for $20,000, at a partition sale. The same block was sold this week for $64,000.

Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. announce for next Tuesday an administratrix's sale of property on Broome, Grand and Gouverneur streets, all paying good incomes, the details of which can be found in our advertising columns.

Greene street property being in demand just now, we call attention to the sale announced for Thursday next, by R. V. Harnett, when some eligible parcels will be offered in that locality.

On Thursday, the 24th instant, an important sale of Broadway property will be held by A. H. Muller & Son, to which we call preliminary attention to-day for the information of investors. The plot comprises the northwest corner of Broadway and Fifty-fourth street, 52 feet on Broadway, and 92 feet on the street. Fuller details of this sale will be given in our next issue.

The sale under foreclosure of Canal street property, between Allen and Orchard streets, is also announced in our advertising columns.

Mr. Josiah Jex called at THE RECORD office during the past week, and stated that at the sale held during the previous week he established no other basis for his upset prices than the actual cash offers received by him for the various parcels at private sale. His figure, for instance, for the Fifth avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street property, was originally $65,000, he obtained an offer of $55,000, but would not accept it, as it had been already advertised. He, however, told his customer that at the auction sale it could be had for any figure over that amount. So with his other parcels. It happened, however, that at the Exchange Sales-room, these parties who had been willing to buy at private sale, did either not put in appearance or were unwilling to take hold of it.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

Probably, in sympathy with the stock market, private transactions in real estate have not been so voluminous during the past as during the previous week. There is, however, no reaction, only a slight let up in the closing of contracts, caused perhaps, also by the stormy weather preventing buyers from visiting the various speculative parcels offered. Nevertheless, some heavy transactions, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, have been closed in Pine street during the week.

Merrs. L. J. & I. Phillips have sold at least $400,000 worth of property during the past few days, as follows: Eighty feet on Greene street, twenty feet south of Prince street, and fifty feet on Prince, fifty feet east of Greene, for $116,000; No. 75 Greene street, 25x90, for $55,000; a piece of Broadway property, between Spring and Bleecker, for $90,000; three lots on the south side of Seventy-first street, between Eighth and Ninth avenue, for $6,750, each; two lots on the north side of Eightieth street, between Fifth and Madison avenues, each lot having 21 feet frontage, for $17,000, each; six lots on Eightieth street, between Madison and Fourth, for $57,000; two lots on Eighth avenue, between Eightieth and Ninetieth streets, for $30,000. Additional sales have been made by this firm, but they are restrained by parties interested from furnishing the details.

Messrs. Scott & Myers have sold three full lots on the south side of Fifty-ninth street, 275 east of Seventh avenue, for $60 000.

Messrs. Isaiah Meyer & Leppman have sold to Mr. Coar, the builder, five lots on the south side of Fifty-eighth street, 300 feet west of Sixth avenue, with builder's loan, for $17,000, each.

Six lots, running through from Eighty-first to Eighty-second street, three on each street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, have been sold by Mr. Philip G. Weaver, to a capitalist, for $50,000.

It is reported, but not confirmed, that Mr. Jonas Clark has sold his nine lots at the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and Seventy-second street at figures, which have not transpired.

An offer of $115,000 has been made to the New York Life Insurance Co., for the three lots on the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Eighty-second street, but has been declined.

The site of the old Excelsior building on West Twenty-third street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, once the property of the Ingersoll family, where are still visible the ruins of the late fire, containing seven lots, have been disposed of at a private sale, by Mr. R. V. Harnett, to ex-Alderman Hyatt, who intends to erect there a large apartment house.

Mr. W. H. Barnes has sold; at private contract, six lots on the corner of Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Twenty eighth street, for $28,250; seven lots on One Hundred and Twenty-third street, between First and Second avenues, for $24,000; one lot on Ninety-sixth and one on Ninety-seventh street, running through between Tenth avenue and the Boulevard, for $3,250 each

Mr. Hugh N. Camp, who sold the sixty-two lots on One Hundred and Fiftieth and One Hundred and Fifty-first streets, Boulevard and Tenth avenue for Mr. Field, requests us to state that the sale at effected by him amounted to $127,000 and not $157,000, as heretostated, unless it has been resold since, of which he has no knowledge.

Mr. William Noble states that the nine lots on the corner of Second avenue and Seventy-third street, recently sold by him to Sutro & Mewmark, were disposed of at $52,000 instead of $32,000; the three avenue and two streets lots adjoining, bringing $32,000, and four street lots next adjoining $20,000.

Quite a number of houses have been sold at private contract during the week. Messrs Riker & Co. have sold for Mr. C. W. Luyster, No 13 East Sixty-sixth street, 22x61x100, a four-story brown stone house for $50,000, to P. O. Costello. This leaves only one house, 34 feet front, on Mr. Luyster's hands, and this he intends to sell at $100,000 in a very few days. He has been exceedingly successful in the disposal of his row of houses in an incredible short space of time.

Mr. S. M. Brown has sold to Mrs. Dobler a four-story brick house on the southwest corner of Fourth avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, 25.6x90, for $20,000.

Messrs. Timpson & Peet have sold for Mr. D. G. Crosby, the leasehold premises consisting, of a four-story brown store and flat property, No. 725 Eighth avenue, to Mr. Jacob Dohrman, for $8,750.

Messrs. Siegmund T. Meyer & Son have sold for the New York Life Insurance Company, Nos. 29 and 31 East One Hundred and Thirty-second street, 17.6x50x100 each; also No. 6 East One Hundred and Thirty-first street, to J. Hirsch, for $9,000 each.

The lease of the northeast corner of Broadway and Thirieth street, 105.8x110.6x98 8x72.9, to Lester Wallack, for twenty-one years from May next, is recorded at last, the consideration being $20,000.

The Niagara Fire Insurance Company has complied with the Safety Fund Law of this State, and all its policies are now issued under protection of that law.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—Since our last, the market has been a very stupid one and we find scarcely anything of positive interest to report In addition to the shutting off of supplies from the River and the points down the Bay, the condition of the Sound has prevented fresh arrivals from Long Island, and aside from the one cargo held here for a considerable time past, we are not aware of any offering from first hands. This parcel is, we understand, limited at $11.00, and up to the present writing found no sale.

The condition of the weather was at times more favorable for work, and the consumption of stock has probably been somewhat larger, but the supply in hand and such as could be drawn from the accumulation held in yard by dealers appears to have satisfied most wants. So far as can be judged from present appearances there is still every reason to expect a brisk demand for brick as soon as supplies again come within reach, but buyers do not calculate upon taking hold until the cost is materially modified from the rates at which nominal quotations are given, or say $10.00@11.00. A large percentage of the left over stock remains in first hands, and will go far toward neutralizing a good call unless the new make should be unusually late in coming upon the market.

HARDWARE.—The demand is not of an animated character, and most orders given still bear indications of close and careful calculation to early wants, and run largely to standard shelf goods, etc. Importation is expensive and difficult, and buyers prefer, in most cases, to work along from hand to mouth whenever this policy is possible. Operations, however, show some little growth, and the majority of dealers speak cheerfully and confidently of the prospect. A first rate local consumption of builders' hardware is anticipated. Values are, as a rule, well supported. Recent meetings of the manufacturers of Augers and Bits, Chisels and Drawing Knives, and Locks, adjourned without altering lists.

Russell & Erwin Manufacturing Company make several changes in their discount sheet, mostly on builders' hardware. Sargent & Co. alter the list rates on their Reversible Shutter Bar as follows: For two-inch, $1.30, $1 60, $6 30, and $6 80 for Nos 167, 165, 164 and 169 respectively; and 2½-inch, $1.40, $1 70, $6 60, and $6.60 for the same numbers, with the list subject to discount of 66⅔ per cent.

The manufacturers of Cordage publish a revised list as follows: Manila cordage, sizes above 12 th'd, and hay and hide rope, 14c; do do 12 th'd (⅝ in diam.), 14½c; do do, 6 th'd and 9 th'd (¼ in. and 5-16 in diam.), 15c; do do, bolt rope yarns, 15½c; do do, do, 6 th'd and 9 th'd, 16½c; do. whale lines, 15½c; tar'd Manila, 13½c; fine tar'd Manila lath yarn, 15c; Sisal rope, sizes above 12 th'd, and hay and hide rope, 11c; do 12 th'd (⅝ in diam.), 11½c; do 6 th'd and 9 th'd (¼ in. and 5 16 in diam.), 12c; tar'd Sisal lath yarn, 10½c.

The most important announcement of late comes from the American Screw Company, as follows: "In view of the prices made by other Rivet manufacturers, we have this day reduced (sic) the discounts on our regular Iron Block, Iron Tinned, Block and Carriage Rivets from 50 and 7½ to 65 per cent; Rivets in bulk from 30 and 7½ to 50 per cent; Burrs from 30 and 7½ to 50 per cent, and Coach Screws (by the keg, 150 lbs) from 60 to 65 per cent." They also quote the following discounts on Wood Screws: Flat Head, Iron, 40 per cent; Round Head, Iron, 35 per cent; Flat Head, Brass, 40 per cent, and Round Head, Brass, 30 per cent cash; no prices guaranteed.

LATH.—In a wholesale way the market has been quiet, owing to the absence of supplies, and moderate offerings to arrive. The views of receivers, however, appear to be quite firm on a basis of the last sales, or say $2 per M, and some seem to think they can do better than this when supplies come to hand to work with. It is reported that only a moderate quantity has been detained by the ice in the Sound, and that altogether the amount afloat is quite small.

LIME.—So far as it goes the market is firm, and full former rates are quoted on all kinds. The fresh arrivals, however, prove extremely small, and there is scarcely enough stock changing hands to make any regular market.

LUMBER.—Our local market has continued void of exciting features; is, in fact, becoming quite monotonous, especially to those who are compelled to make an attempt at writing something of interest. In most cases accumulations are diminishing slowly, and holder's advantages growing correspondingly stronger, but without leading to a direct and positive advance. Of stock available from coastwise sources the amount received this winter has been a trifle in excess of expectation, but about all disposed of, and at fair rates. The most difficult class of goods to find is a good selection of hardwoods. There is a few such here, but they are under control of dealers who must have them for a special trade, and would not close out in bulk upon as easy terms as they would accept from regular jobbing customers. Walnut, oak and ash continue the most difficult to find. Of the first named, large amounts have passed through this port for Europe since the commencement of the year. Advices from the woods indicate plenty of logs and plenty of snow, with every prospect of a heavy run of "saw fodder" in the spring.

Spruce has been somewhat irregular with a tendency rather in buyers favor on anything not extra attractive. In one way and another, dealers find they are receiving more attention from commission men and agents of the mills, and this naturally leads to cautious bids and efforts to secure better terms, which in some cases have been successful. Reports of increased shipments from the East have also been circulated in such form as to induce caution, especially since the ice in the Sound and harbors has interfered with navigation, and makes arrivals uncertain, both as to time and quantity. On extra difficult specials $21@22 quoted, but $20 about an average top rate, and randoms, hardly saleable, about $15.00@17.50 per M.

White Pine is firmly and confidently held on all good assortments as the depletion of stock cannot be made good at ruling rates, and no important additions are looked for until the river opens. Demand is holding up very well and covers a good general assortment taken on home account with many orders from exports, though the difficulty experienced in getting vessels has checked the latter movement somewhat. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $23@25 for South America do; $15.50@16.50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow Pine without much change on specials.

Agents have advices of an increased supply of logs but plenty of back orders to consume them, and there is a continued indisposition to offer terms on specifications, except for very distant dates Some random stock has been offered of late under a little pressure and buyers gained the advantage, especially on flooring boards, though, as a rule, sellers were unwilling to give way. We quote random cargoes at about $23 50@25 per M; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do.; and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M for rough, and $19@20 for dressed

Hardwoods of attractive quality have only to be offered to find customers, but are seldom offered, and the market is dull. It is probably unnecesary to add that the price on pretty much all grades is supported without difficulty. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M; ash, $33@36 do.; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do.; culls $18@20 do; cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch $25@27 50, and do. inch, $33@35 do.; hickory, $35@45 do, for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

Shingles remain firm in price and meet with quite a steady call for expor', while on home account the demand is unusually good for the season. We quote Cypress at about $6 for saps and $8 50@9 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $4 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2 50@4 50 for 16-inch, as to quality and to quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30-inch, $16@22 25 for A and $28 75@33,25 for No 1; for 24-inch, $6 50@16 for A and $16,75@33 for No 1; for 20-inch, $7@16 50 for A and $11 25@11 75 for No. 1.

At the yards stocks are held firmly for full former rates, and dealers say "business is all right" when the weather favors.

From among the lumber charters and engagements receently reported, we select the following:

An Am barque, 922 tons, 650 M white pine lumber, from Boston to Montevideo or Buenos Ayres, private terms, quotable $12@13 per M; a Br barque, 516 tons, from Pensacola to Rio Janeiro, lumber, at or about $20 net; Nor barque, 499 tons, from Pascagoula to St. Nazair, timber, 38s; a Br barque, 657 tons, from Doboy or Union Island or Valencia, resawed lumber, £6; a brig, 331 tons, from Mobile to Kingston, Jam., lumber, $9; An Am barque, 558 tons, from Portland to River Plate white pine lumber at or about $13.50 net; a schr, 281 tons, from Savannah to Barranquilla, lumber, $10; a Br brig, 263 tons, from St John, N B, to Mantanzas, for orders, box shooks, 17c; a schr, 220 M lumber, from Darien to Waldoboro, $8; a schr, 300 M lumber, from Brunswick to New Haven, $7; a schr, 300 M lumber, from Stockton, Ala., to New York, $9; a schr, 280 M lumber, from Pascagoula to New York, $9; a schr, 200 M lumber, from Pensacola to New York, $8; a schr, 275 M lumber from Brunswick to Baltimore, $5 25; a schr, 200 M lumber, from Fernandina to Philadelphia, $7; a barque, 375 M lumber and timber, from Doboy to Philadelphia, $6 and $7; a sher, 340 M lumber, from Savannah to New York, $6; a schr, 180 M lumber, from Wilmington, N. SAGINAW VALLEY

LUMBERMAN'S GAZETTE OFFICE,

The inquiry for lumber continues active, and an increasing number of sales are reported. The transactions are in lumber now in pile, and for stock to be cut when the desired qualities and assortment cannot readily be found. At the rate sales are progressing, there will not be much unsold lumber on the river when navigation opens. The sales of the past month are estimated to aggregate some 40,000,000 feet, the prices of which have ranged from $6 50@8.00 for culls, $13.50@16 00 for common and $30@38 for uppers, the outside figures being for extra choice lots. The more common figures were $7 00@7.50 for culls, $14@15 for common and $31@35 for uppers. The market is considered in a good condition, and the promise of a year of prosperity very decided. The steadiness of the Eastern market, and the absence of complaints about prices is regarded as a favorable indication.

Logging operations are progressing under favoring conditions, although the quantity of snow has been somewhat of a hindrance in the work Without doubt, however, a large amount of logs are now on bank, and even should the thaw, which is just setting in, continue and prevail for some weeks, logs enough for next season's sawing would still be secured

Shingles are in better request, the near approach of spring leading dealers to place orders for future delivery. The shipments by rail has also increased, but prices remain as before namely, $1.85@2 00 for clear buts and $2.85@3.00 for XXX.

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER,
MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

The dull season is upon the trade and no one expects heavy orders, but there is much comfort in the returns of shipments from all points which show by comparison that the demand is from 10 to 15 per cent. heavier than it was a year ago, and that an improvement on the preceding year This increase has been uniform during the last twelve months and shows that the increased production of lumber leaves the country with no surplus. The indications remain in favor of another increase both in demand and production. The prodigous figures stagger the credulity of all, but we predict now 1,750,000,000 production for 1881 as we predicted 1,400,000,000 one year ago for the Mississippi Valley. The only changes to note in prices is that many special sizes and lengths cannot be bought in any Western market at the regular quotations each firm putting its own figures on the scarce articles. The bad weather has blockaded many railroads and prevented shipments of lumber. During the last ten days heavy snows are reported all over the North which would naturally have a depressing effect on business. A move was made during the week to advance prices on certain kinds of lumber but no action has been taken to secure uniformity of prices while many refuse to sell at present prices.

The Northwestern Lumberman reports the Chicago market as follows:

The blocking of the railroads with snow, coupled with the bad weather, has made a large gap in the business of the week among lumber dealers It has cut from their sales many thousand feet, and though some of this business will come to them when the weather improves, much of it is lost forever. Yet in spite of all the drawbacks they have had to encounter, they have made a good record for the week just closing. From most points trade is reported fair, and occasionally good, which leads to the conclusion that it compares well with the average of former years, however much it may fall short of what it might have been under more favorable conditions. The winter so far has not been a good one for lumber selling, and it must be looked upon as a very favorable sign that, notwithstanding this, the average of business actually done in the principal markets has been so high. It shows that there has been a consumptive demand of pretty liberal proportions for the time of year, for it is impossible upon any other hypothesis to explain why so much lumber has been wanted by retail dealers.

Our readers will hardly look for anything new this week in regard to prices. It only need be said that they are practically where they were left a week ago The occasional changes made denote nothing more than slight differences of opinion as to the value of some particular sort of stock, and are not to be regarded as indications of either an advance or a decline in prices. There is just now, no general tendency either way. The lists are simply stationary. There is no reason why they should be higher, and nothing that requires them to be crowded below their present range. The lumbermen have so adjusted them that they represent pretty nearly what lumber is worth now, and are content we are glad to say, to let them alone for a while. In most places lumber may be called pretty firm. The list adopted in this city January 24, is said to be well maintained, even less cutting being discoverable than was expected, and about the same general condition of firmness is observed in other markets

Perhaps the most noteworthy feature of the trade at present is the lack of good assortments. This trouble seems to exist everywhere. Although there is more lumber on hand, there seems to be unusual difficulty experienced in getting together what is needed to fill orders. Even at this point, where there must be upwards of 400,000,000 feet in a pile, the dealers complain that dry stock of many kinds is excessively scarce, and in some of the items that appear on the list, impossible to find. Much of the lumber now on hand is still green, though it is not so described in quoting, and buyers, disliking to pay from 25 to 50 cents per hundred pounds for moving water and sap about the country, it cannot be shipped There are some things, however, at nearly all points that cannot be had, seasoned or unseasoned. Small timber is in such exceedingly limited supply here that it cannot be bought at many yards, and elsewhere we find there is a similar scarcity of special kinds or qualities of stock. Grades of which the supply is so small are held above the market by such as happen to have them, and usually bring readily all that is asked.

The mid-winter season of inactivity is generally considered about over at the close of January, and soon after indications that the regular spring demand is beginning to se in are looked for. It is not unlikely that this year the trade may be kept back a little by bad weather; but the letters of inquiry that are already making their appearance from retail dealers proves that the demand is there, and only awaits a reasonably good opportunity to show itself. The outlook now is certainly as good for an active spring as it ever has been, and we think most lumbermen have settled down in the belief that it will not prove deceptive.

HARDWOODS —The storm, the fore part of the week, acted as an embargo upon the hardwood, as well as upon all other business. Small shipments of oak, whitewood and walnut have reached here, and a few of the yards have been moderately busy hauling their arrivals to the piling ground There is a perceptible falling off in the receipts of whitewood, soft weather having again made log hauling, in some parts of Tennessee, impossible. The mill men are now building tramways, and expect soon to be able to do steady work. The demand for whitewood is very active, and one dealer, who is also a producer, has contracts which will take his entire seasons cut These contracts call for more lumber than he sold during the whole of last season, and we look upon it as an indication as to what the business of next summer will be, providing stock can be obtained.

Slack and whiskey barrel staves are higher, and we quote pork barrel staves $2 lower. Headings are higher throughout the list, and hoops remain unchanged. The market is by no means active, and arrivals are moderate. Last week the coopers were on a strike again, and all winter they have seemed to be chronically affected that way. Evidently, they do not understand the situation, else they would know that striking will not better their condition. They may as well settle down to work, or engage in other business. Coopers receive 20 cents for making a pork or lard barrel, and it is not a bad week's work to turn out from 25 to 30 It is doubtful if the average cooper makes 80 cents a day on this class of work. Our manufacturers deplore such a state of affairs, but cannot remedy it so long as there are five penitentiaries contributing to the wants of the packing interest of this city. Last year Louisville contractors placed 20,000 prison made packages among our packing men, which was but a small proportion of the same make used here. During the dull season the work at the prisons goes on all the same, and the products are stored ready to be thrown upon the market in any quantity when the time comes for their use. A bill is now before the Legislature of this State which, if passed, will not allow but fifty convicts to be employed upon this kind of work, and in that way relief is hoped for.

It can now be stated pretty definitely that the production of staves, particularly in Indiana, will not be heavy this season. The demand for ash and oak is so active that more can be obtained for them than stave manufacturers feel warranted in paying.

The demand for hardwoods at Montreal is particularly good, but men are so scare in that section, owing to so many going into the woods of Michigan and the Ottawa district, that a comparatively small cut will be made. The forests of walnut have almost entirely disappeared in Ontario, and what little remains is in the western part of the province.

In Philadelphia the demand is good; prices are firm, and an inspection of the statement in another column of stocks on hand shows that there is no walnut or cherry in the hands of wholesalers in that market. As compared with stocks on hand January 1, 1880, there is a deficit in all kinds of hardwoods with the exception of oak.

In Boston there is a quick market for walnut and cherry, and hardwoods generally are firm and active. Nos. 1 and 2 maple have advanced $2.

THE EAST.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin as follows:

Western lumber continues dull, but with a firm feeling on the part of Western holders. The chief topic of discussion among the local trade the past week, has been the disagreement between the Northern and the Vermont Central roads, which results in lumber which has heretofore been brought over the Lowell, being diverted to the Fitchburg. The dealers complain of this state of things, but we understand that the Fitchburg people are making arrangements to remedy the trouble and to facilitate the moving of lumber freight. There is still no activity in Eastern lumber, but there is a general feeling that with the advent of favorable weather there will be a good demand and that early spring cargoes will meet with satisfactory prices Southern hard pine is in strong position, though the spring demand has not yet set in. A noticeable feature of the trade is a decided increase in the size of large stuff.

The following shows the value of the exports and imports of lumber, shingles, lath, shooks, staves, poles, timber, &c., for the fiscal years ending June 30:

	Imports.	Exports.
1875-76	$595,801	$83,774
1876-77	597,646	67,113
1877-78	521,177	61,218
1878-79	507,328	75,347
1879-80	565,755	184,187

THE PROVINCES.

The Montreal Journal of Commerce has the following on the timber supply:

There are few questions more important to Western Ontario farmers than the question of timber culture for future use. Forests have been cut down with almost criminal waste and no new ones planted, and even in the Orilla districts ten years will use all lumber fit for the saw. While the future lumber supply has been much talked of, a few farmers in that neighborhood show the question not so very difficult of solution. Having planted a few acres of poor land they found it does not require many years to grow profitable timber, and that if its culture were properly understood there is little occasion to offer any inducement to plant beyond the self interest involved in itself, just as there is in any other business pursuit. The man who plants an orchard does not expect to get any return until it is ten or fifteen years old. He knows that if he wants to sell his farm before the trees bear fruit the statement on the sale bills that it contains "an orchard of fruit trees just coming into bearing," will help the bidding wonderfully, and it would be the same with trees if the timber question were properly understood. These parties state that a piece of woodland properly planted will come into use as quickly as an apple orchard will, and a farm of 100 acres that had a few acres of young forest would bring far more than the additional cost of planting, should the farmer be forced to sell before the timber matured All this implies that it be properly located.

It would neither be prudent nor profitable to plant where a whole acre of timber could be bought for a few dollars any more than it would be wise to plant apple trees the fruit of which nobody cared to buy. There is, however, no doubt that in fifteen or twenty years, over a large district of our Province, timber will be scarce and lumber high priced, and that those who plant now will be well rewarded though the trees be not large enough for saw logs then, yet the little plantation would come well into use for fuel and other purposes.

Every one who owns a farm should look about him and see how the timber prospect is, and, if he sees a probable scarcity in the market or in his wood shed, plant a few acres to supply the deficiency

NAILS —The market as a whole does not present many new features of an interesting character. Demand fluctuates somewhat both as to the source from whence it comes and the amount of stock required to meet it, but takes quite as full total quantity as before and some of the trade think the outward movement is increasing. On the general range, prices stand about as before and are steady.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $2.90@3; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg, $3.25@3 35; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg, $3.50@3 60; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3 75@3 85; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4 50@4 60; 3d, fine, per keg, $5.25@5.35; 2d, per keg, $5 25@5 35.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3 25@3 45 Floor, Casing and Box, $3 75@4.25 Finishing, $4@4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

1½ inch, $5.50@5,60; 1¾ inch, $5.25@5.35; 2 inch, $

@5.10; 2¼@2¾ inch, $4.75@4.85; 3 inch and longer, $4.50@4.65.

PAINTS AND OILS.—Business does not greatly improve, and the demand in the main still comes from what may be considered regular sources, and covers simply an ordinary selection of stock. Small additions, however, are noticeable on orders occasionally, and the tendency is toward a still larger and more general movement as spring approaches. For pretty much all goods prices are quite steady, and on white leads there is an advancing tendency stimulated by the high cost of material in the main, though a somewhat increased show of anxiety among buyers naturally lends additional influence. Linseed oil in about the usual demand, with stocks under pretty good control and holders firm in their views at some advance in the line of valuations. We quote at about 57@58c for City and 62@63c for Calcutta from first hands.

PITCH.—A slow demand from regular sources and no unusual features on the market since our last. Offerings fair at about former rates. We quote at $2 @2.15 per bbl. for city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—Supplies have been under very fair control, and holders generally refrained from offering with freedom. The demand, however, was not over active in any case, and buyers refrained from handling stock much in excess of early wants. The home call has come almost entirely from local sources. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 47@48c per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—About the ordinary inquiry current with the general tone of the market steady on jobbing parcels and holders unwilling to offer except upon a basis of former rates. The supply is comparatively full, and this checks buoyant tendencies. We quote $2 25@2.37 for Newberne and Washington and $2 25@2 50 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

Massachusetts, as usual, is moving in the right direction. A bill is now pending before its legislature for relieving mortgages from taxation. Let New York now follow this example. We gave ample and cogent reasons for the abolition of the tax on mortgages in a recent issue of THE RECORD. It is time that the veil be lifted from the eyes of those who, while professedly favoring the lessening of taxation, are not able to see wherein lies the true source of wealth and prosperity for our state.

It may interest the present generation, who notice the demands now before the legislature for charters on the part of new water companies, that the city of New York before the Croton water was introduced was supplied with water by the Manhattan Water Company. This company, under its charter, had banking privileges and when the Croton was introduced, it took advantage of these clauses in its charter and went into the banking business. Hence, the Manhattan Company, now one of the best financial institutions in Wall street, which knew how to judiciously control a bank, even after it had watered all of its previous operations.

RENTS AS INCOMES.

Rents are the profits or rather the income an owner receives for disposing of his property, which, in this instance, is real estate. A merchant who disposes of a lot of dry goods even should he charge five per cent. beyond the actual market rate, is not subject to a tithe of the abuse the landlord receives when he talks of raising his rents. He parts with his property, be it for one or two years, as fully and completely as the merchant who sells his goods. True, he recovers possession of the same after the expiration of the lease, but cannot the merchant who sells his case of denims and ducks or hogshead of molasses, replace the property he disposes of much quicker than the landlord, who, as everybody knows cannot duplicate his lot say on Thirty-fourth street or his building on Broadway? This being the case, and taking into consideration the total amount of expenditures an owner of real estate has while he is holding it, compared to the merchant who simply pays his rent and his clerk hire, why this outcry we hear of occasionally against landlords, when they raise rents? In our review of the rent market, as published last week, we showed how one-quarter of certain incomes from real estate goes towards maintaining our city government. Do groceries, dry goods, fancy goods, boots and shoes and other lines of trades pay such a direct tax? We may be told they pay it indirectly in the shape of high rents. So be it, but when the balance sheet is drawn at the end of the year it will be readily found that notwithstanding their professed indirect payment of this tax, the disposal of these commodities leaves a much larger margin of profit than the renting of real property. It is about time that in an intelligent community like this, where every citizen, if he so desires can become the owner of the soil, there should be an end to this annual outcry against the landlords.

WHY NOT AMERICAN SHIPS AND COMMERCE.

What an addition it would be to the wealth and importance of the metropolis, if the United States once more disputed the sovereignty of the seas with Great Britain. The passage of a wise bill by Congress for the encouragement of our steam marine, would create a profitable mercantile interest in this city, which would add largely to the capital invested here, and which would, in time, greatly increase the value of real estate.

Look at the facts, as shown by the following table:

	Tonnage of Shipping.	Foreign Commerce.
1860.....	2,379,396	$667,192,000
1880.....	1,314,402	1,503,593,300

In other words, in twenty years the tonnage of our merchant marine has declined 45 per cent., while the value of our merchandise has increased during that period 125 per cent.

How are we to restore our commerce?

Senator Beck says, let us repeal our absurd navigation laws, and allow the merchant to purchase Clyde built ships, or wherever he can get them cheapest. But Senator Blaine objects to this proposition. Let us he says, subsidize steamship lines, as England, Germany and France have done, and that would not only help our commerce, but our manufactures and ship building interests as well.

Why not adopt both plans? We want these ships immediately. The money is available, and we should secure our profit upon the transport of our own productions. Why not, then, permit the free purchase of foreign ships, to sail under the American flag, for one year, and at the same time offer a generous subvention to American steamship lines carrying the mails. The fact that the navigation laws would again be reimposed at the end of the year, would give an assurance to the ship building interests that they would have an abundance of work for years to come. For, even if they constructed no vessels for five or six years, the repairs upon the ships purchased from abroad would give them profitable occupation. Ships wear out rapidly and require frequent repairs. The liberty to purchase vessels abroad for a year would, in that time, give us a fleet second to none in the world, save that of Great Britain alone. Once more would the American flag be seen upon every sea and the profits from carrying American products, which are now monopolized by foreign merchants, would naturally find their way into the pockets of our own capitalists. Why will not some member from New York, or one of the sea-board cities, so largely interested, try to bring about a combination of the two schemes for reviving our commerce, free ships and generous payments for ocean mail service.

THE PLUMBER'S BILL.

It is a mistake to presume that the bill affecting plumbers, pending before the legislature, is disapproved of by a majority of the trade. The very contrary is the fact. The only complaint is that the bill does not go far enough. The very best plumbers are delighted at the idea that a more strict supervision is to be kept over their business, but they claim that the mere registry of names at the Health Board does not answer present requirements. It should be enacted along with the bill now pending, that a board of experts be ordered to examine all applicants for a license now granted to any one calling for same at the Department of Public Works. Not every one capable of soldering a pipe, or stopping a leak, is worthy of receiving a license, and knowledge required from plumbers, considering the labors entrusted to them, is a mere bagatelle when compared to the danger that may result from defective work. If our Health Board be at all what it is said to be, there ought to be no difficulty in causing it to control the appointment of and exact superior work from all plumbers permitted to hang out their shingle in this city.

THE RAID ON SHANTIES AND ITS RESULTS.

Our readers must have noticed in the market reports of THE RECORD during the past two weeks that bona fide sales of lots have been made to builders and capitalists on the West Side, and that these lots are to be immediately improved. We merely allude now to the sale of Seventy-third street lots, between Ninth and Tenth avenues, by the son of the late Fernando Wood, and the sale of eight lots by Mr. Higgins in the same street, all of which will be improved at once in order to bring into prominence the causes which led to these purchases. These sales were made only after the shanties in this vicinity had been removed. A year ago there were at least a dozen shanties in this identical region. Mr. Rhoades, President of the Greenwich Savings Bank and executor of an estate owning eight lots on the southwest corner of Ninth avenue and Seventy-third street, cleared them all off during the past year. True, he thereby relinquished quite a nice little income, but the effect of it was that the value of his lots has been enhanced and that the sales above alluded to were more easily effected. On the south side of Seventy-third street, 150 feet west of Ninth avenue, an establishment glorying in the killing of pigs was under full sway only a few months ago. Owing to the concentration of action on the part of lot owners the pig killer has been induced to occupy more congenial quarters at Astoria. There now he can be found by any one desiring to favor his hoggish business, but the lots vacated by him on our West Side, present, even to-day, a picture far more attractive than they did a year ago. Of course, it need not be stated that the east side of Ninth avenue, between Seventieth and Seventy-third street, has been pretty well cleared by Mr. Edward Clarke, whose interests in that section are well known, but all these changes and the practical results emanating therefrom show what can be done by determined action on the part of lot owners. There are yet some shanties, it is true, in the neighborhood of Eighty-fifth street, but we are assured that these also are to be removed during the early spring.

CO-OPERATIVE BUILDINGS.

These promise to meet a great want in this city. The idea is simply that people shall be able to own apartments as securely and entirely as they can now own a house, at a very much lower price. The plan is already working with satisfactory results in Glasgow and other cities in the North of Great Britain, where the people are especially alive to the advantages of co-operation.

We are largely indebted to Messrs. Pugin & Walter, of 68 Wall street, and Victoria street, London, for its introduction in New York. These gentlemen were instructed some time ago to make designs for a similar building, on a very large scale, in which Lord Portman was interested—the project was laid aside owing to a want of harmony among the members—but it was suggested to them that something of the kind was needed in New York.

Mr. Pugin's reputation and talent, inherited from his distinguished father, the late Augustus Welby Pugin, the reviver of Gothic architecture, is sufficient guarantee that any work undertaken by them will be of sound construction and able to bear the closest inspection of the Building Department and insurance companies. Those persons interested in the scheme should pay particular attention to these points—for, putting aside the question of safety from a business point of view, their neglect would prove an obstacle in arranging an easy mortgage and insurance—to say nothing of the annoyance and expense occasioned by cracked walls, falling plaster, broken pipes, and sunken floors.

We have seen a large building now being erected on a fashionable up-town street, owned by several people, where all these annoyances must surely occur for want of brick carrying walls and a wise use of iron beams. Other buildings of similar construction will not unlikely be advanced by speculative architects and builders—to tempt people having no knowledge of such matters, by low prices and fair promises, to an investment which they must ultimately regret.

The three necessities for a successful co-operative building are a first-class architect, a first-class builder, and last, but not least, a first-class lawyer—for although matters may run smoothly for some time, it is necessary that all possible legal difficulties should be guarded against and understood so far as legal knowledge and foresight can suggest.

Messrs. Pugin & Walter are advocating none too soon the adoption of the English house arrangement, and insist that the bath-rooms and closets should be separated from each other, that the plumbing work should all be in sight, and not buried in the walls, and recommend that standing wash places should be dispensed with. All these are steps in the right direction—much needed, as many a New York family knows to its cost. Such a course will, in addition to effecting a great saving in the first outlay, considerably reduce the yearly running expenses.

ABOUT MINING.

The Father de Smet has passed into the hands of Mr. Haggan, the owner of Ontario, Homestake, Deadwood, Terra and the other great Black Hill properties. Judged by his past record, Father de Smet ought now to be a purchase for a long turn. The people who had control of this magnificent mine managed to play "roots" with the property. Archie Borland was assisted, innocently, of course, by the agency of the Bank of California, to exploit many New Yorkers who paid $20 a share for certificates which were afterwards quoted at $5 a share. It is announced in San Francisco that the firm of Haggan & Tevis have dissolved, not because of any disagreement by the way, but Mr. Haggan wishes to devote his interests to mining, while Tevis makes his money in politics, the law and the express business. Hagan is a Greek by birth, and is one of the richest men in the world.

We hear conflicting reports about Bull Domingo. The officers here say everything is all right, that the mine is improving; but a private visitor informs us that the ore runs lean and that, as at present worked, the mine barely pays expenses.

Silver Cliff has taken a jump this week, apparently on merit. The stock of this company ought to be in the teens before the close of this year.

The reports from all the Leadville mines are good. Chrysolite and Iron Silver promises to reach higher figures.

Look out for a boom in the Bodie stocks before summer comes. The shares of many of the mines in this district will be quoted at much higher figures.

The Green Mountain stocks are all better. So far, the management of Green Mountain, Cherokee, Gold Stripe and Rising Sun has been admirable. The stocks have been wisely manipulated, but one is suspicious that the time may come when the confidence begotten by this good management may be abused.

The Mining Board has determined to limit its membership to 500, and in order to complete that number, to sell 28 shares for $2,000 each. With this money and the $50,000 now on hand, it talks of putting up a fine building of its own. It would be much wiser to secure permanent quarters in the new Stock Exchange building. On Thursday $1,700 was bid for a seat. A little over two years ago they sold for $50.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT STATISTICS.

Notwithstanding the reduced force at the command of the present Superintendent of buildings it is apparent by the following schedule that the violations, of the building law will grow beautifully less as the new department becomes older, and that the number of complaints, directly attended to by the officials of this newly created bureau, become larger year after year. The following is a schedule showing the actual work performed by the building department under the present administration of Mr. Esterbrook.

STREET AND PARK IMPROVEMENTS NEEDED.

In view of the renewed interest in New York real estate and the disposition on the part of builders to largely increase the number of buildings to be erected during the coming year, it is to be hoped that the authorities will see to it that our public parks are improved and that streets, especially on the West Side, will be open for settlement. It is a pity that these needed improvements did not take place during the hard times, when the price of labor and material was low. Had this been done, the improvements could have been commenced at once and the work and money, instead of being expended upon making improvements at a high cost, could have been put into the construction of needed residences. We hope before the close of this year, that the streets leading from the Central Park to the North River will be opened, sewered, graded and curbed. The work on Mount Morris should also be taken in hand and that beautiful spot made available for the large population in its neighborhood. With the exception of the east of the Central Park, there is no part of the city which has been so greatly improved as the vicinity of Mount Morris. New houses are going up every day and soon all the neighborhood will be covered with substantial and, in many cases, elegant residences. The legislative provision for spending this year $150,000 for the improvement of Morningside Park will doubtless make a great change in its immediate locality. There will be no building on the heights above or on the streets below that park until the work on the park itself is well under way. There is a good deal of building and quite a settlement in the neighborhood of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street depot of the Metropolitan road, but the tendency of the building is towards the higher numbered streets, rather than backwards down to the Central Park. Were the improvements on Morningside and Mount Morris parks well under way, there would be considerable building west from Fifth avenue and south from One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, so as soon to cover the plain north of Central Park with elegant buildings.

We hope the Mayor, Aldermen, Department of Public Works, and our citizens generally, will do all they can to get our streets ready for building and our new parks ready for use. Nor should the region divided by the Harlem River be overlooked. The World's Fair will make that locality known everywhere and we should get ready for the myriads of people, from all parts of the earth, who will use our up-town streets. Indeed, work ought soon to be commenced on the fifty acres known as Highbridge Park. It is a beautiful spot, and a few thousand dollars spent this year would get it ready for the hundreds of thousands who would make use of it when the great exhibition is under way. If the fair is to be held in 1883, it is quite time we began to set our house in order. Indeed, quite apart from the fair, a great number of projected new buildings should induce our Common Council to authorize the opening and improving of every up-town street as soon as the taxpayers ask for it.

Chesapeake & Ohio of all issues are said to be good to buy. Fisk & Hatch have made a statement, by the way, about Central Pacific, which is a much better one than the showing of Auditor French. The fact that French's letter appeared in Gould's personal organ, the World, shows that Vanderbilt and he are still working together. For Vanderbilt, of course, intends to get Central Pacific as cheaply as possible, for, to make his transatlantic route complete, the Central Pacific is an indispensable link.

THE EAST AND WEST SIDE.

THE QUESTION OF INTERCOMMUNICATION — IMPORTANT SUGGESTION TO THE WEST SIDE ASSOCIATION.

The following communication has been transmitted to the officers of and will be read at the next meeting of the West Side Association:

NEW YORK, February 12th, 1881.

To The West Side Association:

GENTLEMEN:—I take the liberty, most respectfully, to submit for your consideration a few practical suggestions, with the hope that they may so far meet your approval as to enlist your co-operation and support.

From my daily visits to the West Side, and my experience in connection with improvements there, both at the water front and the interior, I feel justified in calling your attention to the facts and conclusions which follow:

The first, and perhaps the most important matter which suggests itself to me, is the laying out and opening of the Seventy-ninth street transverse road, as a greatly needed thoroughfare, for the transfer of filling and other building material from the East to the West Side.

If this road could be made available for travel, the owners of low ground, adjacant to Seventy-ninth street, could have their lots filled in with good material, free of cost; whereas, now, there are but two roads that can be made tributary to this section—one at Sixty-fifth street and the other at Eighty-fifth street—and the most of the work on the East Side is to be done about the centre. The transportation, in consequence, is rendered so expensive that the great bulk of all the material is attracted to Harlem.

The road in question, is not, to-day, safe for pedestrians; and, of course, for vehicles, trucks or drays, utterly impassable. As almost the only available dumping grounds are on the west side, some channel of communication, adapted to the moving of earth and other building material, from the east to the west side, at moderate cost, should be speedily and permanently provided.

Another topic of considerable importance, to which I desire to invite the attention of the Association, is the scarcity of dock privileges and accommodations. There is only one dock on the wharf at Seventy-ninth street and the North river; next and nearest to that on the south, is at Fifty-seventh street; and on the north, at Manhattan street. At the wharf at Seventy-ninth street the grade is so steep that it costs fifteen per cent. more to transport building material there than to any other point in the city. The wharf itself is so defective in plan, and bungling in construction, as to be entirely unequal to the present demand. The place is so crowded during the business season, that vessels are obliged to remain there for several days; the consequence is that demurrage is required and paid, which is finally levied on the buildings or their owners. In view of this state of facts, I do not hesitate to predict that should there be any unusual activity in building, on the west side, that it would be impossible to supply the material required by the builders within any reasonable time. For the past six weeks it has been literally impossible to transport any building material whatever to this locality.

I am admonished by the length of this communication, that other suggestions having a bearing upon the growth and prosperity of the west side, may very properly be reserved for some future occasion.

I sincerly hope that the facts submitted on two important points, will be effectual in moving the Association, in so large a sense the guardian and protector of West Side interests, to speedy and appropriate action.

Respectfully submitted, by
Very truly yours,
CONTRACTOR.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

Most of the property disposed of during the week at auction was improved, and considerable of it in the eastern section of the city. In every instance, however, fair prices were secured, as will be seen by the detailed list at foot. Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son sold No. 50 Water street, near Coenties slip, for $12,400, and No. 24 Debrosses street, for $5,625. Nos 420 and 422 Grand street were sold by E. H. Ludlow & Co., for $24,000, and No 51 Broome street for $5,675. There was lively bidding for the Greene street houses, Nos. 219 and 220, offered by Mr. Harnett on Thursday, and they were sold respectively for $8,300 and $9,150. The only speculative property of interest offered during the week were some St. Nicholas avenue lots, south of One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, three of which were secured by Wm. C. Lesster, for $2,600 each. The disposal of a single lot on One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, 435 feet west of Fifth avenue, created lively competition. It was knocked down to Mr. Isaac E. Wright, for $5,300.

On Thursday, Mr. Jere Johnson, Jr., held a sale of Brooklyn lots, which was very largely attended, and closely watched, not only by Brooklyn buyers but by New York investors. The sale was considered important, so far as it showed an actually increased interest in that class of Brooklyn property, more so than has been shown for several years. Most of the property was located in the Eighteenth Ward, between Broadway and Wyckoff avenue, and between Myrtle avenue and Magnolia street. Among the people present were also several ladies who bought lots in small quantities. The prices realized were considered very good, and are regarded as the beginning of an upward movement in Brooklyn real estate, which will increase during the spring and summer months, and be accompanied by an activity equal to that of New York. All that was offered by Mr. Johnson was sold, and at the prices which are fully detailed in our annexed list. The success of this sale, it is understood, will induce many holders in Brooklyn to follow the example thus set, and before many weeks have passed there will be announced other large sales of desirable Brooklyn property.

Two very important auction sales are to be held during the coming week, one by Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son, who will offer on Thursday the corner of Fifty-fourth street and Broadway, a locality most desirable for a large apartment house. Investors are already on the lookout for this plot, which is sure to bring in a handsome return, and some lively bidding may be expected.

The Messrs Muller will sell, also on Thursday, valuable property on the corner of Bowery and Pell street, two brick buildings on Canal street, near Centre street, and also three lots on Forty-first street, west of Seventh avenue

Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. will offer on the following day No. 35 Wall street, 28.11x116, with lot in rear of the Mechanics' National Bank, 37x40; Nos. 13 and 15 Broad street, 50 2x71, with a five-story building covering the entire plot of ground, and adjoining the Wall street premises in the rear, will also be sold. No better investments than these above named parcels have been offered this season at auction.

We call the attention of investors to the eligible property offered at private sale, in another column, by Mr. A. F. Holly, of 5½ Pine street. The apartment house, known as the Lexington, on the northwest corner of Third avenue and Forty-ninth street, is specially worthy of note in this connection. It is an investment which will pay a handsome return, and the building covers a plot of ground of 100x200. Other properties in Eighth avenue, Tenth avenue, West Thirty-second street and West Forty-ninth street are also offered, for fuller particulars of which we refer our readers to our advertising columns.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

There continues to be a steady demand for centrally located business property, and there is no cessation in the closing of transactions in all sorts of real estate returning a moderate income on the investment. There are also reports of sales of numerous vacant lots, especially in Harlem, but brokers up there are unwilling to give full details of their sales.

The report printed last week that Mr. Jonas Clark had sold his nine lots on the northeast corner of Seventy-second street and Fifth avenue appears to be confirmed. The price realized for the same is said to be about $425,000.

Again, Mr. John Jacob Astor has purchased another parcel of downtown property. This time it is No. 5 Pine street, having a frontage of 21.3 feet, which Mr. R. V. Harnett has sold at private contract to Mr. Astor for $83,000. This is in the rear of the Wall street buildings recently acquired by Mr. Astor, but it appears to be definitely settled now that neither the Wall nor the Pine street structures will be demolished for the present, the purchaser preferring to await events before making any radical changes.

Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. have sold at private contract during the past week No. 623 Broadway, 34.2 x200, for $124,000; also No. 30 East Thirty-seventh street, southwest corner of Madison avenue, 27.8x95, for $100,000; also No. 256 Madison avenue, 24.6x95 feet, for $65,000, and No. 77 John street, 25x100 feet, for $30,000.

Other transactions in Broadway property are also reported on the street—No. 688 in that thoroughfare, 27.3x130 to alley in rear, with three-story brick museum building, has been sold by Mr. Leonard J. Carpenter to L. Levenson & Co. for $55,000, all cash.

Mr. D. D. Orrell has effected a ground lease on Mr. P. T. Barnum's property, northeast corner of Broadway and Houston street, for twenty-one years at $25,000 net, with two renewals. The lessees will erect two iron front stores on the plot, which is 109.3 on Broadway, 95.7 on Crosby street and 197 on Houston street. Negotiations for a lease of the northwest corner of Broadway and Houston street are also in progress.

It was reported during the week that the northeast corner of Fifty-sixth street and Broadway had been sold with a builder's loan, but Mr. John McClave informs us that Mr. Granis, the owner, has withdrawn the lots after having been offered $175,000 for the same.

Among other Broadway leases recorded during the week is that of the southeast corner of Great Jones street, 29x130, by E. & F. Prime, to the East River National Bank, for twenty years, at $6,000 per annum.

Messrs. Oppenheimer & Metzger have purchased during the week four lots on the north side of Eighty-first street, 150 feet east of Fourth avenue, for $5,500 each, and resold them with a builders' loan at $6,500 each.

The Lenox family have during the past week declined the offer of one million of dollars for the block of land between Madison and Fifth avenues, Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets.

Five lots on the south side of Fifty-eighth street, 200 feet east of Tenth avenue, have been sold at private contract by John G. Hyatt to T. G. Smith, for $30,000.

Mr. J. Romaine Brown has sold at private contract seven lots on the west side of New avenue (between Eighth and Ninth), between One Hundred and Second and One Hundred and Third streets, for $4,500 each, to a Philadelphia capitalist; also two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, between St. Nicholas and Tenth avenues, to Miss Morris for $4,500 each, and three and a half lots on the south side of One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, between St. Nicholas and Tenth, to Mr. Livingston at $2,500 each.

Mr. Franklin Lord has purchased five houses (flats) on One Hundred and Thirtieth street, between Fourth and Madison avenues, for $55,800.

Mr. Jesse Powers has sold his house, on the southeast corner of Madison avenue and One Hundred and Twentieth street, 19.6x55x100, to Dr. White for $23,000.

Four lots on the north side of Seventy-third street 150 west of Second avenue, have been sold by Lambert S. Quackenbush to Charles A. Buddensick, for $13,800. Five more on the same street, 250 west of Second avenue, have been sold to the same purchaser by Henry Markus, for $17,000.

James H. Romer, of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, has sold six lots on One Hundred and Thirtieth to One Hundred and Thirty-first street, three on each street, also three lots on south side of One Hundred and Thirtieth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, nine lots in all, for $36,000 cash, to Jacob Weil. Mr. Romer also sold the Oradell flat, north side One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, 125 feet west Sixth avenue, 25x50x100, for $26,000, to Julius Van Meerbacke.

Tobias & Co. have sold four lots, 25x100 each, on One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, south side, 250 east of Eighth avenue, for $9,000.

Vernon K. Stevenson, Jr., has sold at private contract, No. 117 East Thirty seventh street for $32,000; also the four-story high stoop brown stone house No. 620 Fifth avenue, 25x60x100, for $50,000, to Mr. Theo. W. Myers.

Other houses have been sold as follows: No. 306 East Eightieth street, a four-story brick flat, 20 feet front, by L. J. Carpenter, for $12,500, to Thomas Puttie; No. 340 West Thirty-third street, three story English basement, 20x50x98, by Hulbert Peck to Hugh Kelly, for $10,000; No. 29 West Forty-ninth street, 22x100.6, by Lottimer & Barclay to Mr. Arthur, for $25,000.

Mr. J. Edgar Leaycraft has sold at private contract, No. 140 West Forty-sixth street, for $14,000, and No. 422 West Forty-third street, at $8,000.

Isaac Honig has sold at private contract two four-story brown stone flats, Nos. 425 and 427 West Fifty-seventh street, fronting 40 feet on the street, for $45,000.

S. T. Meyer & Sons have sold eighty lots, known as the Adriatic Hotel property, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, for $37,500, to Mr. Kearny, of Franklin, N. J.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—The market remains substantially the same as during the past two or three weeks. Wholesale operations are kept at a standstill by the limited amount of stock available, and the impossibility of communicating with the points of supply, and no relief can be expected until the weather moderates sufficiently to carry off the ice now impeding navigation. The cargo of Long Islands is understood to have been sold, with no information given as to price, but we are told that the demurrage charges were very heavy and must materially reduce the return to the seller. It now transpires that a barge load of Haverstraws remains in hand, for which something over $10 per M. is asked, with buyers unwilling to submit. In fact, it is evident that at the rates asked, consumers are not at all anxious to handle brick, and the most imperative necessity alone induces demand, as it is expected that as soon as vessels can resume their trips cost of brick must recede somewhat. The accumulations under control of builders, and the supply in yard and on pier held by dealers is undergoing a steady shrinkage to meet current consumption, and most of the sales made from second hands are at about $11 per M, delivered within any reasonable distance. From primary points there has been nothing of special interest received, except that many manufacturers are anxiously awaiting the time when it will be possible to get some of their stocks upon the market. Prospects for a good spring trade continue flattering.

CEMENT.—For Rosendale the demand is still reported good, and the market firm. The general asking rate remains at $1.25 per bbl., and some holders positively refuse to shade this figure, but it is understood a portion of the stock can be reached 5@10c. per bbl. less under special conditions. In the finer grades business also shows well. American Portland has a full call at extreme figures for some time ruling, and the agents for "Saylor's" informs us that they have this week placed one contract for 7,000 bbls. Pittsburg delivery. The imported stock commences to harden somewhat in value. Quite a number of engagements have already been made, the demand continues good, and with increasing ocean freight charges importers are fortified in their confidence and unwilling to negotiate except at some advance.

HARDWARE.—A fair demand for the ordinary selections of stock continues, but not enough to create any great amount of animation or to alter the tone and character of the market. Dealers generally are cheerful over the prospects of the future, and look for a good, full expansion of orders when trade once fairly sets in. Indeed, some already report quite a number of memorandums already on file, and expect to commence filling them as soon as transportation can be depended upon with any degree of certainty. As a rule, the effort is to keep prices about steady, but in some cases irregularity continues to be manifested. Since our last no important changes in lists or discounts have been made public.

LATH.—Just about the same conditions prevail on this market as at the date of our last report. Up to the present writing no fresh stock has come to hand upon which to open negotiations, and values received no test, leaving the nominal figure at $2 00 per M. Some receivers think they will be enabled to exceed this when offerings can again be made, but others, for some reason, do not speak quite so confidently, and suggest nothing better than the maintenance of ruling quotations. Not many buyers have appeared, owing possibly to the absence of supplies upon which to negotiate, but as quite a fair distribution has been made to consumers, it is reasonable to suppose that the accumulations of some dealers must be sufficiently reduced to need replenishing.

LIME.—Demand has continued good and the supply small, with the advantage naturally still in sellers' favor. Indeed, we learn that an offering of Rockland has been placed at $1.00 per bbl. for common, with finishing valued at a corresponding advance, though none of the latter actually selling from first hands, leaves the rate a trifle nominal. State stock also tends upward, and generally the feeling is strong, with receivers confident of a good spring trade.

LUMBER.—Between a slightly increased home call, accompanied by evidences that many buyers stand off simply because they are uncertain regarding deliveries, and also a good demand from exporters, the market develops fairly cheerful features. Indeed, the majority of the Trade speak very hopefully of the outlook, and if all expectations and predictions are realized there is a first rate business ahead. Preparations now making if carried out, will require as liberal amount of stock, and agents, receivers and sellers generally, while on the alert for orders, and also naturally competing somewhat, entertain too much confidence in the market to take action calculated to materially weaken their position. Accumulations commence to dwindle and break up, and with the exception of such stock as may come in coastwise, the additions cannot amount to much for a considerable time ahead. The interior reports come to hand in strong and hopeful form, and the belief in a good market during the incoming season is evidently very generally entertained.

Spruce meets with some demand for both prompt and distant delivery, but there is no excitement or undue anxiety on the part of buyers, and the market fails to receive a decided stimulus. Indeed, so far as can be judged from the irregular character of operations natural at this season there is a tendency to weaken somewhat, and receivers who have been on the market to place goods talk less confidently. The indications of a full consumption continue, but the demand develops slowly and will hardly offset the first pressure of receipts upon the new shipments from the Eastward. Quotations as named range from $15.00 up to $17.50 for randoms, and thence up to about $20 00 for specials, with extra difficult held higher. Quite a number of cargoes of random are said to be afloat for this market.

White pine remains in a pretty firm position, and holders express much confidence over the outlook. Available stocks have been greatly reduced, additions cannot be made except at much trouble and expense, and the demand, as a whole, is promising. Some exporters hold off at the moment as the delay in loading previous purchases gives them enough to attend to but foreign orders are in a general way quite dull, and buyers submitting to former rates readily. The home demand fluctuates somewhat, but still keeps up to a pretty full aggregate, and, it is thought, must continue. One or two manufacturers who generally draw their entire supplies direct from primary points, have become customers for a portion of the stock here, owing to the exhaustion of their own accumulation and the great difficulty and extreme cost attendent upon moving anything forward from the interior. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $23@25 for South America do.; $15.50@16.50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow pine continues somewhat in sellers favor, but more particularly on specials. The mills now have a fair supply of logs and are catching up on back orders to some extent, but are by no means prepared to enter upon fresh engagements with freedom, and buyers at all anxious or determined must bid high in order to secure accommodation. On random, offering of either old accumulation or current arrival the tone is unsettled, but inclined to a little weakness, especially on boards. We quote random cargoes at about $23 50@25 per M.; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do.; and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M. for rough, and $19@20 for dressed.

Hardwoods find a demand equal to the current offering, with evidences that a larger supply could be disposed of without difficulty. On prices the tone is very firm, and in some cases an advance asked. The winter's cutting will be large, but at all primary points the tone is strong and confident. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do.; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do. culls, $18@20 do.; cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch. $25@27.50, and do. inch, $43@85 do.; hickory, $35@45 do., for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

Yard business has been as active as the facilities for delivery of goods would permit, and on all lines of stock a steady, uniform range of values is preserved.

From among the lumber charters and engagements receently reported, we select the following:

An Am barque, 400 M lumber, from Portland to San Nicholas (River Plate), $14 50 net; a Br ship, 999 tons, from Doboy to the United Kingdom, hewn timber, 34s per load; a Br brig, 124 tons, hence to Point-a Petre, general cargo, 60c per bbl. and lumber on deck, $6; a schr, 257 tons, from Pensacola to Port Spain, lumber, $9; a schr, 231 tons, hence to Sagua, general cargo, 60c per bbl, and lumber on deck, $4; an Am brig, 424 tons, hence to Havana, white pine umber, $4 75; a schr, 116 tons, from Portland to New York, lumber, $3; a schr, 300 M hard pine lumber, from Savannah to Boston, $7; a schr, 250 M lumber, from King's Ferry to New York, $7 25; a schr, 170 M lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $8; a schr, 250 M lumber, from Apalachicocla to Providence, $9; a schr, 150 M lumber, from Savannah to New York, $6; a schr, 285 M lumber, from Brunswick to New York, $6 25; a schr, 250 M lumber, from Brunswick to Boston, $7.65; a barque, 290 M lumber and timber, from Darien to Philadelphia, $6 and $7.

GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

THE WEST.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

LUMBERMAN'S GAZETTE.

The good feeling which has been noted as prevailing in this market, continues, and the demand for lumber is active. A good deal of stock is changing hands from time to time, and at full prices. When the stock desired cannot be found on dock, orders for cutting are placed. The amount of lumber disposed of since the close of navigation is unusually large, yet the inquiry does not diminish. Sales are noted of 2,000,000 feet at $13 straight, and other amounts at $7, $14 and $35, and $6 50, $13 and $30. Quite an amount of stock is held at $14 straight, holders declining to make concessions

A good business is expected by the lumber craft the coming season of navigation, and quite a number of barges have changed hands, and a considerable tonnage added. Floating property is considered a good thing to have. It is too early yet to prognosticate regarding the rates of freight, but they are expected to hold up pretty well.

Logging operations are going forward still under favorable conditions, and the intentions of manufacturers, regarding the amount of stock they desire, are being well met.

There is no reason for doubting that the year 1881 will be one of great prosperity in the lumber trade.

The Chicago market by the Northwestern Lumberman is as follows:

Chicago as a lumber market has begun the year in a way to do herself credit. She has succeeded in getting rid of a quantity of lumber, during the first six weeks of it, that considerably exceeds the amount handled during the corresponding time in any other year in her history. All the dealers have been busy, and the Lumberman is very glad to be able to say that they are all busy yet, or at least as busy as they can be while the present spell of bad weather lasts. The movement of lumber to the country is retarded by the trouble met with in obtaining cars, but we are assured by the dealers that orders were never, at this time in the year, more plentiful. Country dealers evidently want lumber, and that such is the case is regarded by those that sell it to them as pretty good proof that there is a vigorous demand for it among the men that buy it to use. Such conditions naturally tend to make the operators happy, and as a matter of fact a more cheerful and better satisfied set of men than these same Chicago dealers it would be impossible to find in the whole length and breadth of the lumber trade.

There is apparently only one thing to make them unhappy. Their assortments are in bad shape, and many times they find it impossible to fill the gaps satisfactorily from their neighbor's yards. The scarcity of dry 12 foot boards, small timber of many sizes, and standard A shingles, increases every day, and it is altogether likely that before long they will be entirely out of the reach of such buyers as will only pay the quoted prices. Yards that have them now dislike to part with any of their small supply at the prices named in the lists. Lumber of all kinds, in fact, is regarded as exceedingly good property, and the trade shows very little desire to force the sale of any of its stock.

Prices are stationary. The lumber dealers, in such formal shape as a resolution, duly voted upon and passed, have affirmed this to be a fact. And if they had not said so in such a public and unmistakable manner, there could be very little doubt about it. A trip through the Twenty-second street and Blue Island avenue district would soon convince a skeptical buyer that, if he wants lumber from Chicago, he must pay Chicago prices, and, more than this, that the actual Chicago prices are very nearly identical with the quoted ones. The Lumberman believes the market to be exceptionally firm for February, and, as far as it is able to judge, the firmness is of an honest, stable character.

The Chicago trade in all respects, barring the absence of good assortments, is in fine condition, and, what is equally good, has a remarkably fine prospect before it. If the present condition of the demand is worth anything as an indication, the present season promises to be among the best that the dealers here have ever had anything to do with. The lumbermen themselves seem to be possessed of a confidence in the spring trade that falls little short of perfection, and, as they spend considerable time, in this comparatively quiet season, in studying the signs by which the future is foreshawdowed, it may fairly be assumed that their judgment in the matter is of some value.

Receipts and shipments from January 1 to and including February 8:

	Receipts.		Shipments.
	Lumber.	Shingles.	Lumber.	Shingles.
1881.....	20,214,000	8,191,000	35,723,000	6,000,000

HARDWOODS.—Scarcity of stocks continually forces a moderate trade. As a rule, a dealer can know exactly what his sales for a given time will be if he can know how much desirable lumber he can get hold of in that time. Whenever a dealer gets such lumber he can step to the telephone and call a customer to at once relieve him of it. From a short distance, some of the yards, owing to the greenness of their piles, bear a close resemblance to pine yards. Lumber in a condition that two years ago would have been rated as green, is now thought to be in a pretty marketable shape. It is a fact everywhere recognized, and until lately respected, that walnut, to be properly seasoned, should be piled a year for every inch in thickness. It would be a sorry hunt for a man to attempt to find in Indiana, Eastern Missouri, or any of the leading markets in the West, 1-inch walnut of superior quality that has been upon the sticks for six months. In fact, a dealer thinks he has got a good thing if he can bring to town a few car loads of good walnut three months from the saw. He does not grudgingly give yard room to its piling, for he knows pretty well that it will not stay with him long. One of our dealers recently offered a man in Indiana $3,700 for fifty trees on his farm which was at the rate of about $40 a thousand, standing, for good, bad and indifferent, but the farmer considered it too little money for his property. A large portion of the walnut in that State is similarly held. Farmers who are independent, financially, are holding on to groves, probably, in a certain degree, to contribute to their satisfaction, though, at the same time they would be unhuman if they did not have an eye to their prospective value. Not many years ago it was the proper thing to cut the trees, haul them into heaps and reduce them to ashes that they might be removed from way and sight. Later, clear headed men bought up lands containing walnut, paid for them with the lumber cut, and now have farms worth from $40 to $50 an acre. This, in many cases, has been done within the past ten years, and to some extent, within five years.

One manufacturer has received a bill of 100,000 feet of cherry from Michigan. This man uses more cherry than any other concern in town, and spends a great deal of money looking it up. Not long ago he was able to obtain it in desirable quantities, but at present advertisements in the proper journals bring no responses even. He is replacing cherry in his work, to some extent, with birch, beech and maple, though the latter he declares one of the most unreliable of woods. We saw some beautiful ebonized work made from maple, and after standing for a few weeks in the wareroom, the panels shrunk so as to leave a white strip clear around. Few woods take a finer ebony finish, but for panels it should be avoided. Beech has been considered of but little use in the manufacture of furniture, except for cheap chairs, bedsteads and table frames, but opinion is beginning to favor it, and it is used in some fine work.

We learn of two other contracts for Michigan cherry, one for 100,000 feet, and the other for 75,000. The latter will be cut mostly thicker than one inch, the experience of that particular yard being, that where one one-inch board is called for, a dozen from one inch and a half to three inches can be sold. One of the contractors assures us that for the lot he secured he paid three prices.

With a single exception the yards complain of a scarcity of cars, and in one instance a carload of oak, which has been within the city limits for more than a week, has not reached the side track leading to the yard to which it is consigned.

In St. Louis, prices are firm, and the demand increasing. In 1880, according to a table in another column, 44,172,214 feet of hardwood lumber and logs were received, and 44,581,721 feet sold. On January 1, 1881, 8,889,719 feet remained on hand, which, of course, comprised a surplus of the preceding year.

The Northwestern Lumberman says:

The cedar post and telegraph pole business, which languished during 1880 for want of adequate supplies, seems likely to be overdone during the coming season, and operators in Wisconsin are shortening their production for fear of a large overstock, in addition to the difficulty experienced from an extraordinary depth of snow. Unless trouble is experienced in obtaining transportation, there is little probability of cedar being in short supply at the distributing points on the chain of lakes during 1881.

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER,
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.

The tremendous storms and intense cold of last week seriously reduced operations in the lumber business. Many of the lines of railway in the Northwest are completely blockaded with snow and will remain so for some days, if not weeks to come. Notwithstanding this fact the volume of trade being done equals that of the corresponding week last year. Chicago is sending out over a million and half per day according to her bogus figures. St. Louis shipped about 600 M per day, while Minneapolis was frozen down to about 100 M per day. The very best of feeling pervades the fraternity who are all looking forward to an enormous trade in the early spring with only moderate stocks on hand to meet the demand. The cold weather interferes with milling operations at the railroad mills of Wisconsin and Minnesota, and some of them are temporarily suspended on that account.

Such progress has been made in logging operations that a large crop is assured, although it is yet too early to predict even a comparative estimate of amount. In some sections of the pineries there is a superabundance of snow, which makes log hauling difficult.

The discussion of prices at Chicago last week resulted in little change, and was undoubtedly intended simply to strengthen some of the "weak sisters," and this result has apparently been accomplished. The manufacturers of Chicago have frequently to resort to such devices to keep the "bears" from making trouble.

FOREIGN.

The following items we obtain from the London Timber Trade Journal:

Several of the London agents have recently been traveling on the coast, but with very little success, and some have returned without securing any orders at all. We think that those have shown a greater appreciation of the situation who have remained at home, content to bide their time, knowing that it is of very little use to force sales at the present juncture.

As there has been some discussion lately about the number of cuts which can be put into deals, we may mention that, passing through the city the other day, we noticed a whole cartload of 3x11 yellow pine about 8-foot lengths, which had just come from one of the London saw mills with 16 cuts in each, nor is there anything extraordinary in this, as 18 and even 20 cuts can readily be done when required.

LIVERPOOL.

The almost unprecedented severity of the weather has had a very marked effect upon the trade, and has in point of fact nearly put a stop to business. This state of matters will in all probability continue until the thaw sets in, so that such orders as are now in hand can be executed. So far as the present state of the docks and quays show there is very little evidence of anything doing, and as the imports of the past week have been confined to two cargoes of pitch pine and one of Petersburg deals, there is a very strongly marked want of life in the trade, which we hope will not be of long duration. The strike amongst the miners in Lancashire is not likely to last much longer from present appearances, and the probability of a coal famine, with which this part of the country was threatened, is becoming more remote every day.

The last auction sales of spruce deals showed a slight advance over previous prices, and the birch also sold better, the competition for both articles being more eager than has been the case for some time past.

The advance in prices may roughly be set down at 2s 6d per standard, and the birch at ½d for small sizes, whilst wood of large diameter brought far more in proportion.

GLASGOW.

The only arrivals to note within the past week are some small parcels of staves, etc., from New York, also 191 logs Austrian wainscot and 107 oak planks. These oak logs and planks have passed into dealers' and consumers' hand.

Public sales of Canadian timber, etc., at Greenock and Glasgow were started rather earlier than usual this year, in the belief that purchases of some importance might be made for the actual necessities or consumption of the trade. The excessive severity of the weather, however, appears to have had a deterring influence, the attendance at the last sale, reported below, not being quite so good. Some departments of outdoor work have been brought meantime to a stand, but this can only be temporarily, and buyers will require to be in the market to be ready for the first open weather. Spruce deals are required here just now, the stock being at a very low point.

This week's mail from Rio Janeiro reports as follows:

Pitch Pine—There have been no arrivals and the market is unchanged at 36$000—39$000 per dozen.

White Pine—No arrivals; market well supplied and quiet at 100 reis per foot.

Swedish Pine—No arrivals.

We quote 33$000—38$000 per dozen.

THE PROVINCES.

A Hamilton paper states that business is already being done in the regulation of freight rates for the ensuing summer. It says charters have already been made to carry 14 cargoes of oak lumber from Canadian ports. Taken altogether, freights will be 20 per cent. higher.

THE EAST.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin says:

There is no new feature to report in Western lumber. The demand is still slack and prices are without material change. Eastern lumber also continues to move slowly, and in the absence of business we leave our quotations unaltered. Clapboards are dull, and we reduce our quotations on spruce.

METALS—COPPER.—Ingot has not been very active, and the major portion of the demand came from regular trade sources and for such parcels as would satisfy the immediate wants of buyers. Stocks, however, were held firmly and sparingly offered, closing at 19½@19⅝c for Lake. Manufactured copper in good average demand, and values held steadily all around. We quote as follows: Brazier's Copper ordinary size over 16 oz per square foot, 28c. per lb; do do do, 16 oz and over 12 oz per square foot, 30c per lb; do do, 10 and 12 oz, per sq foot, 32c per lb; do do, lighter than 10 oz per sq foot, 34c per lb; circles less than 84 inches in diameter, 31c per lb; do 84 inches in diameter and over, 34c per lb; segment and pattern sheets, 31c per lb; locomotive fire box sheets, 28c per lb; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz per sq foot, 26c per lb and Bolt Copper, 28c per lb. IRON—Scotch Pig has not shown much animation, and the current business was confined principally to small odd lots. With the accumulation here under good control, however, and few additions making, importers have continued firm at full former rates in all cases. We still quote at $22@24.50 per ton, according to brand, delivery, &c. American Pig has been contracted for against deliveries to be made during the spring and early summer months, but for immediate movement not many supplies were handled and the market had a dull tone. The uncertainties attending the transportation and deliveries of goods have been largely instrumental in checking business. Offerings, however, were carefully and somewhat indifferently made, and values well maintained throughout. We quote at $25@26 per ton for No. 1; $22@22.50 do. do. for No. 2, and 21@21.50 for forge. Rails have continued to sell with some freedom, and the product of the home mills being about all under engagement for many months ahead, buyers for earlier delivery have found it necessary to secure parcels from abroad. Old rails and scrap iron have shown some irregularity, but, on the whole, the movement was quite full and prices generally well maintained. We quote rails at $46@48 for iron, and $59@62 for steel, according to delivery. Old rails $29@30 per ton; scrap, $29@30. Manufactured iron has ruled quite steadily on pretty much all grades, and, while not unusually active, there has been a very fair amount changing hands from day to day. Supplies are fair and generally well assorted, but it is believed that all will be wanted when spring fairly opens. We quote Common Merchant Bar, ordinary sizes at 2 3@2.5c. from store, and Refined at 2.5@3.5c.; wrought beams at 3c. Fish plates quoted at 2⅝@2¼c.; track bolt and nuts, 3½@3⅝c.; railway spikes, 3c.; tank, 3@3.1c.; angle, 3c.; best flange, 6c.; and domestic sheet on the basis of 3½c. for common Nos. 10@16. Other descriptions at corresponding prices, with 1-10c. less on large lots from cars. LEAD—Domestic Pig has been selling only in small lots, and slowly at that, with not much of positive interest on the general market, except a pretty steady tone to values. We quote 4 2 8@5²⁄₃2c. The manufactures of lead are steady and quoted; Bar, 6c; Pipe 6½c., and sheet, 7c., less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin lined pipe 15c. Block Tin pipe, 40, on same terms. TIN—Pig has been less active, and with the limited demand holders of odd parcels waiting for a further rise became a trifle discouraged, and offered with greater freedom, causing some reaction, the market closing unsettled. We quote 20@20½c. for Australian, 20@20 ½c. for Straits, 20@20½c. for English Refined, 19¾@19⅞c. for do. Common Tin Plates have sold moderately in small lots, as required for immediate consumption, with no important change shown in the value of stock. We quote I C. Charcoal, third cross assortment, $5.75@6.00 for Allaway grade, and $6.12½@6.25 for Melyn grade; I. C. Coke $4.87½@5.00 for B. V. grade; $5.12½@5.25 for Yspitty grade; Charcoal terne $5 12½@5.37½ for Allaway grade, 14x20; $11@11.12½ for do., 20x28; Coke terne, $4.75@4.87½ for Glais grade, 14x20, and $10@10.1-½ for do., 20x28—all in round lots. Spelter has been less active and somewhat easier in tone. Quoted at $5⅝@5⅝ for domestic. Sheet Zinc firm and in fair demand from store, at 7¼@7½c. according to quality and quantity.

NAILS.—Demand fluctuates somewhat, but, on the whole, takes a fair amount of stock for the season and the general market is in very good shape. Supplies are full enough for all wants, but in no case excessive, or likely to be thrown over suddenly, and values appear to have a firm support all around. About an average export trade is noted.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $2 90@3; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg, $3 25@3.35; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg, $3.50@3.60; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3.75@3.85; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4 50@4.60; 3d, fine, per keg, $5.25@5.35; 2d, per keg, $5.25@5.35.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3.25@3 35. Floor, Casing and Box, $3.75@4.25. Finishing, $4@4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

1½ inch, $5.50@5.60; 1¾ inch, $5.25@5.35; 2 inch, $5@5.10; 2½@2¾ inch, $4.75@4.85; 3 inch and longer, $4.50@4.65.

PAINTS AND OILS.—Holders of the supply, as a rule, speak hopefully, and the general tone of the market is about steady. Demand has not as yet developed any unusual volume, indeed, in many cases is a little behind the average, but the conditions of the weather have contributed largely to this result, and when business does fairly open, it is expected that it will be full. Supplies are under good control, and the line of prices well preserved. Leads and zincs, especially, have shown firmness, and of the latter quite a number of good sized parcels sold for future delivery. Linseed oil has not found a very active movement, and, indeed, at times, the market was quite dull. This, however, does not appear to affect the confidence of holders who quite generally demand for all kinds full former rates. We quote at about 57@58c. for City and 62@63c. for Calcutta from first hands.

PITCH.—Business moderately active and in about the usual form, with the market presenting no new points worthy of special notice. Prices appear to be steady in most cases We quote at $2.00@2.15 per bbl. for City, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—Jobbing business moderate and confined in the main to the ordinary run of local orders, with cost a trifle easier. In a wholesale way, the tone unsettled, and at one time appearances were quite weak, but the majority of holders are not much inclined to give way, and stocks are carefully offered. The supply in first hands has increased a trifle. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 46@47½ per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—The market without much change. In a jobbing way holders are distributing their stocks with moderation and securing full rates, but large parcels are not much wanted, and have a somewhat irregular position. The inclination of late, however, has been to hold for a little more money. We quote $2 50@2 75 for Newberne and Washington and $2.62 @2 88 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

HOW TO DEAL WITH THE ELEVATED ROADS.

It is understood that negotiations are pending between the city and state governments and the elevated roads, as to what taxes the latter shall pay the city. The decision of the Court of Appeals has settled the question of the power of the city to tax the line and the tracks as real estate. The proper officers are now at work to fix upon what would be a fair rate, one that would not be irksome to the companies, while doing justice to other tax-payers.

In times past we have criticised unsparingly the speculative methods of some of the projectors and manipulators of the elevated roads. We can afford, therefore, to present a point of view which is not often given to the public, that of an impartial arbiter between the claims of the companies and the demands of the public.

It cannot be denied that our system of steam elevated roads has been an almost unmixed benefit to the city and property of New York. It has rendered our inter-mural travel the pleasantest, swiftest and cheapest known to any city in the world. This no one can gainsay. Our elevated roads have added enormously to the taxable value of New York realty, and as to the matter of damage, where one property holder has been injured, five hundred have been materially benefited.

But, it may be said, the projectors and managers of the elevated roads have made a great deal of money and do not deserve any special consideration.

Well, they deserve all the money they made. The elevated roads were a new thing, and it was a great risk to invest capital in an enterprise so novel. But it must be borne in mind that if Messrs. Field, Garrison, Navarro, Foster and their friends had invested their money in Iron Mountain, Kansas & Texas, Kansas Pacific, Wabash, and a score of other properties which might be mentioned, they would have made ten dollars where they made one dollar in building and managing their system of elevated roads. The past four years have rolled up enormous wealth for men of capital and enterprise who invested wisely.

The city of New York can afford to be generous as well as just to the builders of the elevated roads. Their charter gives them the right to ask 15 cents a ride, but they have never charged more than 10 cents, and they have, on their own motion, increased the commission hours so that any one can ride for 5 cents six hour a day. This is the cheapest railway traveling known to any part of the world.

In view of these facts, why should not the city agree with the elevated roads that in consideration of a reduction of fare to a uniform rate of 5 cents at all hours that the roads should be relieved of all taxation. The companies might be permitted to run extra cars for exclusive customers, in which 10 cents would be charged. Then, to acccommodate out-of-town travel, the elevated roads ought to be permittted extra tracks to accommodate through passengers, and, during the night, freight trains.

It may be that the Comptroller will not take this view of the matter. It is his business to increase the taxes and to collect them. But surely all who are interested in the city's prosperity should see to it that our elevated roads are not so crippled by taxes as to force on them economies which result in discomforts to our citizens. Five cent fares and a night service will be worth more to the mass of the traveling community in this city than the few thousand dollars that can be raised by imposing taxes upon corporations, who regard them as an unfair imposition upon capital which has been used for the benefit of the metropolis.

NEW YORK CITY AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.

"It strikes me now that some movement is necessary to interest this city in the enterprise. Just what is best to do I am at a loss to recommend."

These are the words uttered by General Grant at a meeting of the International Executive Committee held on Wednesday afternoon last, and, with all due respect to the General, we may be allowed to say that the longer he continues to be a resident of this city, he will be still more at a loss what to recommend. New York city takes as yet very little interest in the Exhibition of 1883, simply because it never permits itself to get into a fever of enthusiasm in regard to anything, as its population lives, exists and has its being in the midst of ever-continuing, never-ceasing periods of excitement. It would take more than an ordinary earthquake to get New York interested in anything that is more than two years off. But when all is pre-arranged and the projectors of the Fair require the enthusiasm backed by capital that will carry them on to success, we may safely count for assistance on our enterprising citizens, wherever may be the site selected for the Fair. Until then the ball set in motion right here will be sufficient to keep other states wide-a-wake, and show what a fine opportunity is afforded them for the display of their particular notions and industries, and in the mean time give them for two long years something to talk about in anticipation of an event, which New York city will crown with success, financially and otherwise—whenever the proper time arrives. In the meantime General Grant himself, as chairman of the Executive Committee, will support the demand of a pretty well satiated metropolis, when fully two years beforehand it exclaims, "Let us have peace."

CORPORATIONS AND MONOPOLIES.

There is a disposition in certain quarters to look upon all corporations as monopolies, a mistake that ought particularly to be avoided at a time that an attempt is being made to create agitation on a subject, heretofore little discussed in this section of the country. True, exceedingly wealthy corporations may, by this very accumulation of capital, become for the time being monopolies, but as wealth increases in our midst, so does competition which soon strips such a corporation of the monopoly feature. A country like this, and a city like ours for instance, could never have been developed in so short a time as it has been without the aid of corporations that built the various railways and also our surface roads. Our Third, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth avenues would not be the great arteries of traffic and trade but for the corporations that built the surface roads. We now also see what the Elevated roads are doing for the upper part of the island. All such corporations are the pioneers in enterprises that add to the grandeur of a country or city, and the very nature of such enterprises requires a vast outlay of capital, at the start at least. Somebody must begin the work, and if a single individual cannot do it owing to his want of capital, a group of individuals forming themselves into a corporate body can, owing to the aggregate of capital possessed by them. It is unfair to cry this system down with the hated word of "monopoly." As time progresses other bodies of equal volume and importance can and will form themselves, and competition results as sure as night follows the day. There is another aspect of this question which is frequently overlooked. It is claimed that corporations are the enemies of labor. The very contrary is the fact as abundantly proven for instance by the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics, the very best bureau of the sort we have in this country. The largest mills in New England, the most extensive shoe factories are now-a-days owned by corporations, and the figures as given by said bureau show that though the number of single firms is much larger than that of the corporations, the latter, in the aggregate, employ a much larger number of hands than do the single firms. Even in the Western part of Pennsylvania, where not less than fifteen years ago there were constant collisions between the ironmasters and the hands they employed: there the corporation plan of working is now regarded with favor even by the laborers themselves. In fact these very men have, with the aid of their accumulated savings gone into the corporation business, and of late years quite successfully. True, this success has not been reached without bitter experience, but since they have learned that a man who wields a hammer does not always make a good cashier and vice versa, all these corporations having men at the front just fit for the particular work assigned to them are not only a financial success, but a benefit to the section where they exist.

THE "RACKET" IN WALL STREET.

Well, the blow has come. As we write Wall street is in a state of semi-panic and stocks are off from 3 to 10 points. The speculators, which included the great mass of the outside public, who got in at high figures, look very gloomy. Money is higher than it has been since the panic of '73, and a great number of magnificent schemes may come to grief.

This is primarily a contest between Congress and the National Banks. The latter look upon the scheme of refunding as a species of forced loan from them at lower figures than they think the times warrant. Congress, they say, is hostile to them, for it will not relieve them of the war taxation, while forcing them to take the new loan.

So, to protect themselves, the banks, under the lead of the First National, Secretary Sherman's pet, have deposited some $20,000,000 of greenbacks and gold to withdraw their bonds and contract their circulation. The result has been a blow between the eyes at the prevailing railway share speculation. While the banks may not have cared for anything but their own selfish interest, we judge the general result will be wholesome. The banks, for some time past, have been complaining of the demands made upon them to carry railway shares and bonds. It is understood that in some of these institutions fully two-thirds of their available means were locked up in the active securities of the Stock Exchange.

If the railway speculation gets a set back, it will be a good thing, not only for the country but for the railway interest itself. The country wants more railroads; but it would be much better to take 25 years to complete our railway system, than to attempt to do it in three years. The schemes which have been projected are magnificent, on paper; and, no doubt, at some time in the future the figures and anticipations of the most hopeful promoters will be more than realized. But we were building railroads altogether too fast.

It is a notable circumstance that the present speculation was confined to the stock market. In 1879 every product dealt in in the markets showed an advance in price. Wheat, provisions, cotton, prints, metals, in short everything that was consumed, advanced to very high figures. But this year, outside of the stock market, there has been no speculation. Indeed, many consumable articles sell for less than their true value.

As there is plenty of money in the country, we may now expect that other interests will secure the use of some of the money heretofore employed in railroad speculation. Driven from the stock market, capital will find its profits in the promotion of new enterprises, and in investing in real estate. We have repeatedly told our readers that the time had come to leave the stock market and to purchase realty. We have nothing new to add on that point.

WHO CAN EXPLAIN?

A gentleman who had business at the Sub-Treasury yesterday, was present when Secretary Sherman's notice was posted up that holders of 6 per cent. bonds could receive their money for them with accrued interest, immediately. Realizing the effect of this upon the market, he dashed off at once to his brokers' office in New street, near Wall, and promptly ordered a purchase of his favorite stock. He supposed he was the very first to know the news. But, though the time consumed between the posting of the notice and the execution of his order could not have been more than two minutes, stocks had advanced 2 or 3 points, and he got in at the higher figures, showing that the news was in the Exchange before the notification was posted.

Now, where was the leak? Was it in the telegraph office? Did the information come direct from Secretary Sherman? Did the First National Bank have the news ahead of the street? Can Sub-Treasurer Hillhouse explain?

There is one thing President Garfield's new administration should take immediately in hand. It should so limit the power of the Secretary of the Treasury, that he can no longer be the arbiter of prices. It is monstrous that any one man should have the power, of his own will, to mark prices up or down, presumably to the advantage of himself and his friends.

Frequently have we called attention to the imperative necessity of public improvements being energetically prosecuted before private enterprise can construct the houses so much needed in the upper part of the city. Instead of, however, wasting their energies upon the curbing and guttering of one street, the flagging of another and the paving of a third, would it not be better to make a clean job of a prominent thoroughfare and finish it thoroughly. Take Ninth avenue for instance to One Hundred and Tenth street, where the elevated road is running. Why not take it in hand and pave it? The mud there is about a foot deep and it is anything but pleasant for those compelled to reach the stations to wade through it on their way to and from their homes. These homes, it is true, are not as yet very numerous, but there is a disposition to build more and more in that section of the west side which should be encouraged by the public authorities. Place this avenue at least in good condition and it will add another stimulus to the much needed building up of the west side.

MINING ITEMS.

There has been a tumble in Hibernia. Before this Leadville stock was put on the board, we warned investors and dealers not to touch it. The property is well located and the mine may be a good one; but, as we have repeatedly said in these columns, a good mine is only one factor in the problem of investing in mining shares. Probity in the managers and experience in opening a mine are indispensable. Our objection to Hibernia was that people who figured as its manipulators were the same operators who had exploited the public in other Leadville properties. It is amazing that people will consent to deal in properties handled by notorious rascals. Ever since Hibernia has been put upon the lists, the effort has clearly been to unload the stock on the public.

Is there not danger that some day it will be found there has been an over issue of the shares of some one or more of our numerous mining companies? In stocks which pay dividends there is not much fear of fraudulent issues, and in California the safeguard is made by frequent assessments. For the frequent levying of these charges renders necessary a very perfect system of registry. There has been such an entire absence of conscience in the manipulation of all the mining shares, that an over issue should not be a surprise. True, there is a system of registry, but as there are neither dividends to be paid nor assessments to be levied, the certificates are floating about the street for years without identification. This is a matter which ought to engage the attention of the Governing Committee of the Mining Board.

The group of mines represented by the Green Mountain, Plumas County, California, are exceedingly well handled on the market. The properties seem to be good ones and investors have so far no cause to complain. Every person who has held Green Mountain, Cherokee, Gold Stripe and Rising Sun, has profited largely. The one suspicious circumstance about these properties is that they are "taken care of;" in other words, they are manipulated so as to show but little variation in the quotations. There is much to be said in favor of this policy, but it leaves an impression that perhaps some day this support may be withdrawn and the stocks left to take care of themselves. It would then be charged that the holding up of the price of the stocks was for the purpose of floating them upon an unsuspecting public. The promoters of the Black Hill mines, the Homestake, Deadwood and others have pursued this policy, and their shares command a high degree of confidence among investors. But somehow the suspicion will obtain that the confidence thus created may in time be abused, and that properties may be put on the market at high figures which may turn out to be worthless.

This time last year we warned investors against putting their money in the Father De Smet mine. We said it was a splendid property, which could pay honest dividends for a generation. At that time the Bank of California was selling "a few shares" for $20 each, just to "make a market." We warned investors not to touch the stock because Archie Borland was the manager of the mine. The history of that property up to within a few months past has been most discreditabie. The stock sold below 5, but when it was announced that Mr. Haggan got control of Father De Smet, we advised its purchase. Father De Smet has now paid a dividend, and it is in Mr. Haggan's control. The stock is selling for over 14, and is worth a great deal more money, judged by the past record of all the Haggan properties.

LOCAL RAILROAD CONSOLIDATIONS.

President Garrison and Secretary Navarro of the Metroplitan Elevated Railroad have purchased all right and interest in the New York & Northern and Western & Yonkers railroads, and also the right to build a Yonkers branch, so that the entire line from Yonkers to the Harlem river will be under the control of the Metropolitan Railway. This probably accounts for the recent rise in the price of the Metropolitan Railway stock. The people of Yonkers are sanguine enough to believe that the connection will be made some time during the coming summer, but that does not seem probable. It is also said that the road in Yonkers, instead of passing from Nepperhan avenue, which was to have run down to Getty square, is to pass to North Broadway near Wells avenue, and to continue up between Warburton avenue and Broadway, to a point about midway between the Howe's and Tilden properties. Last week the engineers laid the new route. It is said the right of way will be very costly—$6,000 per hundred feet. Should this extension be built, there will be a station in Uppe as well as in Centre and Lower Yonkers. The fare from the lower end of New York to the upper station is to be 17 cents, but to all the other stations 15 cents. It is also announced that the Newburgh, Dutchess & Connecticut Railroad Company will build a branch from Clove Junction to connect with the New York City & Northern Railway at Peekskill.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

The bulk of the business at the Exchange Salesroom was concentrated in the closing days of the week, when a large amount of property was offered and sold. On Monday Mr. Harnett sold, under foreclosure, five lots on the northeast corner of Madison avenue and Sixtieth street, but the plaintiff, apparently determined to retain them, found but little opposition even among the large number of persons fronting the auctioneer's stand. The corner lot was sold for $26,500, the one adjoining for $18,000, and the rest at still lower figures. On Thursday the Salesroom was crowded with a very large number of buyers, numerous auctioneers being engaged in the disposal of all sorts of property. The northwest corner of Broadway and Fifty-fourth street, being 51.11 feet on Broadway and 92 feet on the street, was sold by Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son for $54,700. The same auctioneers sold the southeast corner of St. Nicholas avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street for $4,950, the adjoining avenue lots for $4,825 each and the street lot for $3,500. Several buildings on Canal street, the Bowery and Pell street were also sold by the same firm at favorable prices.

Yesterday the Salesroom was crowded, in anticipation of a large number of sales announced for the day. Quite a number of capitalists were present, prepared to bid on the Wall and Broad street property advertised by Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. It was stated, however, at the very outset, that this property had been disposed of at private sale, no particulars being furnished fromthe stand. The firm, however, sold several parcels of improved and unimproved property, Mr. Morris B. Baer securing a cheap lot on West Nineteenth street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, for about $6,300, and Mr. A. Lustig securing a plot of land near Inwood, containing about twenty-nine lots, for $380 per lot. It was whispered that, but for General Grant's speech the other evening, these lots would have brought considerable more.

On Thursday next Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son will sell at auction valuable improved real estate on Greene, Thompson, Broome, Norfolk, Fourth, Fifth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, details of which will be found in our advertising columns.

On the following day Mr Harnett will sell a valuable house and lot on East Twenty-sixth street, near First avenue. The same auctioneer announces for the following week a valuable Canal street corner, also property on Seventh avenue, near Thirteenth street.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

Owing to the interruption of the regular business of the week by a legal holiday, and the continued severity of the weather, not so many private sales have been consummated as the brokers had reason to anticipate. Nevertheless, there appears to be no let up in transactions, for which contracts are pending.

When the announcement had been made in the Exchange Salesroom yesterday that No. 35 Wall and 13 and 15 Broad streets, had been disposed of at private sale, there was intense curiosity manifested by many brokers, dealers and investors to ascertain the true inwardness of the sudden sale thus made at private contract. Upon application at the auctioneer's stand very little satisfaction could be obtained, neither was it possible to get the least insight into the transaction upon enquiry at the office of Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. Nevertheless as the day passed by and all the rumors and reports in regard to this transaction had been carefully investigated, it appeared that not only the property announced for yesterday's public sale had been suddenly disposed of at private sale but also the adjoining numbers, Nos. 17, 19 and 21 Broad street, and also No. 55 Exchange place. The truth of the matter is that Mr. D. O Mills representing a mining trust company of which he is a large shareholder at last made up his mind to secure the entire property for a little over $1,250,000. In making his contract for the 35 Wall and Nos 13 and 15 Broad street properties he agreed to pay a little over $600,000, and in purchasing Nos. 17. 19 and 21 Broad street—being 81.3 on Broad street and 100.6 on Exchange place—he agreed to pay about $700,000. Still later in the day it was also reported that Mr. Mills had also secured No. 11 Broad street, but the news reached us at too late an hour to verify it. It should be distinctly understood that the figures here given are not official, that no authentic information in regard to this heavy transaction could be obtained before THE RECORD went to press; but that Mr. D. O. Mills and a syndicate of many capitalists have made up their minds to build a large exchange and rotunda on the premises here indicated, there appears to be no doubt, and when the documents bearing on this subject are all signed, it will be found that there is a great deal more of truth than poetry in this part of our "gossip."

Mr. William P. Seymour has sold, for Mr. George Kemp, two full lots on the west side of Fifth avenue, fifty feet south of Forty-ninth street, to Mr. Wm. P. Draper, for $145,000. These lots are to be immediately improved. He has also sold sixty feet on the north side of Sixty-ninth street, 175 feet east of Fifth avenue, for $70,000.

Mr. J. Bentley Squier has purchased; from Mr. Jacob Campbell four lots on the southeast corner of Madison avenue and Eightieth street, for $92,000. Of these four lots, one fronts on the avenue and three on the street. Mr. Squier intends to improve these lots with the same style of houses built by him in Seventy-ninth street.

Nine lots on the south side of One Hundred and Sixteenth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, have been sold for $50,000, by A. Lustig. It is understood that they were purchased by Siegmund J. Seligman, who has since, it is stated, resold them for $54,000.

Four lots on the east side of the Ninth avenue, near One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, have been sold for $64,000 each, to Mr. Canfield.

Mr. W. J. Barnes has sold at private contract during the week, four lots on the north side of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $30,000 ($7,500 each), and four lots on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, between the same avenues, for $7,000 each.

Two more lots on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, have been sold by another party for $7,500 each

Messrs. Lespinasse & Friedman have sold ten lots on the north side of One Hundredth street, 250 East of Third avenue, for $20,400; also seven lots on the north side of One Hundred and Sixteenth street, 320 feet west of Fifth avenue, for $33,000; also one plot of land 100x350 on the west side of Nagle avenue, for $7,500.

We understand that Messrs. McCafferty & Bulkley have sold their Fifty-third street house, a fine mansion 25x65x100 between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $76,000.

Messrs. Benner & Zeller, have sold three lots on the north side of One Hundred and Third street, 175 feet west of Second avenue, for $10,500, to C. M. Trim, who will immediately erect there three four-story flats The same firm has sold the five-story tenement, No 99 Eldridge street, to H. Frigge, for $8,000.

Messrs. Scott & Meyers, have sold to "Eli Perkins" the three-story high stoop brown stone house 125 East Seventy-fourth street, 17x50x102.2, for $14,500.

Mr. James G. Duff, has sold in Brooklyn, during the past week the house and lot No. 59 McDonough street, for $7,000; also three lots 20x100 on McDonough street, near Marcy avenue, for $5,000.

Mr. William Alsop has purchased the Lord property at Eaton's Neck, Huntington, paying $19,000 therefor. It was once held at $50,000, and $25,000 was loaned upon it. Recently, the mortgagee was compelled to buy it under foreclosure at $6,000.

The Long Beach Hotel has been rented for $40,000 and fifty per cent. of its net profits for the season of 1881, to Richard H. Southgate, of the Windsor Hotel, Montreal.

A building for the Episcopal Charity Home, founded by the late Dr. Muhlenburg, is being erected at St. Johnland, Suffolk County. It is 70 feet square and three stories high. It is to cost $14,000. and is the gift of Cornelius Vanderbilt, son of William H. Vanderbilt.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—Up to the present writing the market has not assumed any very definite shape, but there is a better basis to work upon, and the prospect fair for a little more business next week. A few cargoes have made their appearance from Long Island, Staten Island and New Jersey, but just at a time when the weather was unpropitious for out door work, and hence the demand proved light, with no really fair test given values. About $9 00@9 50 per M., according to quality was talked of, but the majority of buyers did not appear to be very favorably impressed with these figures, and negotiations rather dragged Indeed, before purchases or engagements for general consumption are entered into, it is evident that a lower range of cost will have to be reached, and all intermediate operations based upon the stimulus of actual and positive necessity alone The wants of work now in hand, however, it is claimed by receivers, will require all the brick likely to come within reach until the Hudson River is reopened, and it is further believed that milder weather will so add to the consumption as to largely offset even the pretty full accumulations wintered over at primary points, though, of course, some shading on cost is expected A number of the manufacturers have been writing about a proposed combination, but all independently, and there is evidently, as yet, no organized movement on foot.

GLASS.—There is not much positive animation in either domestic or foreign at the moment, but buyers commence to feel their way, and the promises are cheering. Prices in all cases remain steady.

HARDWARE.—Demand has been quite irregular, especially from interior sources, and, in a great measure, was dependent upon opportunities for securing transportation. All advices at hand, however, indicate that the wants of the country will be full, and as the local consumption is quite likely to require large amounts of stock, dealers consider the outlook as very promising on all standard descriptions of hardware. Some irregularity on prices may still be noted, but, in general, manufacturers and agents preserve a fairly steady tone, and, on pretty much all goods the regular lists and discounts are closely adhered to. Strap and T hinges, however, are an exception, the manufacturers still remaining at loggerheads. The nominal quotation remains at 60 and 10 per cent. discount, but this is high if anything.

LATH.—A larger supply has given the market a better test, and developed all the latent strength claimed for it by holders. Something over a million lath have changed hands, the bulk of the offering at $2.10 per M, and receivers report that they have calls for more, with nothing at the moment handy to meet the demand. Indeed, the selling interest expresses much confidence in the market, and calculates upon its ability to place all cargoes without difficulty, that are likely to come to hand for several weeks, unless present advices of the number afloat for this are very much understated. Distribution is gradually increasing.

LIME.—There is a strong market, with demand for all and even more than received, at full rates, as noted in the advance of last week. Rockland Common continues at $1 per bbl., and arrivals and sales of Lump have fixed the rate at $1.25 per bbl. Many dealers are pretty well cleaned out of stock. The State grades are firm, and quoted at 90c. and $1.15 respectively, for common and finishing.

LUMBER.—Demand does not as a rule improve to any great extent, but some evidences of a gradual growth are to be observed, and in the great majority of cases we find continued expressions of confidence and cheerful expectation over the prospects for the spring trade. Consumption on city account and at nearby dependent points as planned out will require liberal quantities, and a comparatively general assortment, while the foreign trade is calculated upon to take an amount in excess of last season. The latter outlet is open to some doubt, but a great many orders were delayed during the winter by the difficulties experienced in loading vessels, and these as well as the regular demand will have to be filled. On supplies received from coastwise points the tendency of values appears to be rather downward if anything, under the natural reaction from the extreme winter figures, but no unusual depression, while goods drawn from interior sources are pretty well maintained, and, as a rule offered with indifference. The prospects of an immense log crop have in no wise abated.

Spruce does not find much demand of a direct character. Now and then a buyer in a hurry to get a cargo may be found, but inquiry is only for immediate and pressing wants, and nothing is called for against the future except such schedules as from the necessities of proposed work must be cut to order. Dealers, in fact, have a fair stock on hand still, and under hopes of increasing offerings, do not consider that they can lose much by standing off and awaiting developments on the market for randoms. Recent advices from primary points assume stronger form as the mills have accumulated enough orders to keep them busy for some time, and no new sources of production are likely to become available in the meantime. Random quoted about $15 50@17,50, and specials $17.50@20 per M.

White Pine retains a healthy and cheerful market, and holders consider their stocks as more likely to undergo a further hardening on value than any shrinkage. The export movement is taking out a liberal quantity of stock, and on home account the movement is comparatively free and tending to increase. Some of the trade incline to the belief that with the resumption of navigation larger supplies will become available, but interior accumulations are to a considerable extent in second hands, especially at Albany, and the amount open for competition will not be as large as anticipated. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $23@25 for South America do; $16.50@16 50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow Pine has shown only a moderate degree of animation, and without much change in the general condition of the market. Offerings on spot, if very attractive, sell readily at full rates, but ordinary grades meet with neglect, and, even at easy rates, buyers are unwilling to handle the latter. Contracts for future are made in an irregular manner, but the business rather tends to increase as a few of the mills are in a better position to receive orders, and buyers are ready to improve the opportunity. We quote random cargoes at about $23 50@25 per M.; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do; and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M for rough, and $19@20 per dressed

Hardwoods of all kinds are in good request, and on a basis of full former figures, with some of the best lots of stock held at a very material advance There has been a few arrivals, but not enough to make any noticeable addition to the accumulation. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do.; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do. culls $18@20 do; cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch, $33@45 do.; hickory, $35@45 do., for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

Shingles in fair demand for export and rather quiet on home account, though some buyers have of late been talking about renewing operations as soon as navigation opens. We quote Cypress at about $6 for saps and $8.50@9 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $4 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2.50@4.50 for 16-inch, as to quality and to quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30-inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28 75@33.25 for No 1; for 24-inch, $6 50@16 for A and $16 75@23 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A and $11 25@11 75 for No. 1.

Yard dealers report a very fair average business, and a well sustained line of values on all grade of stock.

From among the lumber charters and engagements recently reported we select the following:

A Br. brig, 477 tons, from Calais, Me., to Montevideo, for orders, lumber, $15, up-river ports $2 extra; an Am barque, 524 tons, from Portland to Montevideo for orders, lumber, private terms; an Am brig, 191 tons, from Jacksonville to Aspinwall, lumber, private terms; an Am brig, 284 tons, from Portland to Cardenas, shooks and heads, 22c; two schrs, from Bucksville, S. GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

THE WEST.

The Northwestern Lumberman reports the Chicago market as follows:

CHICAGO, Feb. 16, 1881.

The feeling among the dealers still continues buoyant. Price lists are, so far as we can learn, strictly adhered to, although rumors are continually floating about asserting to the contrary. We have taken pains to inquire into some of these, and find them to emanate from parties desirous of purchasing, whose interest it is to convince each dealer that he is being quietly undersold by his neighbor. We do not hear of any case in which success has attended the effort. There is no plentiful supply of dry lumber, as the winter has been highly unfavorable for seasoning, and unless the March winds are accompanied with a dry atmosphere, April and May are likely to find the late piled lumber of last fall in but little better condition for shipping than when it first arrived. It is now pretty well settled that a difficulty will be found, not only in this city, but at all the supply points, in filling the spring orders with lumber in anything more than reasonable shipping condition. With this fact before them, the trade of this city will hardly develop any anxiety to get rid of their fairly seasoned stock at less than present prices, with a certainty of not being able to replenish their yards to good advantage, either as regards condition or prices.

The receipts of the week passed reached 3,184,000 feet, and since January 1 aggregate 23,398,000 feet. These receipts, however, can hardly be said to affect the general market, inasmuch as but a very small proportion of them go to the yards of the dealers in pine. They do, however, betoken a healthy and extended business among the car and bridge builders, to whom the larger proportion of the lumber is consigned, in the shape of timber suited to their uses. In shingles the receipts show a falling off as compared with last year, and the same may be said of the shipments. The condition of the yard trade, as shown by the reported figures of shipments, which are for the past week 8,414,000 feet, and since January 1, 48,137,000 feet, is very healthy, the aggregate shipments for the past six weeks being somewhat greater than for the same period last year, with all the disadvantages of severe weather, against the mildness of the former season. Present orders are reported in large volume, and future prospects are exceedingly encouraging to the trade. Should the demand for lumber continue fairly into the spring in as great volume as is now being developed, the opening of navigation will find the dealers of Chicago extremely solicitous to obtain fresh supplies. That this condition also prevails at other and competing points, will at once be manifest upon examination of our reports from Western localities, where stocks are far from being heavy, and where the demand is good and prices well maintained.

The report of stock on hand shows an encouraging decrease in the supply during the month of January. The excess over last year is now only 40 940,372 feet, which is certainly not enough to cause any nervousness in the trade.

HARDWOODS.—Owing to the blockade of the railways by the storm, receipts for the past few days have been light. The most important arrivals to note was several car loads of dry, thick ash, which is much needed, and any available supply could be readily placed. Some oak, mostly green, has come to town, and small quantities of walnut. Most of the furniture establishments are again running full handed, but many of them are full of complaints about the scarcity of lumber.

Reliable information from the hardwood lumber producing points of Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, and, in short, throughout the whole Southern country, reaffirms the statement previously made in the Lumberman that the stock of dry walnut is nearly exhausted. There are lots of considerable size in Cincinnati and Indianapolis, but they are held by furniture manufacturers who cannot be induced to part with them

At Nashville, Tenn., walnut is held at $26 and $60, and we do not hear of many concessions. So far as we learn, holders are not over anxious to sell. One firm cuts nearly 6,000,000 feet yearly, and most of it is coming to this market at the above figures, when from two weeks to two months from the saw. How our dealers can afford to pay $26 for culls at that point is what we do not understand, and the dealers confess that they do not. If yarded here, they cost $36 by the time they are out of the way. One-inch culls are selling at $38, and last week several car loads were placed at $30. Besure, the latter were scrubs, but strike an average and it is plain enough to see that at such prices the cull deal is not a profitable one. Some parties here refuse to buy at such figures, and cling to the idea that much of this portion of the mills' products will remain unsold, but as the country is overrun with Eastern buyers, we imagine that the prediction will prove unfounded

We hear of sales of choice walnut logs at $60 per thousand. This, at first blush, looks like an enormous price, but when the conditions of the sales are taken into consideration, it can be better understood. Such sales are made on the old two-thirds plan; one-third of the measurement is first deducted, assuming that that amount will be lost in squaring, then in addition, one-fifth of the remainder is figured out for saw kerf.

In Kentucky, about the usual amount of walnut will be cut, but it will be held in smaller lots, as more are engaged in the business than formerly. That State is not notable for producing good walnut. The quality of the timber in the blue grass region is poor, while that on the mountains is better, though by no means equal to that found in some of the other States.

After a sufficient time for seasoning, we shall not look for oak to be scarce. Mill men are pushing sales at $15 for common, and many such offers dealers are rejecting.

We have received several inquiries concerning quartered oak, its uses and mode of manufacture. It is now quoted at $55 in this market, and judging from our correspondence, the figures have in several cases led men who own standing oak to suppose that it would be profitable to manufacture it in that way. It is expensive to manufacture, as it cannot be cut a quarter as fast as ordinary oak lumber, and it is slow of sale to such an extent that some of the largest dealers in this city do not handle it. The method of cutting it is to first quarter the log—hence the name—then place one of the quarters upon the carriage and saw alternately a board from the flat surfaces. This produces an effect just opposite to bastard sawing. It is used principally for inside finishing, and makes the most durable of floors, as the wear comes across the grain instead of with it. Men who understand its nature, and have means to build to their liking, know that though seemingly high, in the long run, especially for floors, it is a good investment. It is cut in regular lengths, oftener six inches wide than otherwise, and usually one and one-half or one and three-quarter inches thick.

Never in the history of hardwoods has there been so much talk about gum as now. As walnut disappears the tendency is to name the coming furniture wood, and we hear gum mentioned oftener than any other. It has marked merits and defects, and nothing but a thorough trial will solve the knotty problem. It grows abundantly in the Central Southern States and to a considerable extent in Southern Illinois. Its grain is beautiful, it is easily worked, but its excessive tendency to warp steps in and makes its utilization a question of doubt A manufacturer in this city used a quantity of it under a fancy name, and he asserts that a panel would not stay in its frame; and at the mills where it is sawed the mill men count it a streak of good luck if in seasoning it does not warp itself out of the yard. An old lumberman is authority for the statement that if water elm be cut and allowed to lay a year in the log the warp will be out of it when sawed. The same method of treating gum would be a long one, but if it proved efficacious it would tend to ease the minds of the furniture makers, as well as the pockets of furniture consumers. Gum is a splendid turning wood, and it is turned rather extensively into wagon hubs and newel posts. An Evansville (Ind.) firm recently shipped 75,000 feet as an experiment to Providence, R. I., where it will be used for ebonized work, and we hear of a contract for 150,000 feet at $15 per thousand in the southern part of this State, destined, doubtless, for this market.

Without an exception our correspondents at the leading markets in the country report desirable lots of hardwoods scarce, and prices at some points tending upward.

The Chicago Northwestern Lumbermen gives the following summary of lumber on hand January 1.

District.	1881.	1880.	1879.
Mississippi Val..	873,367,528	704,807,256	585,001,797
Lake Michigan..	821,440,673	727,267,181	694,576,721
E. Mich. & L. E.	698,646,768	548,749,000	518,745,000
Miscellane's p'ts	116,500,000	78,500,000	89,500,000
Total...	2,509,954,969	2,059,323,437	1,887,823,518

We do not imagine that these footings will prove a surprise to the trade in any respect. They simply prove what has all 'along been accepted as a fact—that there was more lumber piled up in the Northwest at the beginning of the year than has been on hand at the same date before. The increase, to state it exactly according to these figures, is 450,631,532 feet over the total for 1880, or about 22 per cent., which is certainly not an alarming difference. The district showing the largest increase is the Mississippi Valley, the lumbermen doing business on that stream and its tributaries having managed to accumulate 168,560,272 feet more than they had in pile at the opening of the previous year. The eastern district comes next, with a gain of 149,897,768 feet, while that including Lake Michigan shows an increase of only 94,173,492 feet, of which excess about one-half was held in Chicago. The miscellaneous points, which belong properly to neither division, show a larger difference in proportion, the increase for the four markets being nearly 50 per cent.

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER,
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.

The continued blockade of most of the western railroads has caused an almost total suspension of lumber shipping at Minneapolis, and other northwestern markets. The floods have seriously interfered with business in St. Louis, Chicago, and other lower markets There is more than usual firmness in prices, owing to the universal expectation of a heavy demand in early spring. No standard grade lumber can be bought at discounts worth mentioning.

Stocks are worse broken than at any time in the last five years, even at Chicago all the dealers complain of great difficulty in finding many standard sorts, and it is only by continued swapping that the light business of winter is maintained. This trouble will be very much worse in the spring.

Advices from the railway mills of Wisconsin and Minnesota show that but little lumber has been, or is now being sawed, owing to the intense cold which makes it difficult to operate machinery, and almost dangerous to saw logs that are frozen until they are as brittle as glass. Many mills are shut down.

News from the pineries show that but few more logs have been banked up to this time than at the same period last year. The snow is from three to four feet deep on the Upper Mississippi, and is so light and dry that but small loads can be hauled on any road. One of the best informed operators in the city estimates that about the same quantity of logs will be banked as last year, with the chances of a falling off rather than a increase in the quantity, and that the cut will be 25 per cent. short of what was intended.

FOREIGN.

The Timber Trades Journal, as follows:

LONDON.

Generally speaking, importers still show little disposition to enter into engagements—charm the agents never so wisely—yet a few transactions have recently taken place, and among others we hear of two or three cargoes of Baltic sawn goods having been sold to ports on the south coast.

Quotations are being made, it is said, for Quebec yellow pine at £17 10s. for 1st, £11 10s. for 2d, and £6 for 3d, per Petersburg standard, free on board. For spruce, St. John and Miramichi shipment, £4 10s. is, we believe, asked; while for Riga goods the figures are put down at £7 for full 11 in. crown, although a little time back £7 5s was asked, and for 3x9 and 3 x 10½ to 11 £6 10s. to £6 15s. free on board.

LIVERPOOL.

The business of the past week has been like its predecessor, a quiet one, which is not to be wondered at seeing that the trade of this district is still hampered by the fact of the canals being icebound, the impediments that manufacturers are yet suffering from the strike amongst the coalminers, and the languid condition of the building trade.

The imports during the past week have been very moderate, and consist of one cargo of flooring, two cargoes of Norwegian spars, two cargoes of spruce deals and birch, and two cargoes of pitch pine, both of the latter being sawn wood

Prices all round are without material change, and, as is usual at this time of the year, there are but few extensive orders in the market. No public sales of wood goods have been held during the past week excepting small parcels of staves, which have been sold at advancing prices.

This weeks mail from Havana reports: The market is better supplied now, imports during the week comprising about 500 mille feet white pine and 1,244 do. do. pitch do. for which $36 @ 37 and $35 @ 36 per mille feet respectively, are asked.

NAILS.—The market does not show many really new features. Demand is not of a continuous character, and in some instances is satisfied with a very small amount of stock, yet the total movement of supplies is fair, and a pretty steady tone preserved on the general market. Quite a fair amount continues to move for export, and shippers promise additional orders.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $2 90@3; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg $3.25@3 35; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg. $3.50@3 60; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3.75@3.85; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4 50@4.60; 3d, fine, per keg, $5.25@5.35; 2d, per keg, $5 25@5 35.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3.25@3 35. Floor, Casing and Box, $3.75@4.25. Finishing, $4@4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

1½ inch, $5.50@5.60; 1¾ inch. $5.25@5.35; 2 inch, $5 @5.10; 2½@2¾ inch, $4 75@4 85; 3 inch and longer, $4.50@4 65.

PAINTS AND OILS.—The market is not as yet very active, but the indications daily grow more promising, and the undertone is cheerful and confident generally. On local account alone it is believed the consumption will be full enough to create a fair degree of animation, until communication with the interior is fully restored, and on all outlets a liberal business it is thought must finally develop. As a rule, offerings are only made upon direct call, and holders preserve a considerable showing of confidence. There is, however, occasional exceptions, among others Paris Green is mentioned as in some instances available much less than openly quoted, and indeed below the cost of production. Linseed Oils show no important change, the demand proving moderate and uncertain, and confined in the main to jobbing parcels with about former rates ruling. We quote at about 57@58c. for City and 62@63c. for Calcutta from first hands.

PITCH.—A fair business doing in the way of orders from regular sources, and the market ruling about steady. Supplies are equal to the call at present. We quote at $2@2.15 per bbl. for city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been unsettled, and at times the fluctuations on values was quite sharp. Buyers for consumption, however, have not handled much stock, as they are in doubt over the probable result of current speculative manipulation. An impression prevails that the large holders are endeavoring to force the market into a position where they can unload before the appearance of the new crop. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 44@46 per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—The demand somewhat irregular on the wholesale market, and prices slightly doubtful at times. In a jobbing way, however, business reaches fair volume, and the tone of the market is pretty steady. The supply of stock has been brought under fair control and is not pressed for sale. We quote $2.50@2.75 for Newberne and Washington and $2.62 @2 88 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

C. W. SWEET,

No. 137 BROADWAY

It will be curious to watch the changes in store for Washington square and surroundings during the next few years. From time to time we hear of some prominent citizen returning with his household goods from the upper part of the city and settling down once more along the square. The latest addition, as will be seen by our market report, will be Mr. C. G. Francklyn, who has just purchased there a large house for his own occupancy, thus joining quite a coterie of first-class families now occupying the north side of the square. And yet we doubt whether this forced exception to the rule will be permanent. The entire neighborhood is more apt to become somewhat more of a business centre than a quarter for fashionable residences, especially when the Hudson River tunnel will be finished. It will be somewhere near this square that the tunnel will bring its enormous traffic, which must have a marked effect upon the character to be assumed by that section, and we rather share the belief of several property owners that in the not distant future Washington square will be metamorphosed into something like Union square, and filled more with retail stores than with private residences.

THE RIGHTS AND WRONGS OF CORPORATIONS.

It needs no prophet to foresee that the relations of corporations to the Government and people are to be a subject of much discussion for the next few years, and that in all probability political parties will divide upon the question of corporation control. Already the debate waxes warm, and the popular feeling against corporation monopolies is unmistakably strong. There is no doubt but what the great manipulators have thought of themselves more than they have of the community. They have built roads at $25,000 a mile, and saddled them on the investing public at fifty, seventy-five, and in the case of the New Jersey Central at $200,000 a mile. We are asked to pay large dividends upon $80,000,000 of telegraph stock, yet the honest cost of the plant was probably less than $10,000,000. Nowhere does corporate management show to greater disadvantage than when associated with Government help. Not only have they managed to overcharge the public, but they have debauched legislation in nearly every State in the Union; and the most serious scandal known in the history of Congress was connected with the Credit Mobilier, which constructed the Union and Central Pacific Railroads.

But there is another side to this matter. It has been presented ably recently by Leland Stanford, George Ticknor Curtis, and, last of all, by Jay Gould to an interviewer through the columns of the Herald. One claim, however, made by the corporations is wholly inadmissible. They insist, through the medium of their lawyers and officers, that railroads and telegraph lines are private property, and that they have a right to charge what they please, the same as any other dealer in commodities. But in this the common law and common sense of mankind is against them. No nation would ever consent to put their means of communication by rail or telegraph into the exclusive possession of a set of capitalists, with a power to levy unlimited tolls upon the community. But just here comes in an opening for abuses and blackmailing practices, of which the corporations can justly complain. Taking advantage of the privileges granted by the State to corporations, swarms of legislative and legal blackmailers prey upon them. Having no friends, they are followed up and mulcted without mercy. In a case of accident juries award heavy damages against corporations, no matter whether they are in the right or the wrong. In a recent heavy verdict against the elevated roads a German juryman in the case admitted that the plaintiff was not really injured, but he was a poor devil and the corporation was rich and could afford the $10,000; hence the verdict. Then, the legislative blackmailer, taking advantage of the prejudices against so-called monopolies, is unceasing in his demands upon the various transportation companies. It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless true, that many of the employees of the elevated roads are forced upon the companies by the politicians. Influential "boss" aldermen or members of the State Legislature are constantly demanding positions for their political retainers. A great deal of the power of the railroads in the Legislature is due to their willingness to help politicians in the way of patronage for the benefit of their particular friends. When the elevated roads were laying their plans they consulted with law officers and tax experts, and were solemnly assured that if they invested their capital in the construction of this needed improvement they would not be taxed under the real estate head. But no sooner were the lines built than they were beset by legal and legislative harpies, and they will either have to pay a round tax or compromise with the blackmailers.

Then, apart from every consideration the corporations have done a work which no individuals could accomplish. The railroad and telegraph system of the country would not exist or would be in a very imperfect condition were it not for the union of effort made possible by the combination of capitalists. The great consolidators of roads, such as the Vanderbilts, Jay Goulds, Scotts, and Garretts are really public benefactors. They are unifying the railway system of the country and are preparing the way for governmental control. It is far better to have one telegraph company than a dozen, for business can be done by wholesale cheaper than by retail. One system of roads from New York to San Francisco or the City of Mexico is better than three or four, and far less costly. The multiplication of rival lines should in some way be prevented, as it is a clear waste of capital. Wiser than the American people, the French Government will not permit competing lines, which it regards as a waste of capital. It protects the community against excessive tolls by running the roads itself, or limiting the dividends.

It is well theretore in the pending discussion to bear these facts in mind. It will not do to discourage capitalists to combine for their own and the public benefit. Their just rights should not be interfered with, and public opinion should not permit legislative blackmailers to prey upon them. The most serious calamity that could happen to the country would be to alarm the investing class as to the security of their property. It would at once put a stop to all our great industrial enterprises, and set back the progress of our civilization. "Nothing," said Wendell Phillips, "is so timid as a million of dollars, except two million of dollars."

CAPITALISTS IN CONGRESS.

It is a notable circumstance that the recent changes in Congress have been in the direction of fewer lawyers and more business men. Of the seventy-six members of the new Senate, twenty-three of the number are not lawyers. This is a larger proportion than was ever known even in pro-slavery times, when the South was sometimes represented by large slave-holding planters. The privileged class in this country has heretofore been the lawyers. They have had a monopoly of all political positions of honor and profit. All our executives, our judges and our legislators, with but here and there an exception, are members of the bar. This has resulted in giving us more laws and poorer ones, than any other civilized country on earth. Consciously or unconsciously, our lawyer legislators and executives have worked for the benefit of their profession, and the result is a mass of confused, incoherent and litigation promoting enactments on all our statute books which are a reproach to us as a commercial people.

But our rich men are now desirous of being themselves Congressmen and Senators, instead of, as heretofore, being represented in the two houses by their attorneys. Both the Senate and House to-day fairly swarm with lawyers, who represent corporations, national banks and private business firms. It is understood that in the new House of Representatives there will be fewer lawyers than usual. It is, however, a matter of some regret that the new business Senators represent wealth rather than high moral or mental attainments.

WE TOLD YOU SO.

The popularity of THE REAL ESTATE RECORD with banks and bankers is largely due to the fact that we have been remarkably successful in giving facts and opinions ahead of the market. Take the following from our issue of January 22, just six weeks ago, printed in the Gossip of the Street :

There'll be no Funding Bill passed this session. As it passed the House, the Funding Bill is a blow aimed at the national banks. It is intended to force them to take a loan at three per cent., which is not worth that figure on the open market. Now, the national banks are very powerful and are largely represented, both in the Senate and House, by their directors and attorneys. Then, there are the holders of the bonds to be converted ; these represent over $600,000,000. They, of course, would like the five and six per cent. interest to continue for another year, and hence that moneyed power will fight against the refunding bill. Then there is the First National Bank of New York, Secretary Sherman's pet. For reasons of its own this very powerful institution is opposed to refunding. This corporation knows how to effect legislation, and is as powerful as the press of the entire country. There are, therefore, these three interests, the national banks, the holders of the bonds falling due this year, and the First National Bank, which are opposed to the bill that has passed the lower House. There will be no refunding. But Congress at present, in considering the matter, is simply playing into the hands of the great bull speculators.

Does not this read as if it was printed but yesterday, instead of six weeks ago? It will be found on page 71 of the present volume.

But this is not all. The article we append was published on Nov. 13, 1880, fifteen weeks ago. It foretold the story of what has since occurred in the market. Here is the article:

A short time since we pointed out the fact that the national banks were contracting their issues. They had found that with the present rate of taxation it was not profitable to issue currency based upon government bonds at the present price. We have always doubted the wisdom of the purchase of bonds in the open market before they were due. By this forcing process governments were run up to a price which their investment value did not warrant. Mr. John Thompson has been in communication with Mr. John J. Knox, Comptroller of the Currency, and publishes a table, upon which he makes the following comments:

Deducting the surrendered currency, still outstanding, namely : "Lawful money on deposit," a contraction of $5,533,859 is shown since January 1. During the ten months (from January 1 to November 1), circulating notes have been scarce ; only mutilated notes have been sent in for redemption.

By the table of bonds held to secure the notes of national banks, it is shown that almost $200,000,000 (the 5s and 6s) mature before July next, and that only $119,150,100 of 4s (out of $738,264,000), have been deposited for circulation. With the 4s at 110 or 3½s at par, and with a Federal tax of 1 per cent. on currency, the banks can have but a very small profit on their currency issues, even while their circulation does not flow in for redemption.

The banks take a risk in the decline of bonds, and another risk in having their currency flow in for redemption. It is hardly possible that the present high price of bonds is to be permanent, and it is quite probable that the currency will again flow in for redemption.

From the aversion of the banks to issue currency when 4 per cents were at par, or a small premium, we are led to expect a large contraction of currency, as the 5 and 6 per cent. bonds are redeemed. We are prepared to see one-half of the $200,000,000 held as security withdrawn from Washington, and $90,000,000 of currency surrendered, unless the banks are relieved from the 1 per cent. tax on their currency and the stockholders are relieved from the personal tax on their shares. Relief from these taxes will enable the banks to sustain the present volume of currency on a 3½s or even a 3 per cent. bond.

This is a startling exhibit. It will be in the power of the banks, by refusing to buy bonds, after the issues they now hold are redeemed, to so contract the currency as to make a disastrous break in prices. It is idle to expect that Congress will further favor the bondholder and national bank shareholders by relieving them of taxation. The feeling is adverse to the national banks. It is within their power during the next six months to seriously interfere with the upward course of prices, for the withdrawal of even a quarter of their currency would be followed by a semi-panic. People who speculate on future values would do well to bear this matter in mind.

The venerable President of the Chase National Bank must also be credited with the sagacity to foresee what has since actually occurred. If our subscribers will look back on their files, they will find other forecasts equally remarkable.

JAY GOULD ON THE METROPOLIS.

In the interview with Jay Gould, published in the Herald, there is a great deal that is suggestive as well as instructive. Much of what Mr. Gould says is of peculiar interest to those that are interested in realty in New York city. It is all the more notable as the judgment of a man who is not interested in real estate. So far as we know Jay Gould only owns two houses in New York, the one in which he lives on Fifth avenue and the building in Park row, which is to be utilized for a newspaper which he owns. The following extracts from the Herald tells their own story :

"I have watched New York," says Mr. Gould, "for many years, and I do not see what it has to fear from any quarter. The metropolis proper to-day numbers about two millions of people, and when you get to that point rivalry is out of the question. Philadelphia is a great city. So are Baltimore and Chicago and St. Louis, and San Francisco and Cincinnati and New Orleans. They are all growing a sure, steady growth ; but, as it appears to me, no one of them can ever touch New York. It is almost idle to talk about it. As I said, I have been watching this city for many years. I am not an old man to-day, but New York, even in my recollection, has expanded in the most marvellous degree. My first visit to New York was during the Crystal Palace Exhibition. In less than fifty years I have the faith that New York will be as large as London. In twenty-five years, probably less, I think it will be the money centre of the world."

"I have been studying this city," continued Mr. Gould, "and great as has been its growth in the past I predict a still greater development in the future. The question now is not, What position shall we hold toward Chicago or St. Louis or Philadelphia, but, Where shall we stand as regards the cities of the world ?"

"How about another Atlantic seaport, say at Norfolk."

"One might possibly be made there. I mean some elevators might be built and a line of steamers started and some trade done, but these do not constitute a city. Pleasure is a much more important factor in business than people generally suppose, and business men always want to live where they do business and can at the same time have some degree of comfort and luxury. Great libraries, picture galleries, theatres, parks, newspapers, all fit into the web and woof of trade and go to make up a great city."

"The growth of New York, however," Mr. Gould went on in his low, silken tones, "finds a parallel in the growth of the country. We are bounding along at a pace such as the world never before witnessed. We are becoming rich so rapidly that it is difficult to fix a limit in imagination to our grandeur as a nation even in the not very distant future."

"Empire or republic ?"

"Republic" (emphatically).

"An enormous quantity of our bonds," continued Mr. Gould, "has been sent back from Europe during the past four or five years. What has become of them ? The prediction used to be made some years ago that when in the course of trade, in the convulsions of business, in a period of panicky doubt as to the perpetuity of our institutions or the honesty of our intentions, these millions of securities should be sent home, the would fall so low that they would be bought by the pound. Well, a large portion of them, as said, has returned. Where have they gone They have been taken up quietly by the people and absorbed. I do not think they will ever again cross the Atlantic. Again, consider the enormous mass of bonds and stocks of insurance mining, railroad, canal and other stocks that have been distributed in the same way—for, as said, corporate property was never so widely scattered as it is at the present time—and will enable you to form an idea of the rapid production of wealth in the United States. The savings banks' exhibits of the State which the Herald printed a few weeks ago tell the story What was the increase in deposits for '80 over '79 ? Forty millions of dollars, if I recollect exactly. Now the savings banks depositors and investors in bonds and stocks are two widely different classes. The savings banks represent the mechanic and the workingman, clerks who have small salaries, women who work for their living, who sew or teach school ; small farmers—in a word, the masses. The figures of the savings bank reports show that this portion of our people are prosperous. The immense development of our railroads, the improvements that are being made in cities and towns all over the country in the erection of new places of business and dwelling houses, the absorption, as I said before, of our bonds, all go to prove that the mercantile and trading classes are also properous."

If this forecast of the future of the metropolis is correct, what better investment can a man make for his children than to own realty on this island or in the country just north of the Harlem River. Everything seems to help this city. The obstructions by ice and fog on the rivers, this winter, will induce thousands of families to settle permanently in New York. The superior advantage of being able to step at one's place of business into an elevated railway car and be landed near one's residence instead of consuming time in walking to a ferry crossing a foggy or icy river and then taking an inconvenient street car, are so obvious that all householders are beginning to realize the advantage of a local residence—on this island.

Then, it should be borne in mind, that with the increase of the area of taxable property the burdens of the taxpayer become lessened. Our debt is not increasing and if it should keep at its present amount for fifteen years, our taxes will diminish perhaps thirty per cent.

Mr. Gould claims, and justly, that the real metropolis to-day contains two millions of inhabitants. Brooklyn, Yonkers, New Rochelle, indeed all that remains of Westchester County, should be annexed to New York. We shall never have really good or efficient government until this is done, and all who wish to effect a real reform in municipal affairs should advocate a consolidation of the populations whose natural headquarters is on this island.

Jay Gould is quite right in supposing that no other city in the country has the future of New York. When this nation has a foreign commerce, or rather when its productions are carried in American bottoms then will be seen an immense expansion of the population and wealth of New York Our merchant princes will then vie with the railway magnates in wealth and financial and social influence.

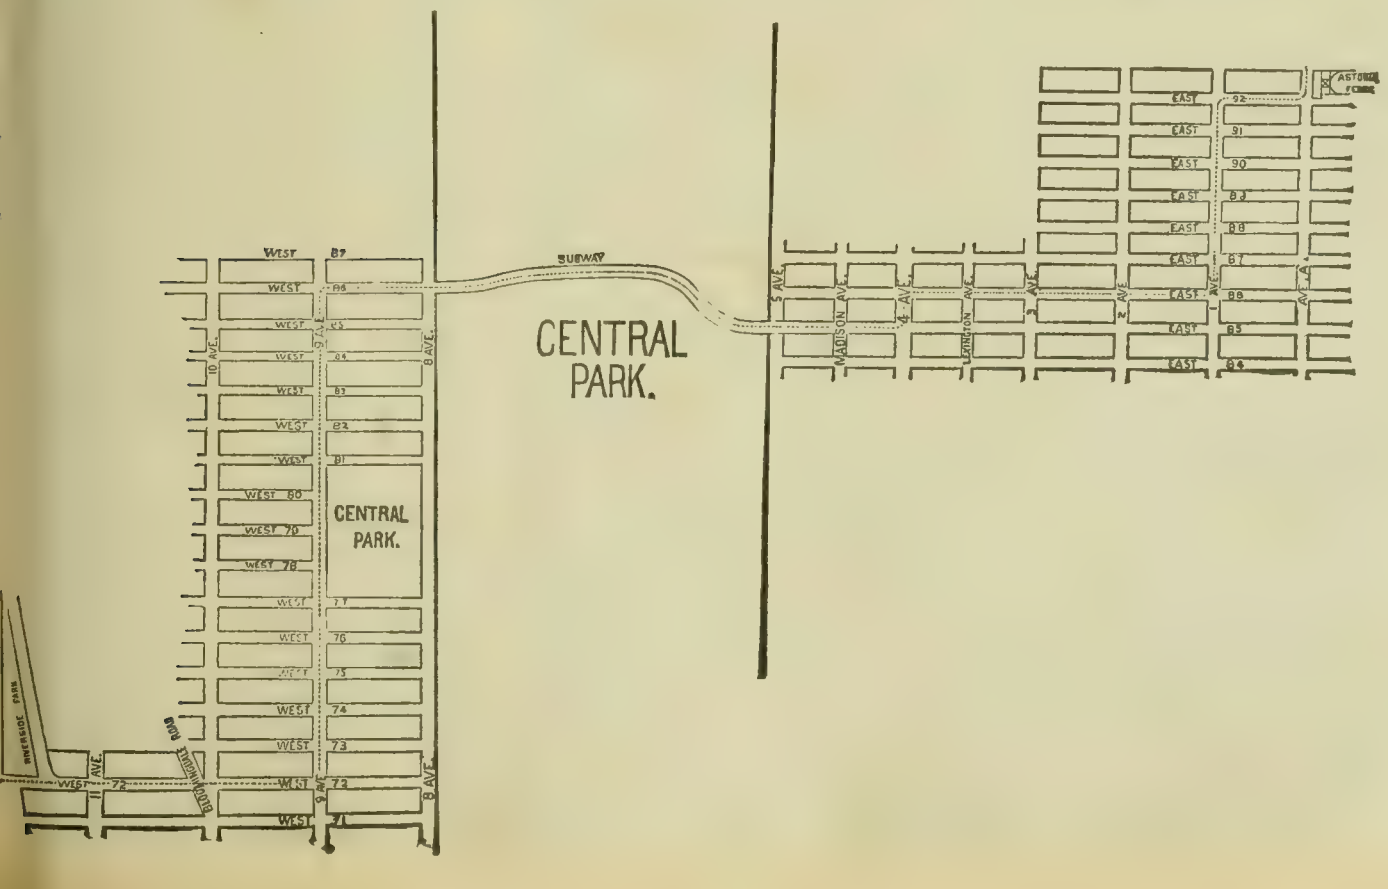
The immense alterations of down-town buildings immediately after the first of May will still further decrease the supply of offices in the vicinity of Wall street. Mr D. O. Mills has determined to tear down without delay the Broad street front he has just secured, notwithstanding the appeals made to him by tenants and others to let matters remain in statu quo for at least another year.

THE EAST AND WEST SIDE.

Proposed Construction of a Surface Cross-Town Road along Eighty-sixth Street

From time to time THE REAL ESTATE RECORD has called attention to the fact that no convenient communication exists between the Eastern and Western part of our city above Fifty-ninth street. The truth is that many up-town residents prefer to take an occasional trip say to Yonkers or Tarrytown rather than go from the West Side of the Park to the East Side of the town. There virtually exists no communication between these two sections to-day, and its absence has recently given rise to considerable discussion not only among individual property owners, but also in the meetings of associations, established both on the East and West Side for the purpose of promoting the interests of real estate owners. The West Side Association, in fact, held a special meeting on this subject only a very few days ago, when it was plainly pointed out that the principal improvement needed just now so as to encourage building operations on the West Side was the creation of a link which would unite the East with the West Side of the Park. This very evening another meeting is to be held on the same subject.

A number of capitalists who have taken this matter into serious consideration, have recently consulted with property owners on both sides of the Park, and agreed to construct a surface road to be known as the Central & Riverside Parks and Astoria Ferry Railway. We publish herewith a map showing the route which this company intends to follow, and we may say at the very start that the majority of owners who have seen the map approve of the route laid out thereon.



There may be, perhaps, on the part of certain owners, a trivial objection in regard to certain portions of this road, that is to say, it may be objected, for instance, that in the long route covered by this organization certain blocks are affected, which according to the views of some of our readers, should remain untouched. To owners who are of this view, we merely desire to add right here that we know enough of the disposition of the projectors of this road to say in their behalf that a slight deviation of one or two blocks, so far as it does not interfere with the main object viz: the establishment of a cross-town road from the Riverside Park to Astoria Ferry, will not in the least interfere with their main plan. The West Side, we all know, is shortly to be built up. Builders are already at work on some of the cross town streets, improving numerous lots that have for years been vacant, and this indeed is only the beginning of a movement which will grow as the necessity for more and more houses makes itself felt in the upper section of the city. The main object of the projectors in constructing this road is to benefit the whole of that population which now has no means of crossing Manhattan Island between Fifty-ninth and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth streets.

The route to be followed, and as herein provided, runs from Riverside Park and Seventy-second street along the latter street to Ninth avenue, up Ninth avenue to Eighty-sixth street, through Eighty-sixth street to the Park, along the subway to Eighty-fifth street, through Eighty-fifth street to Fourth avenue, up Fourth avenue to Eighty-sixth street, along Eighty-sixth street to First avenue, up First avenue to Ninety-second street, through Ninety-second street to the Astoria Ferry. It will be remembered that there is no car route to this ferry now, except the one from Broadway and Astor place.

There will be no difficulty whatever in constructing that section of the road which is to run along the subway of the Central Park, as we understand that the Park Commissioners themselves, who see the necessity of popularizing the West Side for building purposes, have expressed opinions favorable to the construction of a direct surface road across this part of our city.

Of course it will at once be seen that the travel that will ultimately fall into the lap of this cross-town road will be equal to that of any other cross road in the city. Even now the numerous laborers engaged on the Vanderbilt Docks being constructed from Sixty-fifth to Seventy-second streets along the North river, the numerous passengers even now anxious to cross to the East Side from the Eighth and Sixth avenues, can be counted by the hundreds, and so to the contrary, numerous passengers coming across the Astoria Ferry are ever ready to go to the West Side of the Island. And yet the West Side is to-day only in its infancy as to population. Its improvement is no longer a matter of future uncertainty, and the projectors of this new cross-town route are acting with simple foresight in laying this matter before the public at a time when this question of East and West Side communication has become a subject of more than ordinary agitation.

Those owners of property and others who are interested in this project can gather further information in regard to the construction of this cross-town road from Messrs. S. T. Meyer & Sons, 111 Broadway, basement, room J.

ABOUT MINES.

A subscriber wants information respecting the Bodie mines, in one of which he wishes to invest. The Standard is the only dividend paying property in that district. Its market price ranges between $24 and $26. It pays 75 cents per share a month dividend. It has been dividend paying for four years, and has never paid less than 50 cents a share monthly. The mine is a very well developed one, and the officers claim that there are three years' dividends in sight.

Among the non-dividend payers the most promising are the Mono, Bodie, the two Noondays, the Oro, Bechtel and Tioga. Bulwer ought also to be a purchase, as it has a fine mill and will certainly not be assessed. The others are all assessable. We believe any one who purchases the shares of the mines whose names we have given and hold them for a year will make money, but he must expect to pay assessments. Mines which investors should specially avoid are Boston Consolidated, Goodshaw, South Bodie, Bodie Tunnel, and Consolidated Pacific. There are possibly a few good ones that we have not mentioned as well as several bad ones.

Good news is promised to the holders of Bull Domingo stock. It seems a large "horse" had been encountered in the workings of this mine, which accounts for the falling value of the stock, but the shaft is in good ore again. The mine is $70,000 in debt, but this sum will soon be made up.

Bassick, we hear, is not looking so well, and the stock is difficult of sale.

Silver King of Colorado is said to be a purchase, and nearly all the Leadville stocks, it is believed, will soon be very actively dealt it at higher figures.

The new wet mill of the Silver Cliff has been started up, and the stock may go up to 10, if the result is satisfactory.

GOSSIP OF THE STREET.

The veto of the Refunding Bill advanced the whole stock market. The stock operators argued that the banks would now let up on their customers, and that the money which had been lodged in the Sub-Treasury would be restored to active use in the "street."

There are those, however, who reason that the market will be a sale for some months to come, for the following among other reasons:

First. Because the market had an almost uninterrupted advance from the nomination of James A. Garfield for the Presidency, in June last, up to within a week of his inauguration. A reaction would be expected in the nature of things.

Second. The speculation of last year came to a head in February, after which the market went steadily down.

Third. Although gold is still coming from Europe, it is not believed that its importation will continue during the spring months. It is believed that an advancing bull market cannot be kept up without the constant importation of coin.

Fourth. The severe winter will make a very late spring planting, which will interfere with the crops, and the usual spring scare is likely to be intensified this year from a variety of causes. When money becomes tight, as it will do when business is active, a severe "scoop" is not unlikely.

Fifth. The great operators are out of stocks, among them Keene, Camack, Smith, Travers, as well as the minor operators in Bococks and Prince & Whitley's offices. Vanderbilt, Keene and quite a number of other large operators go to Europe this spring.

This is the way the bears argue; but business is good, trade active and profitable, the immigration is large, there has been a large drop in stocks, and people have become used to much higher figures than those which have obtained during the last two weeks. Perhaps the croakers are mistaken.

We desire to call the attention of owners and architects to the card of Thomas W. Jones, 170 Front street, published in another column. The point we desire to make is that Mr. Jones undertakes every part belonging to the repairs or the reconstruction of a house; he attends to the mason as well as carpenter work and personally supervises the plumbing, gasfitting and other details. He takes contracts for general work and his estimates will always be found satisfactory.

REAL ESTATE IN THE WEST.

It was a favorite saying of an old investor, "Real Estate cannot run away." It does change in value, decreasing or increasing according to circumstances, while in the main, in proper localities, it is the best property to hold through good and ill. When chosen by the purchaser or mortgagee in the heart of cities, there is little doubt but that, as security, it overbalances the more fluctuating assets of stock and bonds. We have in mind, at this writing, the large amount of real estate in the Western States held by Eastern capitalists, individuals and corporations. And we remember the remarks of many journals concerning the propriety of being lavish in placing money at such risks. But men who study markets have keen sense of situations. In certain cities there must be certain receipts, and from those cities there must be made certain shipments The charter of the largest corporative body in New England, the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, gave opportunity for the use of large sums in obtaining mortgages. Its officers invested largely in the city of Chicago. For a time the interest was promptly paid. By-and-by there came a panic, and all property-holders were sufferers. Quantities of these mortgages must be foreclosed. Satisfied that the reaction in business matters must render valuable the warehouses in which business must be done, the company, abundantly able to hold its real estate, awaited the result. Its policy-holders attest their gratification, as from week to week some disposal is made for cash at headquarters of estates, now sought for by parties who pay a handsome profit over cost, interest and all expenses.

The statement of the company shows a gain of over $68,000 because of sales made previous to January 1, 1881. Within a short time thereafter we are advised about as much more was realized. Last week $70,000 more, we understand, was added as profit to the account. Judiciously, these properties will be sold, for it is not the business of a life insurance company to own real estate, but to loan money upon it. The determinate course of the managers in retaining their great property until the proper time for disposal of it to best advantage, is the supplement to their just action in the making of prudential investment of the trust funds at their command.

EXCELLENT HOUSES IN HARLEM.

Mr. Isaac E. Wright, whose establishment at 153 and 155 East 128th street, between Lexington and Third avenues, is so well known to uptown owners and builders, owing to the excellent ceilings and floorings which are almost daily delivered by him to shrewd buyers, has just finished on his own account a number of houses in Harlem well worthy the attention of buyers. There are ten of them, all in a section of Harlem designated in the neighborhood as the metropolitan district of New York City, showing the pride the people residing in that locality take in that section. Aside of this, however, it must be honestly admitted that Mr. Wright's houses are in the immediate vicinity of the very best schools in that district, near several churches of prominence, and convenient to all the stations of the elevated roads.

The first batch of these houses are on the southeast corner of Madison avenue and 127th street, four of them being 19x50x76, and one 23.8½x76x110, next door to the Methodist Episcopal Church. For this latter house Mr. Wright asks $30,000, and, considering the work expended upon it, the care in which it has been finished, and especially the locality, anybody knowing anything at all of this vicinity must pronounce it exceedingly cheap. Then there are two houses on the south side of 127th street, 17x50x76 each, and also three more on the north side of the same street, 16.8x50 and half the block, for which he asks the moderate price of $16,000 each.

The other day one of our representatives carefully inspected these houses, and found them finished to the very last touch in the very best style. A description of one of them, so far as workmanship is concerned, will do for all of them, as Mr. Wright has permitted not a single one of these houses to be finished without his own personal supervision. The cellar is of patent concrete pavement, and all floors are double throughout these houses. There are ample and grand mirrors in the parlors, and the dining rooms are tastefully trimmed in oak, the parlors in walnut. Refrigerators, dumb waiters and speaking tubes are found ready at hand in every one of these houses, the plastering of which alone will satisfy any one on examination that the entire work has been carefully watched from beginning to end. In fact, most of the interior has been done by day's work. The staircases throughout are in cabinet, and so also are the first two floors, all amply ornamented and carefully finished. The plumbing work, just now considered the most important part of a well-finished house, has been conscientiously done by Mr. Tabrydy, of Third avenue, and the bath rooms, with their elaborate conveniences and safety as to the escape of sewer gas, show that this work has been carefully attended to. We have already pointed out the location of these houses in a section now so much sought after by investors, and as Mr. Wright is disposed to grant easy terms to purchasers, we can conscientiously state that we know of no houses in Harlem more worthy of being secured without delay by purchasers than those we have just described.

PORTLAND CEMENT.

Engineers, architects, builders and others who take an interest in this important building material will be pleased to know that Dyckerhoff's Portland cement, which used to be in this market some ten years ago, is again regularly imported and for sale by Mr E. Thiele, 73 William street, New York, who is the sole agent for the Dyckerhoff & Soehne Portland Cement Works at Amoeneburg, Germany. This Portland cement has acquired an enviable reputation abroad, and its extraordinary merits will soon be recognized here and duly appreciated. From the numerous testimonials before us it appears that just in those qualities which are essential in a good Portland cement, this brand is without a superior, and we think it will interest a great many to read a portion of the report of the Chief Engineer of the Canal and Water Works at Frankfurt a-M., and which we quote as follows:

Your cement being of correct chemical composition, perfectly well burned and finely ground, admits of unusually large additions of sand. We generally add four parts sand to one part cement and obtain great strength and durability Its slow-setting is another advantage of great importance in the building of canals, as it gives ample time for the proper working of the mortar. The hardening proceeds slowly but surely, and advancing in age the material obtains an increasing strength, as tests have shown even at the end of two years. You have not only succeeded in producing the most excellent cement known to me, but also in attaining a uniform and never-varying quality. It is owing to this circumstance that of the different brands of cement employed by us, yours has not only given the best, but also the most uniform results. W. LINDLEY,
Chief Engineer Bureau of Canal Works.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

A large number of persons crowded the Exchange Salesroom day after day during the entire week, and a great deal of improved property changed hands. Mr. Bernard Smyth sold the entire west front of Park place, between Greeenwich street and Washington street, in various parcels at quite satisfactory prices, details of which will be found below. Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son sold Greene, Thompson, Broome and Clark street property also at fair price, as well as some corners in Bleecker and Prince streets, No. 154 Bleecker street, corner of Thompson street, 25x125 being sold for $27,000. The southwest corner of Fourth avenue and Eighty-third street was sold by E. H. Ludlow & Co. for $24,000.

Mr. Harnett's sale of Brooklyn real estate, held at the Exchange on Tuesday, also was also quite successful.

Mr. Harnett will sell at auction during the coming week several houses on Canal street, Seventh avenue, and in Harlem; also lots on Seventy-fifth street, Eightieth and Eighty-first street, and on Ninth avenue, Seventy-seventh and Seventy-eighth streets.

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

At no time since the resumption of activity have conveyancers and lawyers been so busy in perfecting contracts, searching and recording titles, as during the past week. The Register's office has been crowded day after day, with parties anxious to place various instruments on record, and it will be seen elsewhere in our columns, that the number of transfers are exceedingly heavy. Among the contracts thus filed is the sale of ten lots on the block back of the Cathedral, recently purchased by ex-Mayor Ely, Augustus Page and others. In the above sale Mr. Page sells to Mr. Henry Villard eight lots on the east side of Madison avenue, from Fiftieth to Fifty first street, one lot on the north side of Fiftieth street, and one on the south side of Fifty-first street, for $270,000. Among other leading transfers of property is the sale of four lots on Fifty-seventh street, 600 feet west of Fifth avenue, to John C. Donnelly, for $150,000, and also, the sale of two large Sixty-ninth street lots, to Anthony Mowbray.

Among the transfers will also be found the sale of an irregular plot on the Boulevard, northeast corner of Sixty-second street, fronting 116.2 feet on the Boulevard and 81 7 feet, to John C. Thompson, Jr., for $129,000.

We hear of the sale of a large piece of Mott street property for manufacturing purposes, amounting to about $300,000, the particulars of which have not reached us.

No further sales of leading down-town parcels have been made during the week, but we understand that in the recent large purchase of Wall and Broad street property, the Seligmans, bankers, are interested as well as Mr. D. O. Mills It was reported during the week that the Charter Oak Life had sold more New street property, but we know authentically that this is not correct. On the contrary, the company has decided to add another story to No. 38 Broad street, and Nos. 34 and 36 New street, put in an elevator and thus furnish more office accommodations

Late yesterday afternoon it was rumored that the Washington Hotel property, on Broadway and the Battery, had been sold for warehouse purposes, but particulars of the contract could not be obtained.

No. 10 West Washington square, being a three-story and attic brick house with marble facings, and 42x60, and stable, has been sold by the G. G. Howland estate to Mr. Chas. G. Francklyn, for $90,000.

Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. have sold at private contract during the week, among other parcels, No. 26 East Thirty-fifth street, 24x55x98 9, a three-story brown stone house, to Mr. Robert Wade, for $26,500, also No. 13 West Twelfth street, 25x55, and two-story extension lot 103.3, to F F. Garretson, for $21,000. The same firm has also sold one lot on the south side of Fifty-fourth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $40,000 cash.

Mr. J. J. Clancy has sold at private contract two lots at the southwest corner of the Boulevard and Seventy-sixth street, for $26,000.

Messrs. Scott & Myers have sold two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, 100 feet west of Sixth avenue, for $13,500 cash.

The plot of land 87.9 feet front, running through from One Hundred and Twenty-fourth to One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, has been sold for $40,000; also five lots on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $38,000.

Messrs. Siegmund T. Meyer & Sons have sold at private contract the following property: One lot on north side of Eighty fourth street, between Madison and Fourth avenues, for $4,750; two lots and gore on the north side of One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, for $4,750; one lot on the north side of Ninetieth street, between Madison and Fifth avenues, for $13,500, and two lots on Ninety-seventh street, between Fourth and Lexington avenues, on private terms. They have also sold for the New York Life Insurance Company, two houses on One Hundred and Thirty-first street, between Madison and Fifth avenues, for $9,500 each, and one on the corner of Madison avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-first street, for $10,500. The same firm has sold three houses in Carroll street, Brooklyn, for $8,000 each.

Mr. W. J. Barnes has sold five lots on One Hundred and Eighth street, between Lexington and Fourth avenues, for $16,000; three lots on One Hundred and Fifteenth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, for $9,750; four lots on One Hundred and Fortieth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $5,500; and four lots on One Hundred and Thirty-second street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, for $17,000.

Messrs. Benner & Zeller, have sold at private contract, No. 379 East Tenth street, a four-story double tenement, 25x55x98, to Mr. G. Burkhard, for $10,500.

Frank Stevens, Jersey City, reports the following sale of houses by private contract, for the month of February; two-story and basement brick dwelling, 39x36 6, lot 75x46.6, No. 100 Grand street, to S. R. Marshall, 9,500; three-story and basement brick dwelling, 21.6x40x100, No. 223 Warren street, between Grand and Sussex streets, to A. Milne, $7,000; two-story and basement frame dwelling, 16x30x80, No 256 York street between Grove and Barrow streets, to W. W. Lee, $1,800; three-story and basement brick dwelling, 20x40x100, No. 213 Warren street, to Emrice A Dooley, $6,500; three-story and basement brick dwelling, 17.8 x32x75, No. 311 York street, between Jersey avenue and Varick street to Horace C. Wait, $6,000.

The lease is recorded of five buildings at the southwest corner of Broadway and Thirty-ninth street to Van Tassel & Kearney at $4,650 per annum.

Among the list of projected buildings will be found a notice of the nine-story large grocery warehouse to be erected by Mr. Francis H. Leggett at West Broadway, Franklin and Varick streets, to cost $130,000.

The following are the sales at the Exchange Salesroom for the week ending March 4:

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—The market has proven rather disappointing, and the selling interest rather lost advantage during the interval since our last report. Demand from all quarters was unexpectedly slow, and while the receipts were by no means liberal, they were sufficient, under the circumstances, to form a somewhat weighty surplus, and have forced down values about $1 per M. The weather appears to have been the principal drawback to the free progress of business, the difficulties attending out door work greatly retarding consumption and diminishing the inquiry. The downward tendency of values also acted as an inducement with buyers to stand off in order to secure the best terms possible before their necessities again compelled them to operate. The prospects for consumption, however, have in no way diminished, and with present obstructions removed, it is calculated the movement of supplies will rapidly increase. There is still an absence of anything from the Hudson River, and the prospect not favorable for an early resumption of navigation. Quotations stand at about $8.50@9.00 per M for Staten Island and Long Island, and $8 for Jerseys. Some Pales have also come to hand, and on these the rate is fixed at the moment at $4.00@4.50 per M, with only a light uncertain demand prevailing.

CEMENT.—Demand is good, and the market steadily strengthening on all grades. Of domestic, the accumulation is gradually working down to smal compass, and, unless the river opens very early, it is feared will be all exhausted, as there is little doubt of a continuation of the demand, and a larger consumption than usual this spring. It is understood that two or three meetings have already been held by the manufacturers of Rosendale with the idea of forming a combination for the incoming season, but, as yet, nothing positive appears to have been accomplished. A restriction of production to such limit as agreed upon was proposed, and also a uniform price to be strictly adhered to. It is thought however, that the latter plan will scarcely work, as at one cost all around the better, or favorite, brands wil get all the trade they can accommodate, while their less favored associates, unable to compete otherwise, will be lead to break the compact and work down cost as an attraction to draw back customers. On foreign cements there is also at the moment a strong tone and apparently much confidence in the future. It is, however, possible that over confidence may prevail in some quarters in view of the want of discrimination in the importation, both as to quantity and and quality. Consumers know pretty well by this time which are the best brands, and are not likely to be deceived by an inferior article.

HARDWARE.—Buyers are becoming somewhat more plenty, the mail orders are increasing, and quite generally business assumes a satisfactory position, with all evidences leading to the expectation of still greater improvement. A great many points in the interior are still quite difficult to reach except at great expense, but obstructions must soon be removed and an increased demand for supplies must follow. Occasional signs of irregularities are to be noted on prices, but as a general thing the tendency is to hold matters about steady, and the expectations are that a higher range still will be secured as soon as business shows more general life. The following new price sheet has been issued by Russell & Erwin Mf'g Company for "New Charter Oak" and "Daisy" Lawn Mowers: "Charter Oak," 8-in. $11, 10 in $13, 13-in. $16, 15 in. $18, 18-in. $21, discount 30 per cent.; 28 in Pony $80, 32 in horse $100, discount 40 per cent; "Daisy" 12-in $15, 14-in $17, 16-in $19, 18-in $21, discount 30 per cent.

The following new discount list is announced: Mayer's Hinges 60 and 10 per cent, Loose Pin Butts 55 and 10, Loose Pin Japanned 60 and 10, and Loose Joint Acorn Japanned 55 and 10.

The manufacturers of Cordage have made another advance on list, and now quote as follows. Manila Cordage, sizes above 12 thread and Hay Rope 14½c. do 12 thr'd (⅜ in diam) 15, and do 6 thr'd and 9 thr'd (½-in and 5-16-in diam) 15½; Manila Cordage Bolt Rope and Yarns 16, and do 6 thread and 9 thread 17; Manila Whale Lines, 16; Tarred Manila, 14; Fine Tarred Manila Lath Yarn, 15½; Sisal Rope, sizes above 12 thread and Hay and Hide Rope, 11½; do 12 thread (⅜-in diam) 12; do 6 thread and 9 thread (¼-in and 5-16-in diam) 12½; Tarred Sisal Lath Yarn, 11; Russia Hemp Tarred Cordage, 13; American Hackled Hemp Tarred Cordage, 13; Tarred American Lath Yarn, 12, fine Tarred American Lath Yarn, 13. Navy Oakum, 8½; U. S. Navy, 10; Best Oakum, 11; all net cash.

LATH.—The market has continued firm and pretty closely sold up, but shows no further special buoyancy at the moment, about $2.10 per M. being all that can fairly stand the test of actual cargo sale. A considerable amount of stock has been placed within the last week or so. Most of the principal dealers are now fairly stocked, and as the distribution proves a little disappointing the demand assumes a more careful form. Receivers, however, report a comparatively small number of cargoes afloat from the points of supply, and express a belief that they can be handled upon arrival without causing any serious depression in value.

LIME.—The situation continues entirely in sellers' favor, and we have again to record a strong and promising market. Indeed, receivers exhibit much confidence, and the prospects generally seem to indicate much greater chance for a further advance than any re-action on price. Not for many seasons has the indication of a full consumption been so encouraging as at present, and when the small amount of stock available is taken into consideration the market appears to be thoroughly fortified. The sudden close of navigation last fall caught all hands unexpectedly, a great many dealers being left with virtually no supply at all and the State manufacturers with so little that it will last but a few weeks, while the arrivals from the Eastward dropped to a mere nothing. The result is that the market is now somewhere in the neighborhood of 50,000 barrels short on its ordinary accumulation, with every prospect that a demand much in excess of the ordinary volume must soon develope. For the present former quotations are retained.

LUMBER.—Matters commence to brighten more generally, and the market as a whole is in promising shape, with the predictions of a better spring trade already showing some realization. As for some little time past buyers when they find stock right at hand and seeking a customer, are very apt to stand off as the immediate consumption is light, but against plans for the future the orders came in with greater freedom, and all mills in a position to enter into engagements are securing as much work as they can fairly attend to. Prices obtained are somewhat variable, according to delivery, but generally full, and now and then a customer in more than ordinary anxious mood will bid a pretty full rate, something indeed over the average, as an inducement to secure early delivery. A few offerings have been made from up the river for delivery after the resumption of navigation, but we cannot learn that any contracts were closed. Local distribution is on the increase, and orders are also commencing to come in again from out of town dependent points.

Spruce remains in about the same general position Buyers from ports along the coast between here and the sources of supply have since the middle of last month been sending in orders with freedom, and most of the mills in a situation to saw and deliver have all they can attend to, while some manufacturers who hope to get work early have made conditional engagements, and will have something to start on the moment opportunity offers. All reports from primary points are in consequence strong, and agents not only look for full figures on specials, but in many cases must refuse to take them except for very distant delivery. The spot supply has also found a good sale, better indeed than was expected, and this affords some encouragement. Randoms worth $16@$18, and specials, $18@$20, with extra difficult somewhat higher.

White Pine on a very fair consumptive demand, and comparatively full call for export, is gradually working into smaller and more compact compass, and holders are correspondingly strong and confident in their views, with extreme former rates in all cases insisted upon. Supplies will be more plenty when river navigation is fully resumed, but it will not pay to bring them down by rail. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $28@25 for South America do.; $15.50@16 50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow Pine for immediate delivery is not wanted on random offering, and the supply available has nominal value only. Buyers for future on special cuts, however, are plenty and anxious, and bidding very full figures in most cases without securing all the accommodation desired, as the mills generally are under contract for a large number of schedules, some deliveries extending into the summer. Indeed matters commence to shape a little like last season, and it looks as though prompt delivery could only be secured by bidding quite a full premium. We quote random cargoes at about $23 50 @25 per M.; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do: and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M. for rough, and $19@20 for dressed.

Hardwoods of desirable quality can scarcely be found outside of the small parcels held by one or two of the principal jobbers and some of the retailers. These, however, are also to a great extent off the market, as owners want them for their regular trade, and would not care much about selling even at a good premium. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do.; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do. culls, $18@20 do: cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ⅛ and ¼ inch. $25@27.50, and do. inch, $33@35 do.; hickory, $35@45 do., for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

Among the yard dealers the reports are generally cheerful and encouraging, and the market well sustained in all leading grades.

From among the lumber charters and engagements recently reported we select the following:

A Br brig, 99 tons, hence to Porto Rico, white pine lumber, $689; a Br brig, 271 tons, hence to Mayaguez, white pine lumber, $5.50, option of a second port, $5.75; an Am brig, 446 tons, and a barque, 387 tons, hence to Havana, white pine lumber; $4 75; a Br barque, 639 tons, and one, 761 tons hence to Montevideo or Buenos Ayres, lumber, $14@$14 50 net, up-river ports, $17, and back from West Coast Mexico to New York or Boston, wood, $21; an Am barque, 435 tons from Portland to Buenos Ayres, lumber, $14 net; a Br brig, 196 tons, from Jacksonville to Demerara, lumber, $9 50; a schr, 267 tons, from Wilmington, N C, to San Domingo City and Azua, lumber, and back to New York with logwood, &c, $2 700 and foreign port charges; a schr, 193 tons, from Buckville to Penobscot Bay, lumber, $8 50; a schr, 225 M lumber from Fernandina to New York, $7; a schr, 147 tons, hence to Jacksonville and back with lumber, $10.50 for the round; a schr, 121 tons, same voyage, $11; a schr, 325 M lumber, from Pensacola to New York or New Haven $8; a schr, 450 M lumber, from Pensacola to New York, $8; a schr, 375 M lumber, from Pensacola to a Sound port, $8 50; a schr, 200 M lumber, from Pensacola to Providence, $8; a schr, 175 M lumber, from Jacksonville to Portsmouth, N H, $9.50 a schr, 300 M timber, from Savannah to Baltimore, $6; a schr, 240 M lumber, from Savannah to Philadelphia, $6; two schrs, 400 and 200 M lumber, from Savannah to New York, $6, two schrs, from Suffolk, Va., to New York, white oak ties, 18c; a schr, 250 tons, hence to Savannah, coal, $1.75, and back with lumber, $6 50; a schr, 200 M lumber, from Jacksonville to Philadelphia, $7.50; a schr, 240 tons, from Pocosin River, Va., to New York, oak lumber, $5, and railroad ties, 2½c per running foot.

GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

THE WEST.

The following reports we obtain from the Northwestern Lumberman:

CHICAGO.

The weather for the past two weeks has been about as depressing in its effect upon the trade of the West, and particularly upon the lumber business, as the most diabolical weather prognosticator could desire. Heavy snow storms blocking the woods with deep drifts, detaining trains some times for days, have been the rule rather than the exception, and the trade in snow shovels has been far more extended than that in the larger classes of lumber. The past week has brought but little relief, as the western country is literally snowed under, and the orders which have reached this city are a matter of surprise in their extent, rather than of disappointment at their sparseness They have been in sufficient volume, however, to lead to the most encouraging anticipations as to the extent of the demand, when once the backbone of winter shall have been sufficiently broken to admit of the prosecution of outdoor employments.

The receipts of the past week have been slightly in excess of those of the corresponding week of last year, and to date, are 70 per cent. greater than those of 1880. The shipments of the past week, however, compare favorably under the circumstances, with those of the same period in 1880, and taking into consideration the fine weather which at that time prevailed, and contrasting it with the severity of the present season, rendering outdoor labor almost wholly impossible, that is a highly favorable showing which exhibits a trade fully equal, while not exceeding that to the same date in 1880.

Small timber is in great request, and very difficult to obtain; 3x12 joist, 20 feet long, which were selling slowly last fall at $14 are now quick at $17, and with but a limited supply to be had. The markets of Milwaukee and Racine have been drained of their supplies of this size to fill orders in this market, and we feel safe in saying that the available stock within reach of Chicago is almost wholly held by one firm in this city. Timber 6x8 and 8x8 inches is firm at $13 in exchanges among dealers, and one concern now stands prepared to take all desirable sizes of small timber that it can obtain at that figure The Chicago market is evidently destined to be cleaned out of all desirable joist and small timber now held in stock long before navigation opens to bring in a new supply, and the chances are that price lists will, before long, be revised to meet the increasing scarcity. With the demand for coarse lumber in the way of dimension sizes, a corresponding demand for other grades cannot fail to develop, in which prices are sure to sympathize, and it is the opinion of some of the shrewdest men in the trade that the yards, as a whole, will be in better shape to take the spring offerings, when they begin to arrive, than at any time in the past five years. The supply of Standard shingles is very low, and those who hold them are firm in their views. Some small lots have been sold by way of exchange among dealers, within the past few days, at $2.70.

HARDWOODS.—Reports from every direction assure us of the truth of our prediction awhile ago, that with a favorable winter for getting out logs the cut of hardwoods would exceed, in size, that of any former season. The winter, especially south of here, could not have been better for the business, and in Michigan and Wisconsin a little too much snow has been the only drawback. Every mill yard throughout the hardwood districts is full of logs, and the work of getting them is still going on. The advance in walnut has brought basswood in greater request, and more of that wood, heretofore regarded of little account, will be put in than usual. Some of our furniture manufacturers are now using it, instead of whitewood, for walnut-veneered work, and large quantities are used for purposes for which it was formerly ignored.

There will, in all probability, be a full supply of oak, a fair supply of maple and ash, and a moderate supply of walnut and cherry, but we shall be surprised if the cut of the last three woods named does not pass into second hands before it shall be upon stocks for two months. The demand for ash is unprecedented: no man who is at all conversant with the situation will assert that the call for walnut will ever again be satisfied, and cherry, especially here, is not likely to be abundant so long as a Chicago manufacturer sees no way to get a partial supply, except to bring it from West Virginia.

NEWS FROM THE LOGGERS.—The general situation at the camps is very much the same as it was a week ago. The weather, as far as our advices show, has been favorable in some sections and unfavorable in others, in which respect it is not materially different from the general run of weather during the past winter. Upon some of the streams a little snow has fallen, and the hauling is, consequently, worse than it was; on others, the depth of snow has been reduced a trifle, with a corresponding improvement. Averaging up the changes, one way and another, it seems altogether likely that the general conditions are neither much better nor much worse than they were at the time of our last report. In point of progress made, the week will probably compare favorably with previous ones, though there is no question but that loggers would like to have done much more than they actually accomplished. The main trouble experienced is in skidding, which continues, on most of the principal streams, to be exceedingly hard, up-hill work, owing to the great body of snow upon the ground Hauling is comparatively an easy matter, because roads can be made solid by the constant use to which they are subjected and the employment of sprinklers; but in getting the logs together so that they may be loaded upon the sleds, the deep snow forms an obstacle that is not easily surmounted. It is hardly possible yet to get at any trustworthy estimates of the probable product of the principal streams, and, therefore, not practicable to arrive at any idea of the quantity of logs that will be available for driving, when that part of the logger's work begins. In some districts the work is far enough along to render a full supply no longer a matter about which there is any doubt; but in other cases, where operations are not so well advanced, the men who are doing the work, and who should be most familiar with the situation and the prospect, profess to be unable to say what proportion of the expected cut is likely to be secured

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.

The railways of the Northwest have been again blockaded by snow storms which prevents shipments, except on very small sections of the road. Under such unfavorable conditions, it is remarkable that Minneapolis shipped 1 120,000 feet, while Eau Claire, Stillwater and St. Paul done a corresponding trade. No movement in regard to changing prices has been made, but the matter is under discussion, and something will shortly be done to test the disposition of the trade.

From three to four feet of snow in the woods of Minnesota and Wisconsin makes log hauling a slow business, but the boys are hard at work with the determination to put in a full cut. The universal opinion is that the quantity of logs which can be secured will not vary much from last year's figures. This is true of all the tributaries of the Mississippi river. As will be seen by the reports from the Black, Wisconsin, Chippewa, St. Croix and Rum rivers, the usual cut seems about secured now.

The chief thing to be feared now is a sudden break up of the rivers. The predicted sudden changes to occur during next month ought to be heeded by the loggers, and all possible preparation made against loss of logs, such as was suffered last year.

The amount of logs on the bank March 1st, on the streams will not vary much from these figures

	Feet.
Black	190,000,000
Wisconsin	1 5 000,000
Chippewa	4 0 000,000
St Croix	190,000,000
Upper Mississippi	200,000,000
Total	1,1 5,000,000

THE EAST

The following is from the Bangor (Me) Commercial:

Last fall when logs were bringing a good price, it was thought that with the coming winter there would be a general rush for the woods and that every man who could haul a log on the ice way would do so. Others predicted that in consequence of the immense cut lumber would sell at ruinous prices in the spring, and many of the operators would suffer financially. This may be partially true as regards the Penobscot, but on the Upper St. John it is wide of the mark, for it is estimated that the amount of logs cut on the Aroostook, Tobique and the small streams in their vicinity will not exceed 25,000,000 feet. Then again it is a poor way to figure the supply at market next year from the cut in the woods, for the drives may be hung up, as they often have been, and possibly leave a not over-large supply available.

THE PROVINCES.

The Toronto Monetary Times has the following on the Lumber Cut:

A year ago we were able to procure some estimates of the cut of lumber and timber in Canada which were of much interest to our readers. We print below some estimates now obtained from well informed sources as to the probable cut of lumber in the Muskoka and Georgian Bay districts, from which it will be seen that the result of this season's operations in those localities does not differ materially from that of last season. The table is compiled to show the points on water or rail at which the cut "comes out;" and the quantities agree, in many cases very closely with the estimates given for similar points last year. The total for the Muskoka district is now placed at 124,000,000 feet of sawn lumber, where last year's estimate was 108,000,000 feet. The Georgian Bay district cut, which was last year placed at 149,000,000, is now put down at 157,500,000 feet. The aggregate of these is thus 281,500,000 superficial feet, against 257,500,000 in the previous winter.

From the Midland district we are as yet without full information. Messrs. H. B. Rathbun & Son write us that they are getting out 33,000,000 of pine this season. Last year, at this time, the account from their territory (the Moira, Salmon and Napanee rivers) was 23,000,000 feet. It is reasonable to suppose that the abundance of snow which has fallen this winter, and the favorable weather for lumbering operations will tend to increase the cut upon the whole, but judging from the figures thus far furnished us, this increase will be less marked than is popularly supposed. There is much activity in lumbering in some of the western counties. Essex, for instance, is turning out more of her light woods, such as ash, balm-of-Gilead, elm, as well as stave and shingle bolts, than any previous season. We have not been furnished with any trustworthy estimate of the cut of the Ottawa River and tributaries.

The aggregate figures reached on the estimates are as follows:

	Sup'l Feet.
Georgian Bay District	157,500,000
Muskoka District	124,000,000
Total superficial feet	281,500,000

FOREIGN.

The Timber Trade Journal as follows:

LIVERPOOL.

There is very little new to record in the business of the past week, for it seems confined chiefly to retail orders of no large extent, but which, though small taken individually, may amount to a fair quantity in the aggregate. During the past few days the westerly winds have brought up several timber-laden vessels which have been detained long upon their voyages. These are chiefly from the pitch pine ports, and are mostly upon contracts made early in the season.

The demand continues quiet, which can only be expected, seeing the disturbed condition of the mining districts at present, and such will probably be the case for some time to come, as it cannot be expected that business will resume its wonted state until everything has settled down with a show of permanence. Meantime there is not much pressure to sell, and hence prices remain without material change; on the other hand, merchants will not, in the face of the present circumstances, readily enter into contracts for future supplies, seeing the stocks on hand and the moderate demand existing.

HULL.

We hear of no speculation with great English houses in connection with Baltic stocks this year, but there have been heavy operations of this class in American pine, the effects of which it is anticipated will be to hold prices firm, if not to advance them; but this being a class of goods only lightly dealt in in Hull, its influence will be little felt, except it be in common pine, which, if very high, will cause an extra demand to be made upon whitewood.

GLASGOW.

The arrivals of timber at Clyde ports during the week consist of three cargoes of pitch pine, a cargo of teak, and a cargo of greenheart, also parcels of walnut and staves, &c.—altogether about 5,000 loads.

No deals of any description have been landed at Glasgow for some time past.

Spruce is specially inquired for, and, as the stock here is almost exhausted, a fresh import of fair dimensions would command good prices.

A cargo of Belize (Honduras) mahogany has arrived at port of call, and been ordered round to Glasgow to discharge. The brokers, Messrs. William Connal & Co., announce, per advertisement column, that the sale will be held on an early day. There has been no importation of this description of mahogany to Glasgow for about three years.

This market is at present open for imports of Mexican mahogany, the last having been sold on November 2, 1880. The first arrivals would meet with ready sale, as it is seldom we are so long without an import, and stocks in dealers' and consumers' hands are at a very low point.

No auction sales of American woods have taken place during the week.

The importation last year into the United Kingdom, without taking into account staves or mahogany, consisted of 6,206,778 loads of hewn and sawn wood, which are equivalent to 310,338,900 cubic ft., or nearly 3,725,000,000 super ft. To form an idea of t is stupendous quantity, it may be mentioned that there would be a sufficient number of blocks 1 ft. cube, if placed end to end, to stretch a girdle twice round the earth, and leave almost a sufficient number over to extend through the centre of it.

THE EARLIEST TIMBER EXPORTS FROM AMERICA.—New Jersey appears to have been the first of the American States to initiate the exportation of timber to Great Britain. Governor Franklin, in his address to the then colonists in 1765, pointed out that the English Parliament had sent into the colonies several boxes containing samples of the different sorts of fir timber and deals imported into England from Riga and Norway, and an accompanying circular with the prices they were sold at. "One of these boxes," said Governor Franklin, "I have received, and shall order it to be shown to any inhabitant of the colony who may incline to see them. This you may depend on, that every species of timber has for many years been rising in price in Great Britain, and that there is scarce anything wanting to make a ready vent for oak, fir, pine, cypress, and cedar from America but a knowledge of the scantlings wanted for each particular use, and to cut for that market good wood in the right season."

METALS.—COPPER.—Ingot has continued to sell moderately, with the movement confined almost solely to an ordinary run of small jobbing parcels. Holders, however, do not appear to have lost confidence in any way, and offerings of stock are made only on a basis of full rates. Lake generally quoted at 19⅛@19⅜ cash. Manufactured copper has been fairly active and held about steady. We quote as follows: Brazier's Copper ordinary size over 16 oz per square foot, 28c. per lb; do do do. 16 oz and over 12 oz per square foot, 30c per lb; do do. 10 and 12 oz, per sq foot, 32c per lb; do do, lighter than 10 oz per sq foot, 34c per lb; circles less than 84 inches in diameter, 31c per lb; do 84 inches in diameter and over, 34c per lb; segment and pattern sheets, 31c per lb; locomotive fire box sheets, 28c per lb; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz per sq foot, 26c per lb and Bolt Copper, 28c per lb. IRON.—Scotch Pig has sold moderately in small lots as wanted for near-by consumption, and the market made but little variation. Holders in most cases appear confident, but find nothing to give the market a decided stimulus. We quote at $22.00@24 50 per ton, according to brand and delivery. American pig has sold in a somewhat irregular manner since our last, but the general movement footed up fairly and prices were well maintained on the upper qualities, though for the more ordinary grades the market weak and a trifle off. Stocks are ample, and there will be a larger quantity available with the re-opening of navigation. We quote at $25@26 per ton for No 1; $22@22.50 do. do. for No. 2, and 20.50@21.00 for forge. Rails have again found a free demand for all months up to the end of this year, and on the near deliveries prices are much firmer owing to the overcrowded condition of the mills. Old Rails have been more freely offered and weakened in price, as buyers were not anxious to operate We quote rails at $45@48 for iron, and $60@62 for steel, according to delivery. Old rails $27@29 per ton; scrap, $29@31. Manufactured iron has found only a moderate uncertain demand, and the market was quite unsettled with prices mainly in buyer's favor. Latterly, however, the offering was more careful and appearances more steadier. We quote Common Merchant Bar, ordinary sizes at 2 3@2.5c. from store, and Refined at 2.5@3 5c.; wrought beams at 3c. Fish plates quoted at 2⅝@2¼c.; track bolt and nuts, 3½@3⅝c.; railway spikes, 3c.; tank, 3@3.1c.; angle, 3c.; best flange, 6c.; and domestic sheet on the basis of 3½c. for common Nos. 10@16. Other descriptions at corresponding prices, with 1-10c. less on large lots from cars. LEAD—Domestic Pig has been in larger supply and the market also receiving some stock from abroad, a weak tone has prevailed on prices. The possibility of better terms, however, did not appear to stimulate buyers to any extent, and demand has continued slow and uncertain throughout. We quote 4¾@5c. The manufactures of lead are steady and quoted: Bar, 6c; Pipe 6½c., and sheet, 7c., less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin lined pipe 15c. Block Tin pipe, 40, on same terms. TIN—Pig has shown considerable irregularity with quite a downward pitch on value at one time. Stocks, however, are under fair control, and owners of late have more generally stood out for full rates. We quote 19¾@19⅞c. for Australian, 19¾@@20c. for Straits, 19¾@20c. for English Refined, 19½@19½c. for do. Common. Tin Plates have found only a very slow and uncertain sale and while the general range of values underwent no decided change, the tendency was mainly in buyers favor. We quote I C. Charcoal, third cross assortment, $5.75@6.00 for Allaway grade, and $6.12½@6 25 for Melyn grade; I C Coke $4 87½@5.00 for B V. grade; $5.12½@5 25 for Ysptty grade; Charcoal terne $5 12½@5.37½ for Allaway grade, 14x20; $11@11.12½ for do, 20x28; Coke terne, $4.75@4.87½ for Glais grade, 14x20, and $10@10,1 ½ for do, 20x28—all in round lots. Spelter has sold slowly and only in small lots, with the market void of noticeable features Quoted at about 5½@5¾ for domestic. Sheet Zinc is in light request, fair supply and about steady at 7@7¼c, according to quality and quantity.

NAILS.—Business has been somewhat irregular in character again, but still a pretty full general total of sales is reached, and holders of the stock retain a fair degree of advantage. Supplies are large enough for all wants but not too excessive to be easily controlled, and former rates are adherred to with some degree of firmness, with an advance mentioned asked at the close.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $3@3 10; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg, $3.45@3 55; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg, $3.70@3.80; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3.95@4 00; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4.70@4.80; 3d, fine, per keg, $5 45@5.55; 2d, per keg, $5 45@5 55.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3.45@3 55. Floor, Casing and Box, $3.95@4.45. Finishing, $4.20@4.95.

CLINCH NAILS.

PAINTS AND OILS.—A gradual increase in the demand is reported, especially on the staple descriptions of stock and the market has quite a hopeful tone. Business lacks good positive drive as yet, but dealers are satisfied that the movement is very promising, and confidently expects a still better condition of affairs as the month progresses. Local consumption will, it is expected, prove very full, and advices at hand indicate that accumulations in the country are moderate, with dealers anxious to replenish. Prices ruling about as before. Leads seem a little unsettled but are without decline. Linseed oil has met with only a moderate and somewhat uncertain demand again, but the market remained pretty firm as holders had stocks pretty well under control and there was no competition from the West. We quote at about 57@58c for City and 62@63c for Calcutta from first hands.

PITCH.—The demand somewhat irregular but reached a very good general total, and the market retains a steady uniform tone. We quote at $2.00@2.15 per bbl, for City, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—A better feeling has prevailed and some recovery on prices is to be noted, the weak holders having about all sold out and stocks left standing under good control. Advices from the primary points have been encouraging and assisted in supporting the general market although at the advance asked buyers are somewhat more cautious. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 46½@48 per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Holders in most cases carry stocks with much confidence and only upon a full limitation of value. The demand shows some caution and moves out a very full amount of stock from time to time, and the accumulation makes little increase. We quote $2.50@2.75 for Newberne and Washington, and $2.62@3.00 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The portable grate and warm air furnace combined, for sale by the Open Stove Ventilating Company, Beekman street, is a very efficient arrangement for heating, as it combines all the ventilation and cheer of a grate with the economy and circulation of a furnace. It is complete in itself, and stands out of the way under the mantel. It requires no hot air flues nor smoke pipe, the brick flues, common to all fireplaces, serving for smoke flue. It takes air from out of doors or from the room in which it is placed, and delivers heated air into the room through an ornamental basket-like opening above the fire. It fits into any ordinary mantel opening.

ABOUT OURSELVES.

On Saturday, the 19th of March, THE REAL ESTATE RECORD will enter upon the fourteenth year of its existence. It was started in what were apparently prosperous times, when real estate commanded high figures and speculation was rampant. Our fourteenth anniversary will be signalized by a new departure in several respects. In the first place, THE RECORD will appear in an entirely new dress, and will, we trust, present a handsome typographical appearance. The price hereafter will be $6 per annum, instead of $10, as heretofore; single copies, 15 cents. The reduction, a very considerable one, will be made without curtailing any of the departments in this publication. On the contrary, we expect to add very greatly to the interest of the paper by adding new features. What they will be our patrons will discover in due time, for we prefer to be judged by what we do rather than by what we promise.

We also contemplate publishing an additional sheet, to be issued on some other day than that of THE RECORD, which will be devoted more exclusively to matters affecting real estate situated in the immediate vicinity of New York. It will also contain much that will be of the utmost value to business men generally, and all subscribers to THE RECORD who have paid for their subscriptions will receive this paper free.

Harlem people are in trouble. They complain that rents have advanced from 15 to 30 per cent. There are, it seems, sufficient new buildings to accomodate ten thousand additional people who may care to live in that part of the city. Some of the tenants are turning their eyes towards Brooklyn, only to find practically the same condition of things, while others will cross the Harlem River. But turn about is fair play. The tenants had the best of it up to last year and the upward surge of rentals was to have been expected. Everybody is making more money than he did two years since or for many years previous, and the landlord shares in the general prosperity and rise in prices. Rents will be much higher before they are lower everywhere.

Besides the rise in rents, residents of Harlem have another complaint. The storekeepers are suffering. The elevated road, although it brings population to the upper districts of the city, injures the storekeeper, as customers prefer to deal in the larger and cheaper establishments down town. This paper has always pointed out that the tendency would be to concentrate trade in the great down town establishments. The Local Reporter of Harlem is authority for the statement, that there are more dispossess warrants in the hands of the Ninth District Court than was ever before known. These are mostly against the occupants of small stores, who have found their business unprofitable during the past year.

HOW THE NEW CABINET AFFECTS NEW YORK.

It is not the province of this journal to discuss matters political, except so far as they affect the price of real estate and securities generally. A few words may not be out of place, touching the influence of the new administration upon the trade of the country and the probable price of realty.

James G. Blaine, the Secretary of State, believes in the rebuilding of the steam marine of the United States. He is anxious the country should again have a commerce of its own, that is to say, that our immense exports and imports should be carried in vessels which bear the American flag. He favors subsidies, so as to encourage steamship lines to all parts of the world. So far, therefore, as the influence of James G. Blaine can be exerted, it will be directly in favor of adding to the wealth of the metropolis. For every steamship line will pay its tribute to New York, and nine out of ten of the new American ships, will clear from this port and add to the profits of our merchant princes.

Secretary of the Treasury Windom is the sworn foe of corporate monopolies. He believes in some oversight by Congress of the transportation lines, so as to protect the trade of the country against extravagant tolls. If he should succeed, it will make business more profitable by freeing trade from the heavy exactions of the railroads. But Secretary Windom has made a special study of water ways, as competitors against railroads, to keep down prices. In exhaustive reports to the Senate of the country, he has shown how the lakes, the Erie Canal, the Hudson River and the Mississippi, can be utilized in the interest of trade and to protect the commercial community against the heavy charges of the railroads. Some of his views may be deemed extreme or extravagant, but obviously all his efforts will be in a direction that will enhance the value of merchandise, increase the trade of the country and incidentally benefit the commerce of this great port.

Then, President Garfield is outspoken in his determination to add to the commercial importance of the United States. Then, this cabinet is strongly bi-metallic. It favors the using of both silver and gold. Secretary Blaine is as earnest on this point as are any of the silver men of the West. A bi-metallic conference is about to meet in Paris on the 19th of April. It is to determine the ratio between gold and silver. It will recommend free coinage of silver, the world over. Of course, the action of the conference must be referred to the respective governments which send representatives. But there is scarcely a doubt, that if there is anything like a unanimous agreement, all the nations will glady consent thereto. The mere fact of an agreement however, without ratification, will enhance the price of silver to very near the ratio determined upon. As all additions to the currency give a "fillip" to prices, we may expect it will be followed by a stimulus to business the world over. As the United States is the greatest silver producer among the nations, stocks will be bulled and the markets will all advance. Our experience previous to 1873, showed that silver was undervalued in the standard dollar of 412½ grains, for the white metal left this country for the Latin Union, where the valuation was 3 per cent higher for silver. There is a current impression due to the amazing ignorance of the writers on this subject in the daily press, that the normal relations of silver to gold would demand more silver in our dollar; but it will be found when the conference meets, that it will adopt either the American ratio, or, what is still more probable, the ratio in the five franc piece, which values silver at 3 per cent more than we do in our coinage. But, however, this may be decided, the remonetization of silver and its free coinage means an enormous addition to, and active use of, the money metals of the world. All additions to the currency, whether of gold, silver or paper, involve higher prices, and this means a great addition to the business prosperity of the county and the metropolis.

THE SITUATION IN THE STREET.

The past week has been a doubtful and feverish one, so far as dealings in stock securities were concerned. The volume of transactions fell off and every one was waiting developments from Washington. At first it was argued that the new administration meant inflation, and that naturally Secretary Windom would do what he could to make things pleasant for the Banks and the Stock Exchange. Hence, there has been a great deal of bull talk during the week,

Higher prices were predicted for everything, and then the large exports and the diminished imports made it likely that gold would continue to pour in from the other side. Indeed, there is quite a large quantity now on the way. This, however, was due to the heavy European purchases made in our stock market during the recent panic. We had stopped importing gold, but during the panic exchange fell and gold was drawn against it. Unless a special effort is made by the administration, a decided bull market is not to be expected. Had a practical refunding bill been passed by Congress, everything was ready for a surge to higher prices. But, at the present writing, there is not much hope of an extra session of Congress, and the elements of a great bull campaign, apart from the general prosperity of the country, do not exist. It is true the Secretary of the Treasury can purchase some $30,000,000 of bonds between now and the close of the fiscal year, June 30th, but to do so imperils his reserve and the credit of the country. If gold does not come from Europe this spring, we do not see what there is to expect in the way of inflation, and the sensible prospect is a strong but rather dull market, with a chance for downward slumps in case there is any doubt about crops, or should money become tight because of the April settlements.

The acceptance by Secretary Windom of $5,000,000 of 6 per cent bonds at the market price opens the door to combinations of capitalists to make money easy or tight at their will. Ex-Secretary Sherman never offered better terms than par and accrued interest. At the present writing, it does not seem possible for the banks to get back their $17,000,000 in greenbacks to retire the circulation.

There is, however, a more hopeful view of the condition of the market for the next six weeks. At the present rate of exchange, gold importations would be profitable. The "Parthia" has just brought in $500,000 in gold bars. Exports continues large. Then, as to the withdrawal of the currency, the National Banks deposited in all $18,864,434 of lawful money; $1,287,500 was returned to the banks, leaving $17,576,934. Of this sum, Secretary Sherman returned to the street about $6,000,000. This left locked up in the Treasury $11,500,000 of lawful money, that two weeks ago was in the bank reserves. But the bond purchases by Secretary Windom reduced this sum to $5,112,000. So that it is estimated that the total result of the recent action of the banks in depositing greenbacks leaves them only about $6,400,000 worse off than they were before the Senate passed the refunding bill. It is in the power of Secretary Windom to return to the banks the lawful money deposited by them, but if this should be deemed imprudent, he has authority to buy nearly $30,000,000 of bonds between now and the close of the fiscal year, or he can allow Government money to accumulate in the National Banks. This last, however, is a slow process. The whole world is dealing in this market, and prices may keep up during April.

THE MECHANICS LIEN LAW IN THE LEGISLATURE.

A bill was introduced in the Assembly on Wednesday last, by Mr. Dayton of New York, which proposes to still further complicate the already complicated enough mechanics lien law. This bill provides that the owner shall not pay the builder or contractor the claims of mechanics and laborers for work done on a building until these men shall have been paid, unless the builder or contractor shall file with the County Clerk a statement under oath, showing that all such parties have been paid, or are fully secured, or that the amount claimed by any of them is disputed. Falsely making such statement renders the offender subject to prosecution and punishment, as in cases of perjury. If the owner shall pay the builder or contractor before the filing of such a statement, the claim and lien of any workman, mechanic or material man is not to be affected by the payment. The bill also restores the provision of the law of 1863, making the owner liable to a personal judgment for any amount found due from him to the contractor. Mr. Dayton states that these provisions are intended to carry out the original purposes of the Lien law, purposes to which the courts have seemed hitherto powerless in great measure to give effect. Consequently dishonest and irresponsible builders have been enabled to thrive on half of their payments and contracting owners have, according to law, taken back the property, with all improvements, under "blanket mortgages," while the laborer, mechanic and material man for the most part, and perhaps wholly, unpaid stand looking at the work, brick, stone, &c., without remedy for the wrong, and in some cases financially ruined.

AMENDING THE LAW AS TO FIRE ESCAPES.

A bill was presented in Assembly on the same day by Mr. Williams, of New York, providing for amendments to the law relative to fire escapes. The amendments confine the action of the law as to compelling fire escapes to be placed on buildings to tenement houses proper and lodging houses. They also remove its operations from first class apartment houses. It is contended by supporters of this bill that disastrous complications have arisen in the erection of apartment houses by reason of the working of the law as it now stands. One of the complications is described as a loss of ten feet of frontage on the avenues in corner lots and the disarrangement of the interior by obnoxious shafts altogether foreign to the proper uses of such buildings.

NOTES AND ITEMS.

The McCarthy special committee has adopted an amendment reducing the Park Commission to one member, and making that one the Commissioner who has the longest to serve.

The Department of Docks advertise that it will receive estimates for furnishing materials consisting of small cobble, rip rat and broken stones, sand, spruce and white oak timber until March 16th.

The new school building on 46th street, between 2d and 3d avenues, is nearly ready to be painted. The trustees will receive proposals for the painters work and materials until Monday the 21st of March.

The County Clerk's office is to be enlarged by adding the space in the vestibule of the basement, between the northerly entrance and the rotunda, and between the centre door of the said entrance and the County Clerk's office as it now stands.

Commissioner Thompson certifies to the Board of Aldermen that the safety, health and convenience of the public requires that Broadway, from 18th to 22d street, shall be repaired with granite block pavement.

The tide of immigration promises to rise this year above the remarkable high-water mark of 1880. Already it has begun to flow. A German steamer landed 666 persons at Castle Garden on Tuesday last, an extraordinary number for a date thus early in the season.

The walks in Central Park, owing to the severity of the weather, are in a wretched condition, the concrete in many places being full of holes through which the mud oozes and makes, in connection with the tar, a disgusting mixture. The drives, however, for the time of year are in a fairly good state.

Rents in Greenpoint are being advanced from five to fifteen per cent. according to locality, desirable houses situated near the ferry, being in the greatest demand. There have been a large number of new two story dwellings built lately, designed to accommodate one family each and these houses are renting briskly. Agents say that all applicants for whole houses are from New York.

Mr. Vanderbilt in a recent interview with a reporter of the Herald says:

"New York is bound to be always the great metropolis of America." Mr. Vanderbilt said, in reply to a question as to the rivalry of other cities, "The other great cities will also grow, to be sure; but their growth will only help New York all the more. With every year, I think, New York is bound to come more and more into the foreground, The moneyed interests of the country will always centre here and its ratio of increase in money and moneyed position will continue as great in the next fifty years as it has in the past. Every town, village and hamlet throughout the country feels the effect of Wall street."

Salem H. Wales appeared before the Senate Committee on Cities this week in support of two bills introduced by Senator Astor. One of these bills appropriates $60,000 annually for four years to come for the enlargement of the Metropolitan Museum. The other bill forbids the construction of any more buildings within the limits of Central Park. Mr. Wales stated, in relation to this bill, that applications were constantly being made for permission to erect buildings in the Park. It would be wise, in his opinion, to pass the bill, as it would remain in force more than a hundred years to come, and would control the actions of all kinds of Park Commissioners. There was danger, if some such bill was not passed, that the Park would gradually be covered with public buildings. The committee seemed favorably disposed toward both bills.

The landlord in Chicago is full of joy on account of the rapid appreciation of rents, which are from 15 to 50 per cent. higher than they have been. Houses which two years ago rented for $30 to $80 per month are now bringing from $50 to $125. In the business portion, one case is cited of a firm who last year paid $5,000 being asked to pay $9,000 for a three years' lease, and, after uselessly looking around for something more desirable, was compelled to come to terms. Wholesale firms on State street in many instances are compelled to pay double the price of last year.

ABOUT MINES.

The fall in the price of Horn Silver will not be a surprise to those who have carefully read these columns. This mine contains probably the greatest amount of ore in sight of any similar property in the world. But side by side in the same vein are three to four different kinds of ore, some free milling, another section roasting, and then base metal. It varies from foot to hanging wall. This mine, therefore, requires peculiar working and the widest scientific knowledge. The property was capitalized at immense figures and, from the standing and repute of its promoters, commanded extravagant prices on the market. A year and a half ago people considered themselves fortunate who purchased it at 20; it is selling in the neighborhood of 10 to-day, and will probably go lower. And yet the best scientific experts have said there was over $27,000,000 worth of ore in sight. Then the management blundered and erected smelting works at Chicago instead of Salt Lake. Whatever its price, however, Horn Silver will always be regarded as a phenomenal mine.

Eureka Consolidated is selling at over 23. This has been the best dividend paying property sold on the market. It never failed to pay dividends except when a lawsuit was pending. For years it paid $2 and $3 a month. It has paid 50 cents a month for the last year, but, judging from the price, it looks as if higher dividends are expected. It has been sinking a new shaft for some eight months past, and doubtless the cross-cuts are now nearing the ore body. The mine adjoining (the Richmond Consolidated), owned in England, is the most permanent, prosperous mine now being worked in the world. It has sufficient ore in sight to pay dividends for twenty years to come. Its stock is not on this market.

The Silver Cliff region is literally under the weather. The roads are impassable, and it is impossible to get anything to or from the mines. We will soon know the results from the new Silver Cliff mill. A great deal depends upon how this works. Should the "wet process" prove successful, Silver Cliff stock will soon double up, for there is no doubt at all as to the richness and the immense quantity of ore in sight. Our own private advices make the success of the new mill doubtful. A great deal depends on it. Its success will be the making of the Silver Cliff region, for at least four new mills would be promptly under way. The owners of the Game Ridge property have their money ready to put up a splendid eighty stamp mill, and their superintendent, at last accounts, was anxiously watching the workings of the new Silver Cliff mill. In straightening out an old shaft on the Game Ridge property, a large body of ore was struck, portions of which will average $200 to the ton.

There is an improvement in the ore of the Miner Boy. This is the property adjoining the Colorado Prince, a mine which a number of New York gentlemen bought upon the report of Professor Newberry. His statements were not borne out in the workings of the property, but new developments are said to be more favorable.

Chrysolite has been stronger this week, and with reason. This property is now honestly and conservatively managed; there is $200,000 in the treasury, and, as it has a great amount of unexplored territory, we think it a good purchase at present prices.

The disgraceful dickering in Hibernia continues. Why will people deal in stocks manipulated by notorious rascals? The same names come to the front in this deal that were rendered unsavory in nearly all the other Leadville deals. What a pity there is no law to make an example of these great mining swindlers.

Matters are excessively dismal on the Comstock, but, as a gamble, we would not be surprised if anything on the whole list was not a purchase. John Mackey is returning from Europe, it is said, with the control of Sutro Tunnel in his pocket, and Jim Fair will soon be relieved from his Senatorial duties and will be at his old post. There will be music in the air on the old lode before the summer is over.

There is trouble in the Bodie management. The Bodie company claims to own the Jupiter just east of it. All the rich ledges in the Bodie are on its eastern border and run in the Jupiter. The developments in the latter mine are first class, but, as its title is in dispute, the stock has sold down. A Mr. Yerrington, who represents ex-Senator Sharon, has taken up the cause of the Jupiter claimants and, at last accounts, the lawsuit was pending, as to the rights in the matter, in San Francisco. Now it leaks out that Yerrington and his friends have been buying Bodie stock, with the view of ousting the present management and so taking care of the interest of the stockholders of the Jupiter. This accounts for the high price of Bodie stock, and it may go higher between now and June, when the annual election will be held. It is not likely there will be any developments in Bodie until after the contest is decided.

The Father de Smet is a good mine, but is selling for rather more than it is worth, while its dividends are only 25 cents a month and it has new stamps to put up. The management is mixed, people representing the Bank of California having as much to say as the owners of the Home stake.

Nothwithstanding low rates on dwellings, and exceptionally low rates on other property, it is believed by most of our best city underwriters that the tide has turned in this locality, and that the local business of the city proper is destined to resume its old time condition of profitableness to he companies. The losses upon city risks have been severe to a few offices during the last twelve months, but, on the whole, the experience has been healthy. Some of the city companies escaped with scarcely a respectable scorching. The Peter Cooper, for instance, lost less than $2,000 during the entire year. There are signs of improvement in rates outside of the dry goods quarter, and there seems to be a concurrence of opinion that the demand is considerably in advance of former seasons. We were shown the monthly city registers of two local companies lately, which exhibited a net increase of premiums over twelve months ago of forty per cent., and the loss this year is a trifle against respectable sums in the same period of last year.—The Spectator.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

☞ For list of lots and houses for sale see pages vi and vii of advertisements.

To the frequenters of the Exchange Salesroom the week has been dull and uninteresting, the character of the various pieces of property offered at auction only exciting a local interest, and but little competition.

The falling off in interest in the Stock Exchange may soon lead speculators to turn their attention to other fields of investments. But the product market is dull. Cotton has had a serious decline. There is no special activity in merchandise of any kind, so real estate is all that is left. Purchases are being made to-day with a view to a decided bull market further along. The connection between the Metropolitan West Side road and the New York & Northern has been officially announced, and trains will soon be running to Boston and beyond Brewster Station. Forehanded speculators are waking up to the possibilities in the Twenty-fourth Ward, in Yonkers and beyond.

Among the sales of unimproved property during the week, four Ninth avenue lots were sold by Richard V. Harnett, bringing an average of $3,000 for 20 feet front. The same auctioneer sold one lot on 103d st., 145 E. Madison av., containing 25 feet frontage and running through to 104th street, for $5,800, or an average of $2,900 each. Full particulars of the rest of the sales made will be found below.

Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son sold the four-story brick building No. 42 Water st. for $13,250, Mr. N. L. Cort being the bidder and buyer. The same auctioneer disposed of some property in Allen and Cherry streets, particulars of which are given in another column.

For the coming week several sales are announced which bid fair to bring to the salesroom at least a crowded attendance. On Tuesday the property known as Odd Fellows Hall, at Grand and Centre streets, will be sold to the highest bidder by Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co, with Morris Wilkins acting as auctioneer.

It was built by the Odd Fellows Hall Association on June 5th, 1847. There was a great parade at the time, and it was supposed that as a speculation it would be profitable. And so it was for a time; but the upward movement of population has induced one lodge after another to seek other quarters. The capital stock is $100,000, and it is supposed it will bring more than that in the market, as it is solidly built and is in the centre of a manufacturing district. It is five stories in height, has a frontage of 70 feet 10 inches on Grand street, 76 feet on Centre street, and 111 feet 4 inches on Baxter street.

There are so many old New Yorkers who have pleasant remembrances connected with this building that we shall be surprised not to see many of them in attendance at the sale. The building is in good repair and can readily be altered for manufacturing purposes. The property will be sold subject to a mortgage of $60,000.

The same auctioneer will during the week offer valuable property on Bond street near Broadway, also No. 156 East 30th street, also No. 132 East 16th street, and No. 661 Lexington avenue.

Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son will sell on Tuesday, by order of the executors of Louis Durr, Nos. 49, 51 and 55 Ann street, also the brick houses and lot on Thompson street near Bleecker street. For full particulars of this sale see advertisement. Other property will be sold by the same auctioneers on 10th street, West 4th street, and City Hall place.

Mr. Richard V. Harnett will have his usual complement of property to dispose of, much of it of a character inviting to those looking for property from which they will be able to realize an income. We refer investors to the advertisement of Mr. Harnett, which is in its usual column.

The sale of the seventeen lots on Manhattan square, Seventy-sixth, Seventy-seventh and Seventy eighth streets and Ninth avenue, belonging to the estate of Alfred Wagstaff, deceased, is deserving of particular attention from any one desiring property well located and sure to command a ready sale, at good figures, in the immmediate future at any advance on anything it will bring at this time.

The Carman estate, or rather the portion left unsold at the last sale, will be again put up at auction on the 6th of April.

Jere Johnson will sell two hundred lots situated in Brooklyn, also three three-story brick houses, on Tuesday, at the Exchange Salesroom

GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.

The week has not been a prolific one in the matter of private sales reported, principally for the reason that buyers are more or less influenced by the prevailing tone of uncertainty which just now is a feature in all commodities.

There is excellent authority for again repeating the rumor that John Mackey, the Bonanza King, has purchased the Stevens property, on Fifth avenue, corner Fifty-seventh street, for a family residence. The price is said to have been $750,000. Mr. Mackey, at last accounts, was on his way from Paris, and his settlement in New York means the further transfer of mining interests to this city. The California colony, including John Mackey, James R. Keene, D. O. Mills, C P. Huntington and hundreds of minor West coast people, have added very greatly to the wealth and the price of realty of the metropolis.

In our column of transfers will be found the sale made by Cyrus A. Sears for the trustees of Daniel Paine, deceased, to Robert and Ogden Goelet of the plot of ground at the southeast corner of Broadway and Thirty second street, containing 105.9 on Broadway, with a depth on Thirty-second street, of 126.10, the rear being 93.9 and the other side running to Broadway, 89 2. The price paid was $405,000.

Mr. John D. Crimmins has sold two lots on the south side of Sixty-ninth street, near Madison avenue, for $66,000; also three lots on Fifty-ninth street, near Sixth avenue, fronting Central Park, for $65,000.

The plot of sixteen lots on Lexington avenue, Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh streets has been sold for $165,000.

Two lots on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, 125 east of Sixth avenue, have been sold for $9,000.

On One Hundred and Fifteenth street, 300 east of Second avenue, four lots which were recently purchased by Mr. Freystadt have been sold to Mr. Max Bauer for $10,500. This transaction pays a profit of $1,500 to the seller who had bought them on a ninety days. contract.

Frederick Zittel, of 1026 Third avenue, has sold one of Breen Nason's new houses on Sixty-second street, near Madison avenue, for $30,000. The same broker has sold lots 41, 43, 45 and 47 East Sixtieth street, each one to a private individual for occupancy, for $30,000 each. Also, six lots—three on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and three on One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $45,000.

Mr. Isaac E. Wright has sold one of his new houses on the south side of One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, No. 58, near Madison avenue, 17x50x76, for about $15,000.

Messrs. Freeman & Fry have sold the four lots on the north west corner of Lexington avenue and Ninety-second street, 100x105, for $25 500. Also, two full lots on the south side of One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, for $7,500. Also, on One Hundred and Thirty-first street, south side, 392 east of Eighth avenue, 32.2x99.11, for $5,150. The same firm has sold a large tract of timber land in Western Virginia, for $200,000.

Messrs Barton & Whittemore report the sale of four lots on Seventy-sixth street, between Madison and Fourth avenues, for $52,000 with a builders' loan. Also on Eightieth street, between Madison and Fifth avenues, 42x102.2, for $30,000. Also two lots on Ninetieth street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues, for $8,500.

The same firm have sold one house on Fifty-sixth street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues, for $21,000. Also house and lot corner of Tenth avenue and Forty-ninth street, for $17,000. Also four houses on Delancey street, near Goerck, for $39,000.

The purchase by the Metropolitan Opera House Company of the block of ground on Broadway, Seventh avenue, Thirty-ninth and Fortieth streets, would have been completed, had it not have been for the demand of one of the lessees who wants $22,500 for his lease. It seems too bad that on an amount involving over $600,000, a sum like this should be permitted to stand in the way.

Our great railway kings expect to have new offices of a somewhat more pretentious character than those they have hitherto occupied. William H. Vanderbilt is about to remodel and enlarge his building on the southeast corner of Beekman and Nassau streets, at a cost of $98,000. The structure is to be raised to a uniform height of eight stories, with a frontage of 83.10 feet on Nassau street, and 67 5 on Beekman street. The first floor is fitted up for stores, and the others for suites of offices. Work will be begun early in May.

Mr. Jay Gould will soon commence the erection of a new five-story brick building, Nos. 31 and 32 Park row, which is to cost $60,000. It will have a frontage on Park row of 48.6 feet, a depth of 85 feet, the rear 52 feet. This is quite distinct from the building Mr. Gould is erecting for the World newspaper, which will front on Theatre alley. This last will be a two-story and basement building.

The new building projected by D. O. Mills, No. 35 Wall street, forming an L with Nos 15 and 17 Broad street, is exciting a good deal of interest The property costs some $1,300,000, and the whole outlay will not be less than $2,500,000.

The sum of $225,000 has been offered for the St. Nicholas Bank property on the southeast corner of Wall and New streets. In the assets of the bank, this structure was appraised at $100,000, and this was thought a very high figure.

Notwithstanding the advance in rents, houses are being readily taken up in this city and neighborhood. There is a steady influx of population to New York.

It is reported that the Underground Railway have the money for the enterprise and are nearly ready to give out the contracts for a portion of the work.

Messrs Lottimer & Barclay have sold at private sale the four-story brown stone front dwelling No. 29 West Fiftieth street, 20x55x100.5 feet, for $25,000.

The sale of the four-story brown stone front dwelling No. 350 West Twenty-third street for $20,600 has been made by Scott & Myers, also No. 1071 Madison avenue, southeast corner of Eighty-first street, a four-story brown stone front dwelling for $25,000.

From Brooklyn we hear that John F. James has sold to Messrs. Wechsler & Abreham the large retail fancy and dry-goods dealers, the five-story iron front stores known as Nos. 422, 424, 426 and 428 Fulton street, together with the plot of ground on which they stand, 121.2x190 in all, for $170,000. It is said that this firm will immediately improve this whole plot. The tendency of the dry-goods trade seems to to be to locate itself above the City Hall.

The same broker sold the five-story brown-stone front dwelling on Pierrepoint street, northwest corner of Willow street, 22.8x100, to Mr. Bullinger, publisher of The Nation, for $18,500.

Mr. George I. Seney has purchased as a site for his new Methodist hospital in Brooklyn, to which he has given $240,000, the plot of ground between Sixth and Seventh streets, and Seventh and Eighth avenues, Brooklyn, which was selected by ex Mayor Booth and City Works Commissioner John French, both conspicuous Methodists.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—Prices have continued steadily on the downward turn, and show a further loss of some 75c @$1.00 per M, but at the decline the movement was comparatively free and the market as a whole had a more business-like appearance. Indeed, considering the condition of the weather during a portion of the week, the sales have really been quite liberal and are accepted by the trade as indication that the promises of a good full consumption as the season progresses were well founded. Naturally for the time being the purchases are guaged closely to immediate wants, and wherever buyers can hold off they are doing so as the present outlook seems to show an early resumption of river navigation and a consequent restoration of communication with the primary points along the Hudson. The quantity and form in which supplies are sent forward by manufacturers must also prove an important influence in fixing the basis of cost, and it is not unreasonable to expect a somewhat lower range, though it will probably require some little time to perfect transportation facilities sufficiently to give a heavy supply. In the meanwhile there is a good chance for a neutralizing influence in the form of increased consumption. At the present writing the line of quotations stand at about $7 50@8 00 per M for Long Island, $7.25@7.50 do for Staten Island, $7.00@7 25 for New Jersey Hards, and about $4 00 for Pales, the latter selling quite in proportion to the better grades.

HARDWARE.—Reports are generally of a cheerful character and business shows good form. Most of the distribution is confined to such orders as can be filled on shipment to near-by points and for local consumption, with a fair sprinkling of export business. There is, however, a call from the South and Southwest, and this promises to swell into larger proportions daily as soon as some sort of dependence can be placed upon the transportation facilities. Many sections of this State and of the West remain shut off, but as the letters received indicate a growing want of supplies, dealers here feel that demand is merely postponed and will eventually develop into good volume. A slightly unsettled tone may still be noted upon prices in a few cases but, as a rule, the line of values is quite steadily held and the selling interest in a confident mood.

LATH.—There has not been many additional offerings of stock, and as a sequence business was slow. At the best, however, demand proved rather moderate, as the previous purchases gave dealers an ample supply against only a fair distribution for the time being, and there was no special necessity for seeking additions from first hands. We should quote the market at $2@2.10 per M, some odds and ends of cargoes selling at the inside rate which now represents about the best bid, while the extreme figure is generally asked. Advices still indicate small amounts afloat.

LIME.—There is not much change. Receivers continue to report a good demand and quick sale for all the stock they are enabled to offer, with room for more if it were here. On this basis, naturally, prices are firm, and full former figures continue to be quoted.

LUMBER.—Reports generally continue cheerful, and the great majority of the trade look upon the market as affording every indication of a good business at hand. Certain buyers show probably a little more anxiety than is really necessary, in order to secure future deliveries within close limits of time, but as a rule the demand develops without undue excitement, and as the volume is good, the form of operations has a solid, encouraging look. Unless there has been a vast amount over-estimating, the wants of the city and dependent points will be liberal, and the export movement promises to hold its own and may possibly grow somewhat. The reports, however, of a large increase in the foreign movement as compared with the corresponding time last year, and to which some prominence has been given, are all bosh. The figures show 12,160,268 feet in 1880 against 11,002,711 feet in 1881, from January 1st to March 1st, and in about the same proportion to date. For immediate delivery there is still some little drag to the demand, but the influences appear temporary in character and will probably disappear within four or five weeks

Spruce retains a steady market, and the tendency rather favors the seller than the buyer. About all the attractive arrivals thus far this Spring have been placed without much difficulty, indeed rather better than was anticipated, and some of the poorer lots have also brought pretty good rates, with receivers confident that if cargoes do not come in upon them too fast they can hold their own on prices readily. Specifications are also tendered with freedom, and while the majority are either accepted or filed to await their turn, some agents are compelled to refuse in consequence of the full engagements under which their mills have already been placed. There has been no break in prices of late on average randoms, but unusual large sized cargoes were difficult to place, and to save demurrage holders shaded a trifle. Quoted $16@17.50 for random, and $17@19.00 for special.

White pine remains in a firmer position and the indications are favorable for holders to retain the advantage until navigation with all points is resumed. The home consumption has been full and the supply of box boards is much reduced, while shipping grades of all kinds have become more closely concentrated as the accumulations worked down, and holders naturally insist upon extreme rates. Especially is this the case on South American shippers, very few lots of which can be found for less than $25 00 per M. We quote $17@20 per M. for West India shipping boards; $24.50@26 00 for South America do.; $16 @16 50 for box board; $17.00@17.50 for do. wide and sound do.

Yellow Pine remains much the same as last noted. The current offering lacks attractions and cannot be sold except at a comparatively easy range of prices, but the demand is good for specials from both builders and manufacturers, with quick sales at full rates whenever sellers can be found. Really choice random would also receive attention. We quote random cargoes at about $23 50@25 per M.; ordered cargoes, $24@26 do.; green flooring boards, $24@25 do. and dry do. do. $25@26.50. Cargoes at the South $14@17 per M. for rough, and $19@20 for dressed.

Hardwoods would be active were there any stock available, as the demand continues good at extreme rates, and for pretty much all kinds. We quote at wholesale rates by carload about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do.; oak, $35@40 do.; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do. culls, $18@20 do.; cherry, $45@47 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch. $25@27.50, and do. inch, $33@35 do.; hickory, $35@45 do., for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

Shingles not quite so active at the moment as a short time ago, but the supply under good control and holders views very firm. We quote Cyprus at about $6 for saps and $8.50@9 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $4 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2.50@4.50 for 16-inch, as to quality and to quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30-inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28.75@33.25 for No 1; for 24-inch, $6.50@16 for A and $16.75@23 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A and $11 25@11.75 for No. 1.

There is a hardening on prices for stock from yard on the stimulus of an increasing demand and a steady falling off in the supply and assortment.

From among the lumber charters and engagements recently reported we select the following:

An Am barque, 513 tons, from Boston to Montevideo for orders, lumber, $14 net; a Br barque, 319 tons, from Portland to Montevideo for orders, lumber, supposed $15 net; a Br barque, 570 tons, from Portland to Buenos Ayres, lumber, $15 net; a schr, 422 tons, from Portland to Baltimore, lumber, $5 25 net; a Br brig, 189 tons, hence to Ponce, P. GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

THE WEST.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

LUMBERMAN'S GAZETTE.
Bay City, Mich.

One and a half billion feet of logs for the lumber manufacturers of the eastern shore of Michigan to begin work on when the cutting season opens is about the outlook. By which it is not meant they will be all in the booms, but the log crop, all told, from the Straits to the Saginaws, will amount to about that sum. The crop will not be a cheaply got in one, for not only have wages been higher, but the labor of hauling has been increased, especially toward the latter part of the season, since there began to be so much snow. On the ice roads available the fore part of the season immense loads were drawn, but since the snow has been piled up to the depth of three to four feet on the level in the woods the labor has been increased, and the work retarded. The addition to the cost of getting in the logs is estimated all the way from 10 to 25 per cent. The new cut of lumber ought, therefore, to bring more than the old, but there will be no advance unless the market warrants it.

Business is moderate in volume, with steady and firm prices. Holders name the figures and there is little disposition to make concessions. Things will doubtless take a more active turn toward the close of the month, when something more may be known regarding the probable time when navigation will be open. At present that event seems more remote than is pleasing to contemplate. There is more and thicker ice in the lakes, bays, rivers, creeks and harbors than before for many years and the break up will undoubtedly be later than common.

Prices are the same as before, ranging from 6.50@8 for culls, $13.50@16 for common and $30@35 for uppers. Choice stock is sometimes held above these figures. The inquiry is good, but the available stock is not extra large.

The Chicago Northwestern Lumberman:

Notwithstanding the fact that the past week has been one of the most disagreeable, as regards the weather, of any of the very disagreeable weeks of the winter, and has been marked with one of the heaviest storms of rain, sleet and snow combined that has ever been known in the land, the figures of shipment both of lumber and shingles from this market indicate that under more favorable conditions the trade of Chicago would have been notable as of extraordinary extent. Under all the unfavorable conditions, the shipments for the week reached 15,379,568, exclusive of the large amount which entered into the trade and consumption of the city, which has amounted to a very large quantity, but of which no figures are obtainable. The total shipments for the two first months of the year aggregated 104,287,856 in addition to the local consumption.

Prices are firm, and a general feeling of confidence prevails among all the dealers, broken only by apprehensions excited by a lack of assortments in well seasoned lumber and by the extreme scarcity of small timber and heavy joist. So far from any disposition being manifested to cut prices as established in the published list, there is a growing feeling that at no remote date higher figures must be determined upon, as on many grades dealers are exchanging with each other upon a basis fully 50 cents and $1 higher than the quotations. Of course, an equal difference must be made in the price to consumers, and a public acknowledgment of the fact will soon become necessary through a revision of the price list. One instance came to our knowledge, a few days ago, in which one dealer borrowed a bill of 8x8 of a neighbor, thinking he could replace it in kind, but was glad, after a day or two, to settle in cash at an advance on the list. Twenty-foot stuff, quoted upon the list at $13, sells readily at $17, and other long lengths are higher in proportion, while many sizes and lengths now quoted at $11 50 and $12 50, are firm at $13 and $15. If the weather ever becomes settled, so that out-of-door work can be carried on with comfort and economy, there is little doubt that the trade of this city will prove all that the most sanguine can hope for. The volume of orders from the country is sufficient to keep the yards reasonably busy under the present adverse circumstances, while the planing-mills and other manufacturing establishments are crowded to their utmost capacity.

The planing-mill men recently increased their rates for mill work, to take effect March 1, and the rates will hereafter be quoted by dealers at $1.50 for one side work, and $2 for two sides. The planing-mills have for the past two years been working with little, or, if the statements of the operators are to be relied upon—as no doubt they are—no profit, and there is nothing unreasonable in their present demands, to which the dealers of this city readily accede.

Receipts and shipments of lumber and shingles from January 1 to and including March 1:

HARDWOODS.—Since last writing, oak has arrived at some yards in abundance. We noticed a few car loads of ash wagon tongues, which went direct to manufacturers. Dry maple axles are wanted, but we doubt if there are any in town. We quote felloes five cents higher.

Whitewood has not arrived in great quantities during the week on account of bad roads at producing points. At some of the Tennessee mills there is plenty of lumber, when once it can be hauled to railway points for transportion. Some of these mills, having a good supply of whitewood on hand, are now running on oak. One fine lot of 150,000 feet, from 13 to 17 inches in width, dry and clear, arrived, and was placed direct from the cars.

The most we have noticed in the way of desirable receipts in ash were a few car-loads of dry thick. There is considerable green coming forward, and we hear of some small lots selling readily. It is out of the question for users of ash to get dry stock, and the dry kiln must be resorted to.

Walnut has arrived in small quantities. It seems to be getting scarcer every day. Everything in thick is badly wanted, and one of our houses, having a large contract, has been picking it up closely. We saw one dealer dividing a car of common among five customers, each of whom would gladly have taken as many car loads as there were customers. Some yards have not a cull in them. We do not advance the price of culls but we consider it rather low. In our rounds of the yards, we were assured by several dealers that they did not offer a cull at less than $40 for inch, and if desirable, they were readily taken at those figures. Cull plank are sold at the same price, though we note one sale of three-inch at $42. We met some of our heaviest furniture manufacturers at the yards buying at full rates. This is an exceptional state of things, for these men get their lumber largely by contract, besides having buyers on the road, and never go to the yards when they can help it

Dry balusters 3x3 are very scarce, and are held at 12 cents each. Smaller sizes are plenty and slow of sale.

We hear constant complaint concerning the greenness of lumber that has been piled during the winter. The weather is so cold that the sap has been continuously frozen, and not long since we saw some walnut, three months piled, that did not appear to be in better condition than though it were but two weeks from the saw, with the advantages of warm weather.

The sale of chestnut in this market is very light, probably not a half-dozen yards keeping it in stock. A correspondent writes us inquiring what sizes he shall make his chestnut, for sale at this point; but we not feel like advising him in regard to it; neither do we think it would profit him to have his eye on this market at all. Chestnut is used almost exclusively for inside finishing, and very sparsely, indeed, in this town for that. Occasionally a man who builds to suit him, finishes his rooms differently, and it is a good thing to have chestnut in one of them. Some of our builders are of the opinion that if the tastes of our people were jogged a little, chestnut might come more into use, and many of them think that some day it will.

All staves are scarce, and ash No. 1 higher. Our new figures represent quite an advance, but one dealer assured us that he could sell his stock at $10. Parties heretofore receiving largely from Indiana have been informed that it will be fruitless to depend longer on that source. Hoops are in good supply, with the exception of flat, which are scarce.

THE EAST.

The Boston Journal of Commerce says:

The dulness which we had occasion to note in our last still continues, but dealers are looking hopefully forward to a good spring trade, and it is calculated that then the demand will prove sufficiently general to create a very liberal movement in all kinds of stock. Eastern lumber is selling at its former rates, and we have no change to note in the prices of other grades. Hard woods are still scarce and command good prices. The logging operations have been quite large thus far, and this, of course, will entail upon the mills a large amount of work. In fact, there is a probability that more has been cut than the mills can manufacture. The demand for lumber promises to be unusually large this season, and this will rather have the effect of giving prices an upward tendency.

FOREIGN.

The London Timber Trades Journal, of Feb. 19th, as follows:

There is still an indisposition on the part of importers generally to enter upon engagements, and as the exporters show themselves unwilling to give way in the matter of prices, there is a waiting game being played, which may resolve itself into a tug of war. But while the stocks are still so large, and such poor results are being obtained at the public sale-rooms, buyers will be in no hurry. The reports which continue to reach us indicate that very little indeed is doing free on board.

According to all accounts, agents who have visited the coast during the part week have had a very bad time of it; we hear of them three and four deep in some places, whilst those who more wisely remained at home have been flooding buyers with offers through the post.

Exceedingly stormy weather has been experienced in the Atlantic lately, and the timber-laden vessels on their homeward voyages from Pensacola and other pitch pine ports have suffered terribly. One captain, who had to contend with a gale of wind of great force for three consecutive weeks, states that he never experienced such continuous stormy weather since he has been to sea.

Referring to the results of a public sale, the Journal says:

The greatest sacrifice was apparently made on the cargo of 1st quality Quebec spruce ex Edgar. These goods were in the summer thought to be getting scarce and valuable in this country, and in Quebec they were sought for and bought up at over £7 per standard, and it was at one time stated that as much as £8 was cheerfully paid to secure them for shipment to Europe. Remembering this, and the reputed short stock of spruce abroad, especially of 1st quality Quebec, it is but an indifferent sign of the times to see good mercantile parcels of 3 x 9, allotted to lengths, selling at the hammer in London by the handy lot of about ten standards at £8 10s.; only one lot fetched £8 15s., and some went at £7 15s. The freight and charges on these goods by the time they left the hands of the selling broker could not be much under £4, if that figure would cover them. There were about 100 standards of them sold.

Among the eccentricities of the day, may be mentioned the sale of a small lot of less than a load of timber, or 38 ft. of wainscot logs, that is one log, and two half logs from Pillau that brought £6 per log of 18 ft. cube, which would be £12 13s. 4d. for the lot, three-fourths of a load. We may expect a good supply of wainscot logs from that port in future, as this was sold at the rate of about £17 per load. The price is the more remarkable as just before a quantity of New Orleans wainscot logs, ex Italy, were put up at 70s. per 18 ft., and the officiator, Mr. Simson, even reduced the reserve to 67s. 6d. without eliciting a single bid. The Pillau lot was one of the exceptions to the rule we referred to in our last report, that small lots did not commonly fetch best prices at the Baltic sale-rooms. But this was better exemplified still in another small lot, about a standard, of tamarac 3x7, 8 and 9 inches, of fair lengths, which went at £5 15s. per standard, about half their value to any one having occasion for them. The hickory timber was held back at £5 7s. 6d. per load, and birch timber, fine sizes, 82s. 6d. Smaller wanted an advance on 75s., but not a soul opened his mouth for either. Quebec oak over 95 c. ft. average was put up at £7, smaller sizes £6 10s., but a dead silence pervaded the room. Ash from the same port, ex Lennie Burre, in plank, could obtain no bid on 1s. 11d per ft. cube. A good deal of Petersburg lathwood was offered, but only one lot found a buyer at £6 15s.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER SALES.—On the 11th inst. Messrs. Ifred Dobell & Co. offered a cargo of Norway spars, poles, &c., which realized fair prices, viz:

Masts, 6½ in diameter, 12d per cub ft; spars, 4 to 6 in diameter, 1 5–6d to 1½d per lineal ft; poles, 30 ft long and upwards, 1½d per lineal ft; do 29 ft and under, 1d per lineal ft.

On the same day Messrs. Duncan, Ewing & Co. sold a parcel of 724 logs St. John birch timber as under:

13½ to 14½ in, 14½ per ft; 14½ to 15 in, 14½d per ft; 15 to 15½ in, 14¾d per ft; 16 to 16½ in, 15½d per ft; 17½ to 18 in, 16½d to 18d per ft; 18 to 18½ in, 17½d to 18½d per ft; 19 to 20 in, 19d to 23½d per ft; Maple, plain, 15½d. per ft; Ash, plain, 18½d per ft.

The sale of mahogany and other furniture woods held on the same day by Messrs. Edward Chaloner & Co. was well attended, and there was keen competition for the Honduras mahogany, which realized high prices. Taken all round, the recent sales of mahogany show a decided advance, as will be seen from the following result:

DUBLIN.

The Irish Times says that there is a better tone in the timber market this week, though but little actual improvement in business can be recorded. The transactions in timber are confined to the supply of urgent wants for immediate consumption, save in a few exceptional cases where merchants in the country, knowing that with any increased demand prices will be higher, have taken advantage of the present low rates to buy some stock for future requirements. The disposition of holders, however, is not to look far ahead at current prices. St. John and Miramichi deals, £14 10s to £15; 1st Quebec deals, £18 to £22; 2d, £14 10s to £15 10s; 3rd, £13 10s to £14; 4th, £13; white Norway flooring, 7x1, 11s 6d; oak, £7 10s; ash, 90s; elm, 90s; birch, 85s to 90s; red pine, 75s to 80s; yellow pine, 95s to 100s; board pine, 100s; pitch pine, 65s; Memel (full-sized), 60s to 80s; do. (under-sized), 50s to 60s.

This week's mail f om Rio Janiero furnishes the following:

"Pitch Pine Deals.—Two cargoes have arrived with 'S. V. Merrick' from Wilmington, N. C., with 233,589 feet, and the 'Glengarry' from Brunswick, Ga., with 427,686 feet; both cargoes were sold at rs 36$000 per doz. 3x9x14, the former subject to abatement in case of any damage, the latter free of said clause. It is to be regretted that there are so many cargoes on the way to this port, but we still trust to keep up prices by availing of offers made from Bahia and Rio Grande do Sul. The market is steady at from 36$000 to 38$500 per doz. 3x9x14. Spruce Pine Deals—No arrivals; worth 33$000 per doz. White Pine Lumber—The 'Palo Alto' from New York brought 234,226 feet, which have been sold at 100 rs. per toot, at which price the market closes flat in view of the heavy expected arrivals."

The Havana mail as follows;

The market continues well supplied, and we quote $34@35 per mile feet for White Pine, and $35@36 do do for Pitch do, which enjoys of more demand than the former.

Cooperage Stock.—Box Shooks—We hear of a sale of 2,000 from store at 8 rs., and three month credit. Hogshead Shooks—Only small occasional sales of shooks at from 17@18 rs. those for sugar, and 19@20 rs. those for molasses, all as to class and conditions of sale. Empty casks—Stocks in first hands aggregate about 700 hhds, for which $4 is pretended in accordance with a sale at said price of a lot of 300, to arrive from New York. Hoops—Old are plentiful and neglected at from $45@48 per mile for 14 feet, and $38@40 do for 12 do. A sale of 50,000 fresh, 14 feet long, to arrive, has been closed at $50.

LUMBERMAN AND MANUFACTURER, MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.

Snow blockades in every direction account for the absence of a lumber trade worth mentioning. News from the woods is to the effect that the loggers are making desperate efforts to overcome the disadvantages of deep snow, and secure their intended cut. On the Chippewa, Wisconsin and Black river country, a great many men and teams have been added to the woods crews to make up shortages in the cut. The season supply will not exceed that of last year.

Several log sales are reported at prices at least a dollar better than last year. One sale of 8,000,000 feet at $8.00 at Minneapolis fixes that as about the price of good short in the boom. Choice lots are being taken freely on the Chippewa at $5.75 on the bank. This is about equal to $7 in the boom by boom scale. Several mill men from lower river points are hunting logs on the Black and St. Croix. No "outsiders" apply on the Chippewa.

The proposed movement for better prices for lumber lacks an active head, with logs at $8 in the boom and lumber at $12. Somebody will soon come to the front and stir up the fraternity to action. Activity in this direction is not expected until there is more lumber trade, and every person wants to be the last one to move.

NAILS—Demand fluctuates to some extent, but generally reaches quite a full total, and comes from about all the regular sources. Supplies equal the outlet, with such control shown, however, as to prevent any serious or direct pressure to realize, and, at the recent addition to the line of cost, is quite firmly adhered to The production at the moment is moderate, and carefully adjusted to the wants of the market.

We quote 10d to 60d common fence and sheathing, per keg, $3@3.10; 8d and 9d, common do, per keg $3.45@3 55; 6d and 7d, common do, per keg, $4.70@ 3.80; 4d and 5d, common do, per keg, $3 95@4 00; 3d and 4d, light, per keg, $4 70@4.80; 3d, fine, per keg, $5.45@5.55; 2d, per keg, $5.45@5.55.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $3.45@3 55. Floor, Casing and Box, $3.95@4.45. Finishing, $4.20@4.95.

CLINCH NAILS.

1½ inch, $5.70@5.80; 1¾ inch, $5.45@5.55; 2 inch, $5.20@5.30; 2½@2¾ inch, $4 95@5.05; 3 inch and longer, $4.70@4.80.

PAINTS AND OILS.—Business continues in very fair shape and tends to still further improvement Jobbers are commencing to lay in stocks, and they in turn feel the influence of an increasing consumption, imparting to the market a cheerful, promising tone on all desirable grades. As yet, the major portion of the distribution is to local and nearby points, but as transportation facilities increase, it is expected that more distant sections of the country will be heard from. The line of cost in a general way remains steady, and we have no important changes to make, but leads seem to be a little unsettled under the influence of the reaction in cost of the metal. Linseed oil has met with only about the ordinary jobbing demand, and business had a somewhat dull tone, but the supply is fairly situated and holders' ideas firm in the majority of cases. We quote at about 57@57½c.(for City, and 62@62½c. for Calcutta from first hands.

PITCH.—Not much demand outside the ordinary trade call, and the general market showing little change. Supplies fairly controlled, however, and prices steady. We quote at $2@2.15 per bbl for City delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE —The market has been rather quiet and somewhat unsettled. Buyers have not come forward with the freedom anticipated, and this proved rather discouraging to holders. Supplies, however, were pretty well together and in strong hands, with an indisposition to offer freely or modify the line of cost. In a jobbing way the movement was fair, and seems to be developing a tendency to increase. As this report is closed, the quotations stand at about 45@46½ per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—The market remains quite steady, and it would be difficult to secure any negotiation, except at full former rates. Stocks are under comparatively close control, with owners making no effort to realize, though they are willing to give attention to all really full bids. We quote $2.50@2.75 for Newberne and Washington, and $2.62@3.00 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.
